The NCCS Canteen Review

By The Observer

Easter morning, beautiful Spring sunshine and warmth, and fifty extra beds in the sixth floor dorm of the Rochester Gas and Electric building—all these combined to bring a crowd of 144 servicemen to the NCCS Canteen Sunday. Most of the boys, whatever their religion, went to Church. The Catholic boys went to early Masses, the others to their own 10 or 11 o'clock services. Consequently our crowd was fairly well distributed, and the "breakfast room" remained full most of the morning.

Our sponsors were members of the Athletic Association of Holy Redeemer Church, and they seem to be a very active, peppy crowd, for they did a grand job. The decorations were on the Easter bunny theme, and some very kind bunnies had undertaken to fill nests in the center of each table with brightly colored eggs!

Our hostesses on Mar. 31 were the ladies of the Alhambra, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Emmet J. O'Neill. They too, had a very busy day, but carried it off with their usual aplomb.

MANY BIRTHDAYS

Last Sunday we were celebrating birthdays, as usual. As you know, birthday parties are the surest kind of parties, and always provide good ice-breakers for the boys and the various committees. So we celebrate every birthday that comes along. We had three scheduled for this week, and then along came Mr. Hilary Tribble, from Sampson, who hails originally from Blakeley, Minn., and was twenty years old on Sunday. Nurse Natalie, ever-prepared for any emergency, produced from thin air a cigarette cake which, if you please, was filled with a pack of cigarettes! Hilary was delighted, expressed his thanks very nicely. And while we are on the gift-giving theme, this week's winner of the Quiz contest received a phone call home. Edmund Algire ("The name sounds English, but I'm really Irish") was out and called his home in Lawiston, Mass., so early in the morning that his family was just dressing to go to Mass! The boys derive as much pleasure from the gift of a phone call home, that the comparatively small expense (provided he doesn't live in California) is very worth-while.

Recently Steven P. Gould of the Canteen staff received a letter from Mr. Dan E. Fischer, formerly at Sampson, now on Treasure Island, Calif. Dan visited the Canteen several times. He says, in part, "I want to let you know and have the other folks at the Canteen know that I appreciated everything that they did in making me feel at home in Rochester. I know I'm only one of the many and I want you to know that all of the fellows may not express themselves, but on behalf of the other fellows and myself, thanks a million and I only hope that someday we can in some way repay you." (Now the Canteen was set up to try to repay the boys somewhat, and then talks about repaying us!)

"Those ham and eggs breakfasts," he continues, "are being missed on every other Sunday morning and that 9:30 Mass at St. Mary's is a miss to me. Rochester is one swell town and I only wish that everyone there could know how much the fellows living in distant parts of the U. S. appreciate their hospitality."
