

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

W. F. Sullivan, of No. 55 Clinton Place, is the sixth ward member of the Democratic county committee.

J. J. Barrett, of Mt. Morris, was in the city Wednesday.

Miss Nellie Shields, of Auburn, who has been visiting the Misses Joyce on Platt street, has returned home.

Mr. Adam Hubschmidt and daughter, of New York, are visiting at Mrs. V. Hauss, Delevati street.

Sunday, October 5, Bishop McQuaid will lay the corner stone of the new church of the Holy Rosary, on Rowe street.

Miss Mamie Rees, who has been visiting friends in this city the past month, returned to her home in New York, after an absence of three months.

Bishop McQuaid is announced to preside at the dedication of Memorial Pavilion at Highland Park to-day, and Mayor Carroll to make the response for the city.

Mrs. P. Cunningham died Wednesday morning at her home, 26 Cady street. She was a sister of Mrs. B. Mallon, of Court street. The funeral was held Friday at 8 P. M. at the Church of the Assumption, Scottsville.

Fred Hauss gave a birthday party Monday evening at his home on Delevati street. A quartette furnished music for the occasion, and the evening was pleasantly passed in dancing and other amusements. It was an early hour in the morning when the party dispersed, all having passed a delightful time.

A two weeks' mission will be opened at St. Michael's Church. It will begin Sunday evening. Revs. Peter Schmitzler and F. X. Neubrand, of the Society of Jesus, will conduct it. There will be the customary mission masses every morning, and sermons and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament every evening.

Rev. Otto Zardetti, of St. Cloud, Minn., will pontificate at solemn high mass at the Church of the Most Holy Redeemer, Sunday, October 5. Father Oberholzer is a native of the same country as the Bishop and the two have always been the warmest of personal friends.

James E. McGreal and Miss Anna A. McGready were married at 5:30 P. M. Monday at Corpus Christi Church by Rev. J. J. Leary, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Anthony McGreal, brother of the groom, officiated as best man and a sister of the bride was bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. McGreal have the congratulations of many friends.

Rev. John Hogan, of Elk Point, North Dakota, was in the city this week visiting his parents, who reside on Hudson street. Father Hogan was a classmate with Rev. Felix O'Hanlon, of St. Mary's, at Troy Theological Seminary, and last Sunday celebrated high mass at St. Mary's. His strong voice added much to the impressiveness of the ceremony.

Mrs. Bridget Keegan died September 19 at the family residence, No. 8 Romeyn street. Deceased was 77 years of age and leaves two daughters and one son. The latter is Arthur Keegan, a State street merchant. Mrs. Keegan was an old resident in that section of the city and highly esteemed by her numerous friends and acquaintances. The funeral took place Monday morning from the Cathedral. Rev. J. F. Kiernan celebrated mass. The bearers were John Dempsey, Mortimer K. Glen, Richard Whalen, Thomas McAnamoy, Patrick Bulger and Bernard O'Reilly.

Mrs. Emily Machies, one of the oldest residents of this city, died Monday at her residence, 12 Oswego street. Mrs. Machies was 91 years old and had resided in this city the greater part of her life. Three daughters and two sons survive to mourn her death: Mrs. Trumbley, of Irondequoit; Mrs. Mary Hicks, Mrs. Julia Shearer and Henry Machies, of this city; and Edward Machies, of Pine county, Minnesota. The funeral services were held at 9:30 A. M. Wednesday at the Church of Our Lady of Victory.

Peter Connaughton died Monday evening at his residence, 9 Edinburgh Court, aged 55 years. Deceased was a well-known groceryman and resided in the third ward for twenty-five years. He was born in County Galway, Ireland, and came to this country in 1856, settling in Rochester, where he has resided ever since. In politics Mr. Connaughton was a staunch Democrat. Deceased leaves, besides his wife, five children, Patrolman John L. Connaughton, Patrick E., Emmet, William and Laura. The funeral took place from the house Friday morning at 9:30 A. M. and from Immaculate Conception Church at 10 A. M.

