Junior Town Meeting of Air Opens at Mercy

Our Lady of Mercy High School played host to the first Junior Town Meeting of the Air broadcast of the year, sponsored by Station WHEC with four Mercy seniors featured in the discussion "Should the Government Limit the Right to Strike?"

The program was presented at the Blossom Road school under a new arrangement initiated by WHEC which enables more students of the participating school to be present at Town Meeting discussions.

The program was recorded and rebroadcast Sunday afternoon.

Fr. Boyle Speaks

William Adams, program manager from Station WHEC, was announcer while Dr. Howard Seymour, Coordinator of Guidance Division of Rochester Board of Education, was moderator of the discussion. Preliminary message outlining the purpose of the program was given by the Rev. Charles V. Boyle, Assistant Superintendent of Catholic Schools.

Following the discussion Dr. Seymour turned the program over to questions from the student audience. The four seniors, taking part in the discussion were Anne Lennon of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Betty Bryan, also of Our Lady of Lourdes and Janet Miller of Holy Family Parish, Carol Winterroth of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish.

These programs are designed to excite interest of the high school students in current national and international problems, declared Mr. Adams before opening the discussion. Present on the stage during the session was W. Kenneth Fulkerson of the Department of History at John Marshall High School. Mr. Fulkerson acts as advisor to the students participating in the panel.

Fr. Rawlinson Honored on 25th Anniversary as Corning Pastor

Corning—An entertainment honoring the Rev. Edmund A. Rawlinson upon his completion of 25 years as pastor of St. Patrick's Church drew an overflow crowd to St. Patrick's Assembly Hall Monday night.

The program was arranged by the Rev. Thomas K. Cleary, assistant pastor, and William H. Driscoll was general chairman. Officers of the Holy Name and Stella Maris Societies assisted.

Attending were the following priests who served as assistants to Father Rawlinson: The Rev. John P. O'Beirne, Seneca Falls; Rev. William Gannan, Elmira Heights; Rev. Bernard Newcomb, Auburn; Rev. Thomas C. Kane, Penn Yan; Rev. William Tobin, Hornell. Other clergymen guests: The Rt. Rev. Monsignor James J. Griffin, the Rev. John A. Smith and the Rev. Joseph F. McCarthy, St. Mary's Church; the Rev. Joseph V. Gulloll and the Rev. Edward McKay, St. Vincent de Paul's Church, and the Rev. Francis Green of Tucson, Ariz., former member of St. Patrick's Parish who was ordained after Father Rawlinson became pastor here.

The program opened with a skit, "Father Rawlinson's First Day in Corning," presented by Robert, Phillip and Joseph Kosty, Children of the First, Second and Third Grades of St. Patrick's Parochial School sang, "Happy Anniversary, Dear Father," under the direction of George Ullery.

The O'Hearn triplets, Jeanne, Anne and Lynne, sang "Little Sir Echo." Children of the Fourth and Fifth Grades followed with "Mother Goose's Party," with all characters in costume. Several selections, including "Danny Boy" and "Alice Blue Gown" were sung by Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Grade youngsters, with Betty Lou Wagner, Marilyn Wagner, Norma Mattle and Patricia Egbert being featured.

Six boys from the Parochial School sang "Johnny Smoker." Presentation of flowers and a spiritual bouquet to Father Rawlinson was made by Mary Kay Platt and Donald Waring. The presentation speech was delivered by Bernard Gusefski.

Father Cleary introduced all of the visiting clergymen.

History in Tableau

A history of Father Rawlinson's work during the past 25 years was presented in tableau, with Postmaster John P. Kennedy as the priest, Albert M. Lynch as narrator, and Perry Bradley and William Corcoran as vocalists.

To close the program, Father Rawlinson thanked his people for their help and cooperation during the past quarter-century. He paid special tribute to his assistant pastors, the sisters of the school, Mr. Lynch and the members of St. Patrick's Dramatic Club.

Refreshments were served and dancing enjoyed in the Cadets' Hall.

The Silver Anniversary presentation speech was delivered by young Gusefski as follows:

"Reverend Fathers and Friends:

"In the name of the teachers and pupils of Saint Patrick's School, and in the name of all who have been graduated from the school during the past twenty-five years, I offer affectionate congratulations to Father Rawlinson, our beloved and revered Pastor, on the completion of a quarter of a century, as our Father and spiritual Guide. Our parish has indeed been blessed by Almighty God, Who has spared him to it for so many, blessed, happy, and fruitful years.

"Many times during these past years, it seemed that the heavenly Father was about to call Father Rawlinson to his eternal reward, but, the united fervent prayers and supplications of a loyal congregation were heard, and today, we are celebrating with him, the happy twenty-fifth anniversary of his pastorate in Saint Patrick's.

"Accept, dear Father Rawlinson, our spiritual offering as a slight tribute of our gratitude and affectionate loyalty. May we show forth in our lives the principles of Catholic doctrine, sound morality, and citizenship, which you have instilled into our youthful minds, during our school days at Saint Patrick's.

"May you be spared for many more years to teach and guide the young; console and comfort the older ones; and be a devoted, loving Father to Saint Patrick's parish for many years to come."

REV. E. A. RAWLINSON

Corning—Monday, October 28, marked the 25th anniversary of the Rev. E. A. Rawlinson as pastor of St. Patrick's Church. During that time Father Rawlinson has come to command the love and respect not only of his parish but of the entire community.

On Sunday morning the Rev. Gentile Crowley, O.F.M., of St. Bonaventure's College gave the sermon at each Mass of the day. He lauded Father Rawlinson's spiritual leadership which was evident in the hundreds of parishioners who received Communion in honor of their pastor.

The Jubilarian spoke briefly at the Masses, thanking his people for their tribute.

Father Rawlinson, who succeeded the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. Walter J. Lee, founder and first pastor of St. Patrick's Church, has made notable achievements during his pastorate, many of them far beyond the call of duty. The one which will be a lasting reminder of his untiring zeal is the beautiful church which was completed in 1932. With his humble modesty, Father Rawlinson disclaims credit due him and speaks in praise of the cooperation given him by his parishioners.

Parish activities have increased and flourished under Father Rawlinson's direction. In May, 1935, the Stella Maris Society for women was organized and is today an outstanding group in the Catholic life of Corning. The St. Patrick's Cadets, well known not only in this city but throughout the Southern Tier for their music and marching ability, are also a product of his enthusiasm.

Father Rawlinson's interest in civic affairs is abundant. He has served for many years on the Board of Directors of the Corn[illegible]
