Catholics of Eastern Rite Are Persecuted

Rome — (CIP) — A large-scale persecution of the Catholic Church of the Eastern Rite is going on in Carpatho-Russia, the Eastern part of Czechoslovakia, which was recently annexed by the Soviet Union.

According to eye-witness reports, all Catholic churches have been closed or handed over to the Orthodox Church. Bishop Theodore George Romza of Mukacevo was offered the title and dignity of a Metropolitan if he would break with the Holy See and join the Orthodox Church. When he refused, his Cathedral was closed. At the latest news, the Bishop was still at liberty, though entirely unable to exercise his functions; he expected however, to be arrested and deported.

Army Chaplain Home with Enemy Bullet in Arm

Boston — (NC) — Still carrying a Japanese bullet in his arm, Capt. Robert J. Hearn, C.S.S.R., 41-year-old multi-decorated Army chaplain, is home here after three years of service in the Pacific war theater. Father Hearn has been decorated with the Silver Star, the Bronze Star, the Purple Heart and a Presidential Unit citation.

Father Hearn was awarded the Purple Heart for a wound received when he and several soldiers hid in a closet in a deserted building on Luzon while a Japanese patrol searched the house. The Japanese didn't open the closet, but fired several times through the door. One of the bullets lodged in Father Hearn's arm. Father Hearn and the soldiers remained in the closet from 11 p. m. until 7 a. m.

Barry Parade Honors 'Father of U. S. Navy'

Philadelphia — The 200th anniversary of the birth of Commodore John Barry, known as the "Father of the American Navy," was observed here Sunday with a patriotic parade and memorial services at the Barry Statue in Independence Square and the grave of Commodore Barry in St. Mary's Churchyard.

September 13, the actual anniversary of Barry's birth in Wexford, Ireland, has been proclaimed Barry Day by Gov. Edward Martin of Pennsylvania and the Governors of Massachusetts and Rhode Island.
