

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Many Items of Interest To Rochester Catholics.

Martin Clancy of Palmyra, paid the JOURNAL office a pleasant call Monday. Miss Emma Joyce left Monday for a month's visit to Chicago.

The October devotions at the Cathedral each evening are very impressive and are largely attended.

Attorney-General Tabor has decided that inspectors of election cannot legally act as poll clerks.

The Excise Board performed their duty in refusing an application for a saloon at the corner of Greig street and Plymouth avenue, in the immediate vicinity of the Immaculate Conception church and parochial school.

The will of Catherine Schwind, disposing of an estate of $10,000 was admitted to probate Monday morning. The entire property is to go to the children of the testatrix share and share alike, subject to bequests of $100 for a monument, $25 for St. Michael's church, $25 to the same church for masses.

Joseph Boss, for fifty years a respected employe of the Jacob Howe bakery, died Sunday at his residence, No. 375 Maple street. As a mark of respect the bakery shut down and the employes in a body attended the funeral which was held from the Church of the Holy Family, Wednesday morning.

Hon. Richard H. Schooley has been superseded as United States Consul at Port Rowan, Ont., by Norton McGriffin of Fair Haven, N. Y. The Canadian papers speak in the highest terms of Mr. Schooley and regret his retirement. The retiring consul's removal makes a place for one of Secretary of State Blaine's friends.

Frank Edwards, late press agent of the Academy, has assumed the management of C. H. Hughes, a humorist, who gives monologue entertainments and readings of a high order. The press notices accorded Mr. Hughes are very flattering and we expect him to have good success in this section.

At the Redemptorist novitiate at Litchester, Md., recently six young men were invested with the habit of the order by Very Rev. Elias F. Schauer, C. SS. R., rector. Among them were the following Rochesterians: Charles Meentel, in religion Brother Richard; John Klemm, in religion Brother Aloysius.

It was announced in the Catholic churches, Sunday, that the New York Central would carry passengers to Barnard's Crossing to enable those who wished to witness the blessing of the graves, at 15 cents the round trip. When passengers reached the depot they were compelled to pay 20 cents. Naturally, many were indignant. The mistake arose because of an error in rates made by the agent who did the advertising. It is promised that 15 cents will be the rate next year with out fail.

Miss Kittie Cameron of Van street, left Tuesday for Montana. Thursday evening of last week Miss Cameron's friends tendered her a pleasant surprise party. Games were indulged in and there was good music in abundance, some of the most notable numbers being the singing by the Misses Keyes, piano solo by Miss McMahon and a piano duet by Mr. Carberry and Miss Yattau. A beautiful repast was served, to which all did ample justice. After singing a farewell song, in which all joined, an expression of regrets at losing their much-respected friend followed and the party dispersed.

William N. Cogswell and Anna R., daughter of Owen Gaffney, were married Tuesday evening by Rt. Rev. Bishop McQuaid. The maid of honor was Miss Lois Gaffney, sister of the bride, and I. W. Butts acted as best man. The bridesmaids were Misses Ward, Perkins, Cogswell, Bacon, Jerould and Hoopes, and the ushers were Messrs. Levi S. Ward, Frank S. Macomber, Edward R. Jennings and Harry Allen of Rochester, Frank B. Gaffney of New York and Ganson Depew of Buffalo. The bride was followed by her two nieces, Rose Barry and Adelaide Devine.

Charles J. Burke and his niece, Miss Emilie Gaffney, sailed from New York to-day on the French steamer La Gascoigne for Havre.

Michael T. Quinlan has been elected president of the Rochester Co-operative Store Company.

Joseph Markee died Wednesday morning at his home in Greece, aged 76 years. The funeral was held Friday morning from St. John's church. The deceased was an old and respected resident of Greece and his death is universally mourned.

John O'Leary, day engineer at the City Hall, was severely injured Tuesday evening by the premature explosion of a cannon used in firing a salute in honor of Speaker Reed. One arm was amputated and he will lose the use of the other hand. Mr. O'Leary is a faithful member of St. Mary's church. He has the sympathy of a large circle of friends in his misfortune.

Presentation to Dr. O'Hare.

