Bible Scholar Visits Seminary

with with a student body principally of Italians.

"Economic conditions in Italy are worse than Americans realize," he told the COURIER-JOURNAL this week. "The people of Italy are outstanding principally upon the help they get from Americans and they will be eternally grateful to America for this aid."

Prior to joining the faculty of the Institutum Pontifici Angelicum, the distinguished visitor had been a student at the Biblical School of the Dominicans in Jerusalem where he attended with Doctor Byrne of St. Bonaventure faculty. With Doctor Byrne, he traveled for two years, 1949 to 1951 in the Holy Land gaining first hand information at Biblical sites.

CHARITY IN ELMIRA— Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

Yes — we apologized for you! It isn't very often either that we have to do that for our Ladies of Charity. Sunday night, however, we did tell St. Vincent de Paul that we were sorry to have such a small representation at the public devotions in honor of his Feast Day.

We haven't lost faith altogether. Somehow we know that you did receive Holy Communion in honor of the great Apostle of Charity who is so much ours. And if you did not—there is still time—when you read this—the octave of his feast is Friday—the feast of St. Anne.

It's camp—these days! Registration for the girls closed last week and those on the waiting list will be given any vacancies that may occur.

The Rev. George C. Vogt who is to be Reverend Director of the Boy's Period was in town this week. He conferred at length with the Rev. John D. Murley, Staff Personnel Director and Mr. Edward F. Lagunegro, Executive Board President.

They were delighted and said "This will be the best Boy's Camp that we ever had." Father Vogt seems to us after many years experience at Camp Stella Maris. He knows all the things that boys like and he has at his fingers tips—every essential of good camping.

The menus look promising! Of course, with the rapid rise in prices, we are concerned about the budget. We don't know just what will happen — but the curtailing will not be in the kitchen. That's a promise.

Already purchased — and "frozen" — so we won't tell — you would all want to come for dinner.

Speaking of equipment. We never told you that we lost all our camp equipment in the flood. Our store room is in the basement of the Federation — and it contained all of our sports equipment, crafts material, dish towels et cetera. That's another item on the debit side of our ledger.

Camp Villa Maria shirts for both boys and girls and shorts for the girls are now on sale in the Camp Office. The supply is limited — so we suggest early purchasing.

We are proud of our registration. Our girl campers, representing each parish in Elmira, include:

Nelle Amarheim, Beverly Anderson, Anne Katherine Andrews, Dolores Andrews, Joan Barland, Diane Becon, Jean Becon, Joan Becon, Gloria Baldwin, Donna Marie Bambury, Carol Brill, Jean Brown, Marjorie Brown, Katy Callahan, Linda Card, Mary Dianne Caputto, Jeanne Chalk, Geraldine Chalmers, Patricia Ann Chapman, Marilyn Clate, Patricia Collins, Mary Frances Cawley, Doris Cilsick, Patricia Ann Dawes, Dolores Doran, Jaraleine Douglas.

Ann Sullivan, Cornelia Supple, Sally Sutter, Barbara Swift, Beverly Tuman, Joan Wainwright, Marilyn Wheeler, Mary Wheeler, Madonna White, Catherine Wigston.

Chairmen — please remember —we are carrying on—during July and August. Each committee, you know, is to have at least one meeting during these months.

And you also agreed to keep in touch with the members of your committee. But then you can do that — easily — through your weekly visits to St. Joseph's Hospital.

They tell me that the mountains are on their way to be mole hills. Under the busy fingers of the Ladies of Charity and other Elmira sewers that apparently unmanageable guise are disappearing.

We promised to explain the Purgatorian Society of the Dominican Monastery to you. We have talked about it so much—we just thought you understood.

It's like this! You may enroll yourself and all of your dear ones—living or dead. There is no obligation—incurred —not even an extra Hail Mary is asked of you.

But—you draw from this spiritual Bank — a participation in all the Masses, Holy Communions, Divine Office, Weekly Office of the Dead — the perpetual recitation of the Rosary —Stations of the Cross — and other prayers and good works offered by the Elmira Community of Dominican Sisters.
