St. Bernard's Choir Auburn Concert Set

Auburn—The Choir of St. Bernard's Seminary of Rochester under the direction of Rev. Benedict Ehmann will give a concert in Auburn on Tuesday evening, April 10, in the auditorium of Central High School.

The concert will be sponsored by the organists and choir directors of the Catholic churches of Auburn. Following are members of the sponsoring committee: Mrs. Frederick Herring, organist and Clarence Hayden, director, St. Aloysius Church; Mrs. H. G. Blundrick, organist and director, St. Alphonsus Church; Miss Kathleen Plunkett, organist and director, Holy Family Church; Frank Micela, organist and director, St. Hyacinth's Church; Gerald Fortino, organist and director, St. Mary's Church; Professor Constantine Belyk, director, St. Peter and Paul Church.

Mrs. Frederick J. Welch, president of the Musical Arts Society of Auburn, is chairman of the ticket committee. Mrs. Welch will be assisted by a large group of Auburnians.

The Auburn Concert will mark the first time that the choir of St. Bernard's has left Rochester since 1939 when it gave a concert at Cornell University. Father Ehmann who has directed the choir since 1938 is nationally known as an authority on Church Music and for the past several years he has given an annual concert to overflow audiences at the Kilbourn Hall of the Eastman School of Music in Rochester.

(He is author of the "Library Signpost column on page 15).

Geneva Officer Missing, Marine Hurt on Iwo Jima

GENEVA — Still "missing in action," is reported of a Geneva Army flyer and a Marine was slightly wounded, he reports, in the Iwo Jima attack, the round-up of wars news in this area, this week, states.

According to a War Department message received by Mrs. Robert H. Tayler, 145 William Street, her husband, First Lieut. Robert H. Tayler, who was reported missing in action over Italy a year ago, is still considered to be missing in action.

The communication stated that all information concerning Lieutenant Tayler has been carefully reviewed and considered and an official determination has been made as of March 12, 1945, continuing him in the status of missing in action.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bolavert, 86 Brook Street, have received word from their son, Pfc. George R. Bolavert, Jr. The letter dated March 10, states that he was evacuated from Iwo Jima aboard a hospital ship and is now hospitalized. "The extent of my injuries are as nothing compared to my poor buddies", he writes.

Private First Class Bolavert was with the 24th Marine Regiment of the Fourth Marine Division. His regiment was the first to hit the beach at Iwo and this story of the Marines appears in "Life" magazine of March 5. He did not explain the full extent of his injuries but stated that he received shell shock and concussion.

Pfc. Joseph Madia has been promoted to Corporal according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Madia, 8 Tillman Street. Corporal Madia is with the Ninth Army in Germany.

Pvt. [illegible] Gibbs, 46 Seneca Street, was recently promoted to the rank of Corporal at Bean Paton Army Air Field technical school of the AAF Training Command.

Arthur J. Mearns, Seaman first class, USNRB, of Portland, Me., has been spending a brief leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mearns of 51 Hamilton Street.

Word has been received by Mrs. Ida Stine that her son, Sgt. Edward Stine, who recently received the Purple Heart for injuries sustained in Germany, has been promoted to Staff Sergeant.

Lawrence Fusco, son of Mrs. Concetta Fusco, 142 Exchange Street who is with the Armed Forces in Luzon, has recently sent home to his mother several Japanese souvenirs which he has picked up in the Philippines.

De Sales High School Notes

GENEVA — Six freshmen of De Sales High School have entered a book review contest sponsored by The Queen's Work, the national publication of Our Lady's Sodality. Each contestant has read and submitted a review of one of the books issued by The Queen's Work.

The contestants and the books reviewed are as follows:

Edward Constable and Nicholas Feliez, "When the Sorghum Was High", by John J. Considine, M. M.; Jane Giddings, "White Fire", by E. J. Edwards, S. V. D.; Mary Prendergast, "Damien the Leper", by John Farrow; Nina Smith, "Men of Maryknoll", by James Keller and Meyer Berger; Bernard Lynch, "These Two Hands", by E. J. Edwards, S.V.D.

Red Cross Aided By K. C. Auxiliary

Auburn — The Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus voted to contribute $10 to the American Red Cross at their meeting held on Wednesday evening. All arrangements are now completed for the card party to be held in the K. of C. home on Monday, April 9. All card games will be played and there will be a prize for each table. The public is invited.

Arrangements were made for a Communion breakfast to be held on April 29 and for a communion supper to precede the April meeting.

Auburn Weddings

Wilbrecht - Kapiro

AUBURN — Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wilbrecht, [illegible] Street announced this week the marriage of their daughter, Helen M., to Stanley Kapiro, son of Mrs. Tekla Kapiro, [illegible] Street. The wedding took place on Saturday morning, March 24 in the Church of the [illegible] Syracuse. Rev. [illegible] performed the ceremony. [illegible] was attended by Miss [illegible] of Auburn, [illegible] Frederick [illegible] of Auburn. [illegible] will reside in Auburn.

Hands William Smith College Alumnae

[illegible]

Getting On In The World

INTERRACIAL COUNCILS

The interracial problem is one of the most urgent issues now confronting the Church and the nation. It can be solved by prayer, by education, by good example, and by direct activity under the guidance of the hierarchy and clergy. We express the hope that [illegible] will [illegible] the activity [illegible] the Negro [illegible] in the [illegible] and [illegible] in the [illegible] and [illegible] in the [illegible] and