Tuesday afternoon the boys of Nazareth hall visited Rev. Dr. James O'Hare at the parochial residence of the Church of the Immaculate Conception and tendered him their hearty congratulations on his elevation to the office of vicar-general of the diocese of Rochester. As a token of their esteem they presented the new vicar a beautiful basket of flowers, the following presentation speech being read by John Flanagan:

ESTEEMED REV. FATHER:—Having given precedence to the older schools to offer congratulations to our new vicar-general, we, the pupils of Nazareth hall, now claim the honor of addressing you as youthful members of your diocese, whose love and devotedness are none the less for our age. Though unable to appreciate now the charge so full of labor and anxiety which is confided to you, we learn to love even in childhood him whom our parents revere, and like them invoke God's blessing on his works. We know that with the passage of years comes a ripper experience, which will teach us of the value of your zeal in the cause of religion and education. Accept, then, dear reverend father, our loving greetings with fondest hopes for your success. May God continue to bless your efforts as he has done in the past; and may your children prove all that your noble heart requires. Our little floral offering we present with the wish that each one of your labors may be as a beautiful flower, which combined may form a fragrant bouquet to be placed by the divine gardener in his favorite bower in heaven. We would fain write on each petal, "Long live the vicar-general, our faithful father and friend."

Dr. O'Hare responded in a feeling manner and thanked the donors for their kind visit and pretty gift.

HANDSOME BUILDING.

Splendid Parochial Hall of the French Church.

A JOURNAL reporter yesterday visited the handsome new parochial building of Our Lady of Victory which will be formally opened October 29th.

The edifice is three stories high. The third floor is given up to the hall, which will be used for concerts, etc. While not the largest, it certainly is the prettiest and best arranged as to acoustics, of any hall in the city. Leon H. Lempert, the well-known theatrical architect, drew the plans and superintended the work. The seating arrangement is such that the stage can be seen from all quarters. The gallery is very prettily laid out. The stage is so erected that when not in use it can be drawn up by pulleys against the wall and out of the way. The hall is a marvel of beauty and exquisite taste.

On the second floor are four school rooms, splendidly ventilated, with high ceilings, and well lighted. We were more than surprised to see them fitted with scholars, whose bright countenances bore evidence of their studious dispositions and the love they had for their good instructors, the Sisters. If we are not mistaken, there are now 138 pupils in the school and more coming.

The ground floor was what interested us most. There are three rooms, the first will be the meeting room of the Young Ladies' Society and is a pretty apartment. In connection therewith will be a library, a nucleus of which is already established. The second will be the meeting room of the C. M. B. A., Branch 134. The third is the social meeting place of the Knights of St. John the Baptist. It is a spacious room and will be filled up with all modern amusements. There will also be a reading room where the leading French and English papers—among the latter we are flattered by the selection of the JOURNAL—magazines, etc., will be on file. Already many applications have been made for honorary membership in the Knights, by those who wish to share in the advantages of the reading room. Our readers will remember that the leading editorial in last week's JOURNAL was devoted to young men and to urging the formation of young men's societies. We take this opportunity of congratulating the French church congregation and their pastor on the step they have taken to unite their young men. It is directly in line with what we urged and we heartily hope the young men of Our Lady of Victory church will stand by their pastor in his efforts in their behalf. Again we congratulate the French church on its handsome parish hall.

New Store—New Goods.

If anything, plaids are more popular than ever. They are certainly more beautiful. The clan plaids are striking in color effects. The combinations in stripes, the wide range of widths and the delightful texture of the goods make them very desirable. They are becoming to almost anybody, and look stylish, bright and attractive. We have exclusive styles in those which you won't find in any other house in Rochester. Then we have more of them and newer patterns. By the middle of November we were about sold out of plaids, so the stock now on our shelves is practically entirely new. You will more fully realize this when you see what is shown elsewhere.

Look at the new and novel home-spuns, of which we have a nice line in all the peculiar soft colors.

In such goods as Bedford cords in solid colors; new colorings and stripes in diagonals; French broadcloths in new colors; chevrons and camels hair fabrics we have in each stupendous arrays of them, while in the ordinary staple array of ordinary fabrics everything nice and novel obtainable is represented to the full. In fact, our dress goods department is a mirror of the most delightful fabrics made for the season. But before closing this somewhat surprising statement, but which is absolutely true, we want to say something about our line of combination suits. These come principally from Paris. Many of them are made for us and are all strikingly handsome and entirely new in pattern and coloring. We do not say a word about prices. We can please you in this regard, however, as well as we can in our unrivaled line of most attractive goods.