George M. Burroughs died Friday evening of last week at his home, 240 Central avenue, aged 36 years. He had been ill about nine months and his death resulted from a complication of diseases. He bore his sufferings with Christian fortitude and his death was calm and peaceful, a quiet falling asleep. During his illness Mr. Burroughs was attended by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon of St. Mary's. A wife and three young children, the eldest not yet five years old, suffer in Mr. Burroughs' death the loss of a loving husband and kind father. The funeral was held Monday morning from St. Mary's Church.

Defective Thomas Lynch was acquitted, Tuesday, of the killing of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stoddard. The evidence was all in Monday, and about 4 P. M. Hon. George Raines began his closing plea for the defense and concluded it at 10:45 A. M. Tuesday. The speech was conceded by all who heard it to be one of the eloquent ex-Senator's best efforts. District Attorney Benton's speech occupied about an hour. Justice Adam's charge was an impartial one. The jury took the case at 1:40 P. M. and at 9:45 P. M. returned a verdict of acquittal. Mr. Lynch was the recipient of many congratulations. After a few days' rest he will resume his duties as a detective.

St. Michael's handsome new church will be dedicated to-morrow. It is not yet wholly completed, but is far enough advanced to admit of the ceremony being performed. It is, indeed, a handsome structure and an ornament, not only to the diocese, but the city at large. Bishop McQuaid will officiate at the dedication ceremonies, which will begin at 10 o'clock, assisted by Bishop W. M. Wigger, of Newark, N. J., and Bishop Otto Zardetti, of St. Cloud, Minn. Bishop Wigger will pontificate at high mass; Bishop Zardetti will preach the sermon in German, and Bishop McQuaid will deliver an address in English at the close of the mass. Very Rev. H. DeRegge will be Master of Ceremonies, and Rev. Fridolin Pascalar, pastor of St. Michael's, and a number of priests of the city will assist in the services.

The following sketch of Bishop Otto Zardetti, who will preach at the dedication of St. Michael's to-morrow, appeared in the second number of the JOURNAL, October 12, 1880:

The Right Rev. Otto Zardetti, who has been appointed to the bishopric of St. Cloud, Minn., is now in Switzerland, of which country he is a native. Dr. Zardetti is at present vicar-general of the vicariate of Dakota, and is one of the most learned of the Catholic clergy in this country, being a scientific scholar and an authority on theological affairs. He speaks fluently seven languages.

Rev. Winand M. Wigger, who will celebrate the pontifical high mass at St. Michael's to-morrow, is a New Yorker by birth, and he is not yet 50 years of age, the date of his birth being December, 1841. He was early sent to the Jesuit College of St. Francis Xavier, Sixteenth street, New York city, where his talents attracted the notice of his professors. From this institution he passed to St. John Hall, the Newark diocesan seminary, where he pursued his theological studies for some time, and being to young for ordination at the completion of his course, Bishop Bayley sent him to the famous Brugnoli Seminary at Genoa, Italy, to still continue his studies. There young Wigger won his doctor's cap, and there he was ordained on June 10, 1864, he being then in his 22d year.

Coming back to this country, his first appointment was at the Newark cathedral, but, after a few years of service there, he was sent to Madison as pastor of St. Vincent's church, the rectorate of which became vacant by the death of its former incumbent. Doctor Wigger remained at Madison until the promotion to the purple, and his consecration took place at St. Patrick's cathedral, Newark, October 18, 1881. Archbishop Corrigan, his predecessor in the see, being the officiating prelate, and Bishops McQuaid and Loughlin his assistants.

George Engert was nominated last Saturday by the Democrats, for the office of county treasurer. The Union and Advertiser gave the following sketch of his life: "George Engert, the Democratic candidate for treasurer, was born in Irondequoit April 12, 1836, and passed his life in farming until 1867. At that time he established a coal business in Rochester and has continued this since, the firm at present being George Engert & Co., which has been located on Exchange street for many years past. In 1887 and 1888 Mr. Engert represented the seventh ward in the Board of Supervisors. He is a representative business man and citizen and possesses the respect of the entire community. In addition to this it should be stated that Mr. Engert has been for years a respected and devoted member of St. Joseph's Church."

