K. of C. Minstrels In Newark Acclaimed

Newark — Well received in its initial performance tonight, the second Annual Knights of Columbus Minstrels will again be presented to a capacity audience Friday night, April 6 in the High School Auditorium.

The Executive Committee in charge of this year's production headed by Anthony Colone and including Harold L. Franklin and Victor DeWeaver is receiving congratulations for the show's success.

The musical show includes a fast program of minstrel ringing and jokes, typical minstrel melodies to the popular songs of the day. Under the musical direction of Stanley Kartye, soloists and the large chorus of 40 has been thoroughly rehearsed, the opening performance demonstrated.

St. Helen's Society Maps Meeting Events

The regular monthly meeting of St. Helen's Altar Society will take place Wednesday evening, Apr. 11, with Mrs. Arnold Dunn presiding. Following the business portion of the meeting, a Bingo Department will be held.

Announcement was made that the meeting will be chaired by Mrs. Joseph Vill, [illegible]