BURKE, FITZSIMONS, HONE & CO.

Don't wait till the "McKinley bill" has advanced prices on everything, but select what you need in the line of Home Furnishings at once and get benefit of low prices.

A FINE EXHIBIT.

The Handsome Display of Ladies' Fine Sealskin Sacques.

Jackets, reefers and shoulder capes at Meng & Shafer's is one really worth seeing. It is doubtful if such a display of choice rich garments has ever been seen in Western New York, and another important fact is that Meng & Shafer do not charge any fancy price, but guarantee to save you on every purchase at least 30 per cent.

Stores located 186 East Main street, opposite Whitcomb House; 11 State street, first floor store from the corner in Powers Block and fur parlor, 14 West Main street, Powers Block.

Mrs. Michael Heron and granddaughter, Anna Mae Murray, of Ovid Center, have been spending the week with Mrs. J. E. Mackin on East Bayard street.

Miss Elizabeth Rafferty of this place, has been engaged as teacher in the public school at Scipio, Cayuga Co. She leaves to-day to assume her new duties in her new field of labor.

Leon H. Lempert of Rochester, in painting the scenes for the new opera house. Mr. L. is one of the finest scenic artists in the land and his name alone is a guarantee that the work will be handsome and well done.

Penn Yan.

Edward Meehan has returned from an extended trip to Illinois.

Miss Mary Powell of Horseheads, spent Sunday with friends in this village.

Mrs. Thos. Kane of Auburn, is the guest of Miss Mary Kane.

The remarks by Rev. Eugene Pagani, last Sunday, were very timely and appropriate, and it is hoped that the young people will profit by them.

Fairport.

Miss Alice Burns died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Welch, Sunday morning. Deceased has been sick in Geneva for five years and died of paralysis and heart disease. Funeral was held in the Catholic church, Tuesday A. M. at 9 o'clock.

The postponed examination of Frank O'Connell, on the charge of highway robbery, came up before Justice Doyle, Friday and the defendant was held for the grand jury on the charge of robbery in the first degree. He was admitted to bail Monday in $2,000.

L. J. Deland Steamer and Hose company, accompanied by the Deland band, went to Palmyra Wednesday and took part in the parade and inspection of the Palmyra fire department.

The Steamer and Hose company had a dance in Shaw's Hall, Oct. 11, Mrs. Geo. Stevens furnished the supper.

Subscription Laws.

Dr. Tuckerman, editor of the Workman, Cleveland, has taken some pains to collect and compile the decisions of the United States Court on this subject, and gives as the result of his investigations the following:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodical, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the post-office to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Nine doctors in this City

Failed to Cure Rosa Wolf.

"During the last five years my daughter, Rosa, had been under the care of nine different doctors in this city, and I have paid them over one thousand dollars, which I imagine might just as well have been thrown in the fire, as they failed to do her any good whatever. And now she is getting worse all the time. Some said she had tapeworm, others pin worms, others abscess of the liver, and some neuralgia of the stomach and heart. Each doctor had a new name for her disease, but none could even relieve her. She had such intense pains in the stomach and bowels that she was unable to get up. The smallest bit of bread or chicken put her in terrible agony. The sight or smell of food made her sick. The stomach and bowels would bloat to nearly twice the natural size, and she could scarcely breathe or sleep. Portions of the lining of the stomach and bowels came away at each passage, and the pain at such times was terrible. She fell away in flesh to less than 100 pounds. In this condition I took her to Dr. Freeman, President of the Polytechnic Medical Institute, 305 Franklin street. He told me at once where the trouble was, and that it was not yet too late to save my child, although I had given up all hopes of her living. His medicine acted like magic, and in less than four weeks she was entirely free from all pain, could eat anything, and gained flesh rapidly. We consider her cure a miracle, and no one can realize how grateful we feel to Dr. Freeman, who lives at 91 Scrantom street and would like those interested to call and see for themselves. "MRS. JOSEPH A. WOLF."

Office hours at the Institute from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m., and from 6 to 8 p. m.; consultation free.
