The new parochial hall and school at the Church of Our Lady of Victory on Pleasant street is progressing rapidly. Next week we will endeavor to present an extended sketch of the new edifice.

Last Sunday was a day to be remembered by the congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer Church. In the morning the high mass was a pontifical one, celebrated by Rt. Rev. Otto Zardetti, Bishop of St. Cloud, Minn., a fellow-countryman and warm friend of the pastor, Rev. Fidelis C. Oberholzer. Bishop Zardetti's rich voice rendered the mass peculiarly impressive, while the choir sang splendidly. The Bishop was assisted by Rev. August Pingel, C. S. B., of St. Joseph's, deacon; Rev. J. E. Hartley, of the Cathedral, sub-deacon; Rev. F. C. Oberholzer, master of ceremonies. The sermon was preached by Bishop Zardetti and was an eloquent one. W. C. Barry donated a large number of choice roses to decorate the altar.

Monday the Bishop left for his home in the far-west. It is hoped his presence will grace Father Oberholzer's silver jubilee two years hence.

Sunday last at 4 p. m. the cornerstone of the new Church of the Holy Rosary, corner Finch and Rowe streets, was laid by Bishop McQuaid in the presence of about 4,000 people. Besides the bishop the following priests were in attendance: Very Rev. Dr. James F. O'Hare, V. G., Revs. J. E. Hartley, J. J. Kiernan, J. P. Kiernan, J. P. Quinn, F. C. Oberholzer, Herman Renker, Felix O'Hanlon, T. C. Murphy, J. J. Leary and William H. Harrington. Rev. J. P. Kiernan acted as master of ceremonies. In the course of his address the bishop said: "We have assembled here today on the feast of the Most Holy Rosary of the Blessed Virgin, to dedicate to the honor and glory of God a place of worship wherein the holy sacrifice of mass can be offered up to Almighty God, religion spread and the gospel preached. What joy it gives me to see here in this new territory, what was but a few years ago a vast common and is now a beautiful and thriving part of the city, a chapel erected for the purpose of upholding purity, sobriety, morality and temperance. We have come to keep and uphold the law and not to break it. We come to this quarter with good will toward all, with animosity toward none. Here we will denounce superstition and wickedness, enforcing honesty, justice and the rights of others. We come to co-operate with all other Christians in this community, and especially in this locality, in promulgating and enforcing the truths of the ten commandments. We are not here to antagonize those who are not members of our Church; we come with charity and peace in our hearts to carry out God's own law, to help make the beautiful city of Rochester still more virtuous and noble, and to help build up this great republic of ours." A copy of the CATHOLIC JOURNAL was placed in the corner stone.

Miss Vaughn of Lyons, spent several days in the city this week.

Monday evening the Young Men's Catholic Association of the Cathedral will nominate officers.

Miss Ella O'Neil of Cobourg, Ont., is visiting Miss Kate Cullen of Comfort street.

W. P. Hamlin and wife left Wednesday for a visit to New York.

Miss Emily Gaffney has been elected to the board of directors of the Humane Society.

Mrs. John Connors of Avon, was the guest of the family of Mrs. A. Kane of Cypress street on Sunday last.

Mrs. Agnes Kane of 52 Cypress street, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in Avon for two weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Miss Maggie Quinn, of Macedon, N. Y., and sister of Rev. J. P. Quinn of the Cathedral, has been in the city this week the guest of her sister, Mrs. McGreal of Madison street.

Thanksgiving eve the members of St. Fidelis benefit association will give a dramatic entertainment in Concordia hall for the benefit of the building fund of the Most Holy Redeemer.

James O'Reilly of Battle Creek, Mich., is visiting his brother, Bernard O'Reilly of this city. This is his first visit to Rochester in twenty-six years and it is that long since the two brothers met. Miles and Patrick O'Reilly, of Leroy, N. Y., are also guests of Mr. Bernard O'Reilly.

Mayor Carroll deserves the thanks of every right-minded citizen for his prompt action in endeavoring to suppress the disgraceful theatrical posters and lithographs that have been exposed to public gaze this season. His honor means business when he starts in.

Charles D. Dugan left last Saturday for New York city where he assumes charge of the Metropolitan house of the shoe manufacturing firm of Dugan & Hudson. Although "Charlie's" many friends in Rochester were sorry to lose him, they were much pleased to hear of his promotion to such a responsible position.

A quiet wedding took place at St. Mary's Church Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock in the presence of a few friends and relatives. The contracting parties were Martin Delohery of Auburn and Miss Margaret Creely of this city, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Felix O'Hanlon, who celebrated the nuptial mass.

The ceremony of blessing the graves will take place at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery at 3 p. m. tomorrow. Those wishing to witness this impressive service can do so by taking the electric or New York Central railways. This practice is a most beautiful one and it is unlikely anyone who has friends buried in the cemetery will fail to be present and offer a prayer for the happy repose of the souls of the departed. Sunday's service will have added interest from the fact that a new portion of the cemetery will be consecrated for the burial of the dead, that already consecrated having become nearly full.

We have made marked and attractive improvements in renovating our establishment, but far in the lead of all are the splendid inducements we have placed on our magnificent stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Garments. We have taken the lead and we mean to maintain it. A visit to our Cloak Department will substantiate this fact. Among the many new styles for Fall and Winter may be mentioned:

REEFERS.
This popular garment will capture the ladies at sight. The styles run in rough Chevriots, Astrachan trimmings, to be worn open or closed; graceful and attractive. We show many beauties in Clay Diagonals in blue, black and tan colors; tailor-made, close-fitting and comfortable.

PLUSHES.
It is a fact generally conceded by all purchasers of Plush Cloaks, Wraps and Newmarkets that we are headquarters on these goods. A glance through our stock will convince you.

NEWMARKETS.
In the countless number of Newmarkets we show there is a beautiful blending of colors—in plaids, stripes and new patterns—one would be hard to please, indeed, who could not find among them something suitable.

MISSES' GARMENTS.
We have hundreds of Reefers and close-fitting jackets from which the misses from twelve to sixteen years of age may select; all new styles.

CHILDREN'S CLOAKS.

DRESSY MANTLES.

Nine doctors in this City
Failed to Cure Rosa Wolf.

"During the last five years my daughter, Rosa, had been under the care of nine different doctors in this city, and I have paid them over one thousand dollars, which I imagine might just as well have been thrown in the fire, as they failed to do her any good whatever, and in fact she kept getting worse all the time. Some said she had tape worm, others pin worms, others abscess of the liver, and some neuralgia of the stomach and heart. Each doctor had a new name for her disease, but none could cure her. She had such intense pains in the stomach and bowels that her screams alarmed the neighbors. The smallest bit of bread or cracker put her in terrible agony. The sight or smell of food made her sick. The stomach and bowels would bloat to nearly twice the natural size, and she could scarcely breathe or sleep. Portions of the lining of the stomach and bowels came away at each passage, and the pain at such times was terrible. She fell away in flesh to less than 60 pounds. In this condition I took her to Dr. Freeman, President of the Polyopathic Medical Institute, 103 Franklin street. He told me at once where the trouble was, and that it was not yet too late to save my child, although I had given up all hope of her living. His medicines acted like magic, and in less than four weeks she was entirely free from all pain, could eat anything, and gained flesh rapidly. We consider her cure a miracle, and no one can realize how grateful we feel to Dr. Freeman. I live at 94 Scrantom street and would like those interested to call and see for themselves."
"MRS. JOSEPH A. WOLF."