Catholic Society Notes.

The C. M. B. A. Weekly, in an article headed "Rochester Thunder by a Hustler," has the following:

As you have doubtless heard by this time Rochester came near getting their share of the favors of the convention. Judge John F. Kinney was re-elected 1st vice-president; John Lehman was elected as grand guard, and James Whalen was elected representative to the supreme council. Then, last but not least, we got the convention for 1892. The Rochester boys and their friends are "hustlers" and were at it early and late. Bros. Miller of 87, Mead of 87, Engel of 58, and Hyland of 94, attended to the delegates at the "Park," while Bros. Ernst of 87, Whalen of 88, and Crowley of 139, attended to the Arlington. Bros. Siebert, Fitzgerald and Walker were much interested in the strikes at Binghamton and tried hard to arbitrate their difficulty but without success. The CATHOLIC JOURNAL was made one of the official organs: one motion of Bros. Kinney and Schell. Bro. Tighe, of Branch 45, made himself heard on the floor of the hall and was listened to with attention. Rev. Father Hendricks was very much interested in Rochester's success and did more than his share towards accomplishing it. Bros. Kinney, Whalen and Lehman handled the canvass in good shape. Every man left home with the determination that Rochester must and should be recognized. Grand Deputy Whalen's report was well received and commented upon very favorably. Grand Vice President Kinney showed during the session that he was well qualified to fill the position of presiding officer. Bro. Lennon, of branch 12, commanded attention when he addressed the convention. His quiet manner made a favorable impression on the delegates. We missed the genial face and counsel of Bro. Brown of branch 45; but he was able represented. Bros. Klanch of Danville, Bagan, of Mt. Morris, and Howley, of Canadawaga, were with the Rochester people. Sincere fought hard for the convention, but the people wanted Rochester, and what they want they must have.

The funeral of Anthony Westbeck took place from St. Francis Xavier Church Saturday last. He was a member of C. M. B. A. Branch 58, St. Francis Xavier Society and of the Stone Cutters' Union. They all attended the funeral in a body. He leaves a wife and nine children.

The Young Men's Catholic Association will meet at Cathedral hall next Monday evening, Sept. 29, to nominate officers for election. A full attendance of members is requested.

Displays Up Town.

The dry goods buying public has set in like a tide towards Burke, FitzSimons, Hone & Co. People are not looking home, they are purchasing. They cannot help it when they see the extraordinary bargains being offered in every department of this most popular house. As "all roads lead to Rome," so too, for the next week, all lead to Burke, FitzSimons, Hone & Co.'s great clearance sale. Extraordinary sacrifices are made in silks and dress goods. These are the departments most incommenced by the new building operations. But is no portion of this mammoth home, up stairs or down, can you fail to find magnificent goods at prices which will astonish you by their lowness. When this new building is finished, as it will be in a few days, Rochester will have a dry goods house not surpassed by any in the State, even if it is equalled. Not only will the stocks in each line be colossal in quantity and variety, but they will represent the very choicest things throughout whether in home or imported goods.

To Live in Misery and Pain. Get Wright's Ointment. Useful Hint to Ladies.

"Seventeen years ago I was afflicted with a humors which rendered me almost insupportable. I was unable to walk, to sit, to stand, to lie down, and during the night I was unable to sleep. I was in a constant state of suffering, and my health was completely ruined. I tried many remedies, but all failed. Finally I consulted Dr. C. M. Freeman, president of the Western Dispensary, who gave me a bottle of his Ointment. I used it as directed, and in a few days I was able to walk, to sit, to stand, to lie down, and during the night I was able to sleep. I was completely cured. For my cure I am indebted to Dr. Freeman, and to the Ointment which he gave me. I can give no better advice to any woman who suffers as I did, than to try this Ointment. It is a cure for all humors, and it is a cure for all diseases of the skin. It is a cure for all diseases of the blood, and it is a cure for all diseases of the system. It is a cure for all diseases of the body, and it is a cure for all diseases of the soul. It is a cure for all diseases of the mind, and it is a cure for all diseases of the heart.
