Corning Weddings

Baumgartner - Dean

Corning — The marriage of Miss Marie Anna Baumgartner, 188 Fulton Ave., Staten Island, and John F. Dean, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Dean, 24 Sycamore St., Corning, took place recently in the Sacred Heart Church, West Brighton. The Rev. Edward J. Jordan performed the ceremony.

Attending the couple were Miss Mary Maher of New York City and Joseph Baumgartner, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Anna Byrne, after which Mr. and Mrs. Dean left for a short trip before returning to Corning where they will reside.

The bride, a graduate of Curtis High School, was a former member of the National Catholic Community Service. She has been employed as a secretary by the American Security Company, Manhattan. Mr. Dean is a graduate of Northside High School and served for three years in the U. S. Navy. He is employed as an electrician in Corning Glass Works.

Meconi - Arnold

Miss Mary O. Meconi, 32 W. William St., and John Arnold, 270 Cutler Ave., were united in marriage Saturday, July 20, in the rectory of St. Vincent de Paul's Church by the Rev. Joseph V. Guilfoil, pastor.

Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Toselle Meconi of Williamsport, Pa.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Arnold are employes of the Corning Glass Works. They will live at 32 W. William St.

First to Fly In Missions

The first American missionaries to fly in the foreign mission field are Fathers Anthony Gendusa of Chicago, Ill., and A. M. Stamper of Caledonia, Minn. Members of the Order of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, they have just completed their training at a recently organized Catholic flying school in the Middle West.

The two priests will leave soon for the Pacific Islands of New Britain, New Ireland and the Admiralties in their new landsea craft, which was purchased for them by the nuns of St. Michael's Convent, Reading, Pa., for $3,965.

Made by Commonwealth Aircraft, Inc., their plane — light, equipped with two-way radios, easily maneuverable and able to fly on one engine — is ideally suited to the rough jungle terrain where waterways abound and no air strips are available. It will be invaluable in flying food and medical supplies as well as the word of God to natives in and around the hundreds of mission posts on the small far-flung islands. It is expected that in the future many American missionaries will use the supple Commonwealth Trimmer Amphibian in the war devastated areas of the world.

CHARITY IN ELMIRA—
Jottings Here and There

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

The First Friday schedule for We are still waiting for a few more Senior Counselors for the Girls' Camp. Mrs. Ronan and Mrs. Colletta will again be our able Crafts Leaders. Miss Mary Catherine Cahill will direct Music, Joan Purcell is head of Dramatics, Assistant Director on the Water Front is Miss Lucy Rossi.

But our competent and experienced Junior Counselors on the sports staff need a Senior Leader. A director on the Water Front is also needed. Miss Lucy Altieri will be Camp Nurse and Miss Deborah Personius is Dietitian for both camps.

Business Manager and Office Secretary for the girls are Miss Jean Shearer and Miss Margaret Dickinson.

Of course our Camp Directors Sister Kathleen Rossire and Sister Thomasita have had long and varied experience in every camp activity but we need them in many spots and not in one particular place.

Campers Attention! Better hurry to purchase your Villa Maria Shirts and shorts. There will be no more when the present supply is exhausted.

The balance of Camp Fee must also be paid ten days before the opening of the camp. Your registration entitles you to a place at Camp until that date and then you must pay cash on the line.

Most committees have sponsored at least one campership. That means vacations for just that many children who otherwise would not have such a privilege. It is also a vacation for the parents.

the monastery is almost completed. We quite realize that some of you are working but there really isn't any committee which doesn't have one or two who can arrange to spend an hour as Honor guard on that particular day.

And we do hope that you will not just accept the situation as one in which you can not participate.

You may make your hour visit sometime during the following weekend at the Monastery where the Blessed Sacrament is exposed or in your own parish church.

Yes — you may enroll anytime in the Rosary Confraternity at the Dominican Monastery. It is a privilege that includes an untold wealth of spiritual gifts. In return you promise to say the fifteen decades of our Lady's Rosary once anytime within each week.

The membership fee is optional and voluntary. But again we remind you that our Dominican Sisters depend entirely upon alms. The cost of repairs necessary to convert an old broken down Country Club into a model convent are tremendous.

The Sisters do have the generous support of the Ladies of Charity and they are occasionally remembered by friends from out of town.

But, dear Elmirians, they are ours now — ours to treasure and support — ours through the Mercy of God to act as our mediators in every need large or small, spiritual or material. Let's make part of Our appreciation monetary. You will be surprised at the compound interest on your investment.

Helena Murphy Weds Carl Knopf

Miss Helena K. Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Murphy, of 413 Broadway, Elmira, became the bride of Carl K. Knopf of Dansville, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Knopf in a ceremony performed July 24.

The wedding took place at 10 a. m. in St. Thomas' Church, Irondequoit. The Rev. Donald J. Murphy, cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The maid-of-honor and only attendant for the bride was Miss Mary E. Scopes of Elmira.

John Mullin, also of Elmira, was best man.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Knopf left for a trip through Canada and the New England States and after Sept. 1 will be at home at 29 Seward St., Dansville.

Mr. Knopf served four years with the armed forces and is now a Dansville police officer.

School Act Revision Asked by Catholics

Regina, Saskatchewan — (NS) — Repeal of sections of the Saskatchewan School Act which forbid the wearing of religious garb and emblems by teachers in public schools, and the display of religious objects such as crucifixes in classrooms, was called for in a resolution adopted here by the Catholic School Trustees' Association.

Although the Catholic population of Saskatchewan is 31 per cent, in some districts Catholics are in the majority. Because of the legislation, however, nuns cannot teach in the schools nor can crucifixes be placed on school room walls.

Ancient Castle to Jesuits

New York — (NC) — Princess Eugenia Ruspoli, the former Miss Eugenia Berry of Oak Hill, Ga., stated upon her arrival here from Italy that she plans to give her ancient castle at Nemi, near Rome, to the Society of Jesus.

Cardinal Griffin Asks Fund To Aid Poles in Britain

London — (RNS) — An appeal for funds to aid Polish forces in Britain unable to return to their own country was launched here by Leonard Cardinal Griffin at the first public meeting of the newly formed Catholic Council for Polish Welfare. He announced that September 8 will be observed by Catholics throughout Britain as a day of intercession for Poland.

"We should wish that the Poles were able to return to their own country and to their wives and families," Cardinal Griffin declared. "This cannot be done at present because Poland does not have a government freely elected by its own people. Again men who have been described by the Soviet Union as traitors cannot easily be persuaded to return to a country still under Russian domination.

"We have therefore a double obligation: first, to help these gallant men until affairs in their own country make it possible for them to return, and second, to secure for them and for the Polish people a freely-elected Polish government in accordance with the promises made at Yalta and Potsdam."

It was announced that Cardinal Griffin had made a donation of 2,000 pounds ($8,000) to the Polish relief fund.

Cardinal's Talk in 'Record'

Washington — (NC) — The address delivered by His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, at the graduation exercises of the National Academy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation here has been published in the Congressional Record at the request of Rep. Louis C. Rabaut of Michigan.

Stockyards Name Priest

Chicago — (NC) — The Rev. Edward Plawinski, of St. John of God Church, has been reelected president of the Back of the Yards Council.
