Holy Family High Court Team Feted

Auburn — Holy Family High School entertained members of the school's basketball team and several guests this week at a dinner party in the parish room of Hotel Syracuse. The Rev William E. Davis presided at the dinner meeting and Rev. Alfred Hurr and Rev. Eugene McCarthy of Holy Family were also present.

Head Coach Alfred C. Crowley presented each of the players with a squad picture and he in turn received a sports jacket from the team members. The varsity players all received team jackets for their good work during the year. Two members of the team were not present at the dinner as they are serving with the armed forces. Dan Doyle is stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga., and Paul Bergen with the U. S. Coast Guard at Manhattan Beach.

This season marked the debut of Crowley as a high school coach and under his direction the Flying Eagles proved to be one of the top ranking parochial high school teams of the state. The team won 15 out of 17 games on the schedule.

Junior Recreation Trophy Awarded

Auburn — SS. Peter and Paul Church Basketball team in the Junior Recreation League of Auburn received the trophy symbolic of championship in the Junior League on Thursday evening last week at a dinner. The team not only won the regular season play but also captured the playoff title to win all the honors of the 1944-45 season.

The trophy for the regular season of play which the team gained by winning 10 of its 11 starts in the Junior League was presented by Sports Supervisor Avery E. Neagle of the Recreation Commission, to Captain Boris Kokowsky. The trophy for winning the playoff series was presented to Rev. Basil Ostasz, pastor of the church.

Captain Kokowsky secured 59 points in one game played this year. His team mates were Ray Prowak, John Buza, Eddie Kusyn, Alec Marjinsky, Joe Fallai, Pete Polak, Eugene Pszenchick, Eddie Naminak, Mike Hulick and Mickey Warcbeck.

SS. Peter and Paul placed first in the field and going into the playoffs met St. Hyacinth's winning 41-17 to enter the finals. In the finals they defeated the Columbus Seminary to win the Catholic championship [illegible].

In accepting the trophy for the team Captain Kokowsky thanked his team mates. Father Ostasz also responded with a fitting talk. Rev. Peter Leskiw also spoke briefly. Peter Naminak was master of ceremonies and Sports Supervisor Neagle brought the congratulations of the Recreation Committee to SS. Peter and Paul's team.

Ask Sodalists and Mothers To Receive on May 13

St. Louis — (NC) — May 13, World Sodality Day, is also observed as Mothers' Day in the United States, and it is hoped that praise out to all Sodalists to mark the double significance of that day by receiving Holy Communion together with their mothers.

The Queen's Work, Sodality journal office in the United States and Canada, also suggests that on May 13 the Sodalists [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] May 13, 1945, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
