HELP THE STARVING.

THE citizens of Irish birth and descent are again called upon to assist their suffering kindred beyond the seas.

A CHARGE TO THE JURY.

If our misguided contemporary, the Jury, continues in the course it has taken it will neither merit or receive very hearty support from the Catholic population of this section.

PRESIDENT Balmaceda of the Republic of Chili had a violent dispute some weeks ago with his Congress about appropriations.

COURAGEOUS NEWSPAPER MEN.

A few days ago a meeting of women of the Justin Fulton—Edith O'Gorman type was held in Boston.

Our dissenting brethren are prone to harp against the Catholic church for her presumption in asserting to be the One Universal Apostolic Church.

VERY Rev. C. F. X. Goldsmith, editor of the Chippewa Falls Sentinel and formerly of Rochester has the following in the last issue of his paper:

The Church News objects in vigorous terms to public buildings being dedicated with Masonic services.

MESSRS. Dillon and O'Brien, the Irish patriots, reached Havre, France, in safety and will sail for America shortly.

THE Jury is easily gulled. In its last issue it copied from a Chicago paper an article signed "Irish Catholic."

THE public, especially the Catholic portion of it, should pay no attention to the rumors spread broadcast about the summoning of the Irish archbishops to Rome.

THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL, of Rochester, N. Y., has entered its second year.

THE tragic end of Isaiah S. Emery is a sad event. It should be a warning to all to prepare to meet their God in the way He chooses to call them.

Francis V. Bennett, esq., J. P., D. L., Thomastown, Birr, died on Sept. 27, at Lonford Terrace, Monkstown, County Dublin, in his 64th year.

The following appeal to Ulster "planters" has recently appeared in a Newry Tory journal: "Farms to let in county Galway, ranging from 20 to 150 acres, and a few of larger sizes; all near market towns containing National schools, I. C. and R. C. churches, two Presbyterian churches within range, good land, low rents, low rates, and good neighbors.

Livonia.

The Forty hours at this place was well attended in spite of the rainy weather of Sunday and Monday evenings.

Wednesday, after the forty hours were finished, a high mass of requiem was sung for the repose of the soul of Father Mussmaecher, whose race was a familiar one in forty hours in times gone by.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

Phelps.

Mr. and Mrs. William Haight, of Elmira are visiting friends in town.

Mrs. George Hicks, who has been visiting friends in Troy and vicinity for the past month has returned home.

Rev. Father Brown, of Colorado, who has been Father Kavanaugh's guest the past two weeks, preached an eloquent sermon at St. Michael's church Sunday morning on the "Sin of Scandal."

Lyons Council, C. B. L., is in a flourishing condition, and is growing steadily. The Council was instituted over three years ago, and no deaths have yet occurred within its ranks.

Speaking of the new church, everyone who sees it says that it is a beauty. It is going up rapidly, and before snow flies will be enclosed.

A few days ago an inquisitive young man of the parish (not the reporter) approached Father Kavanaugh for information on the subject. His reverence heard the young man's question, and then leaning over to him confidentially said in a whisper: "Can you keep a secret?" "Yes," answered the young man, proud to be the recipient of the priest's confidence, when so many others had tried to sound him and had failed.

BANQUET AND ENTERTAINMENT.

Enjoyable Opening of the Knights of St. John's New Quarters.

The Knights of St. John the Baptist, connected with the French church, opened their new quarters in the parochial hall Thursday evening by an entertainment followed by a banquet.

Then came a piano duet by Misses Hattie and Ida Savard, followed by a vocal duet, "Whispering Hope," by Mr. A. and Miss N. Terrien.

The Misses Savard gave another pretty piano duet and L. B. Savard and Eugene Doucette sang "Music on the Waves."

Following Mr. Phifer's address came a piano trio, "Welcome to Spring," by Misses Ida and Hattie and Mr. Louis Savard.

Afterward an enjoyable repast was served by Adolph Beque, to which all did full justice.

The hall was beautifully decorated. At one end hung portraits of Mgr. De Regge and Bishop McQuaid, while on either side were pictures of Father Notebaert and Father Champion.

The reading room and amusements projected by the Knights of St. John, cannot but be beneficial to the young men of the French church, as it will furnish them a place to spend their evenings free from unsuitable influence.
