1800 See Aquinas '5' Down Franklin High, 49 to 36
by DAN "SKIP" SHMANN

Aquinas takes a three week vacation from the hardwood following the 49-36 victory over the Franklin Quakers before encountering the highly rated Hornell quint.

Hornell invades Rochester March 7 for a return match with the Irish. In their last outing the Wrightmen dropped an exciting game to the Hornell outfit on their court.

Racking up their ninth victory of the current cage campaign, Aquinas secured itself of a winning season last Friday night when they smashed the Franklin jinx.

The Irish looking unbeatable in the first three periods, turned in one of their best performances of the season as they trounced the Quakers before an enthusiastic crowd of 1,800 fans. The Franklin quint should have carried fire extinguishers to this game to squelch the red-hot Zimmer, Ryan, Falk and Dimino.

It was Tommy Falk who started the ball rolling as he dropped in the first six points of the ball game. Zimmer, Ryan, Dimino and Rigney followed suit and by half time ran the score up to a 20-21 margin for the Irish. Meanwhile, Mike Maliszewski and Barney Lynch were adding their bit to keep the Quakers hopes alive.

The second half proved a repetition of the first stanza. Substitute Ray Rigney looked very good under both bank boards while Dimino was very effective on the long range shots. The high flying maroon attackers slumped down after the third quarter and coasted to their victory. It was a rough contest with 36 fouls called in all. Both teams played good ball throughout the entire forty minutes with neither team committing any unnecessary roughness.

THE QUILL

Our Lady of Mercy High School — Rochester 10, New York
Volume IV — February 13, 1947 — No. 12

Celebrates 15th Anniversary

Fifteenth anniversary of "The Quill," bi-weekly newspaper of Our Lady of Mercy High School was celebrated last week with a special anniversary issue.

Featured in the six pages of this special edition were historical reviews of the Quill's fifteen-year history with a reproduction of the first edition.

The anniversary issue also included letters from the first editors of the Quill and from the Rev. Lawrence D. Casey, the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, former managing editor of the Catholic Courier and Thomas H. O'Connor, present news editor of the Catholic Courier-Journal.

The first Quill, a folded 6 x 8½ in. sheet, appeared in print February 12, 1932. Each page consisted of three columns. The paper was later enlarged to four columns and the present format boasts six.

Edited and laid out by members of the Mercy Journalism class, the anniversary issue recalls that the first journalists were only 7 in number compared with the 33 seniors now running the paper.

Tribute is paid to Sister Mary Florence, teacher of Journalism, who started the classes, inaugurated the Quill and the Mercedes, quarterly magazine, and who has directed journalistic activities for the past fifteen years at Mercy.

H. F. COURTSTERS TO MEET FULTON, BEAT ST. MARY'S

Auburn — Notching their 10th win of the season, Holy Family High School cagers unerringly found the basket in Ogdensburg Saturday to defeat St. Mary's Academy of that city, 41-31.

The Purple and Gold clad courtmen will be out to revenge a previous loss when they meet Fulton High at West High School Friday night.

In the Ogdensburg game, the Auburn five beginning as underdogs soon became the favorites of the crowd in Ogdensburg Armory. The host club bounded into an 11-7 lead in the first quarter. Staging an airtight defense, Auburn held the Ogdensburg opponents to two points and soared into a half-time lead, 18-13. The third leg was a brisk one and with Captain Johnny Mohan setting the pace, the Purple and Gold warriors maintained their march and led 28-20. In the final period Coach Crowley used his reserves and even the second stringers played inspired ball to cling to the lead.

Captain Mohan fired in 19 points and Jack Fitzgerald and Dick Woods contributed six counts each for the local cause. On the other side of the ledger O'Brien, the Ogdensburg captain was top-scorer with nine credits. Holy Family now has two victories over the Ogdensburg quint, having previously won here by a 38-31, in the March of Dimes benefit game that was played at West High.

Social Duties Urged on Chileans

Santiago, Chile — (NC)—Catholics in Chile were called on to fulfill their social duties in a ten point statement issued by the Chilean Hierarchy at the conclusion of its First Plenary Council held in this capital.

The Council, held under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, was addressed in its opening session by His Eminence Jose Maria Cardinal Caro, Archbishop of Santiago, who likened his country to a patient covered with wounds which threaten to destroy his Christian life.

Pointing out the function of the State, the mission of the Church, and the task of the trade unions in the matter of social reconstruction, the Pastoral observed that "many aspects of the actual economic and social order do not correspond to the concept of true Christian order. The actual distribution of the wealth is unjust, the workers, best-loved of all by Christ and His Church, live in conditions of undeserved misery."

The Bishops stressed the answer of the Church to the false solutions offered by Marxism, and declared that "with the same strength that we condemn individualism and economic liberalism, we condemn Marxism, and especially communism. The evil communism solution will not be overcome by negative means such as violence or coercion."

Austing, Camelio High for K. C.

A double century game of 233 enabled Gene Austing to lead 40 other keglers to the wire in the Knights of Columbus Bowling League on Feb. 12. With the aid of his team mate and coworker, Bill Reilich, who blasted the maples for 551, the "Waldert Opticals" took the odd game from the runner-ups, "LeFrois Pickles."

Rocco Natalie, who has earned a much needed rest due to his energetic complex, appointed Gus Nolan to take over the reins of the 1945-46 Champions.

Pressure of Neil Collins', prop. of the Neil Collins Sandwich Bar, proved to be an asset to his team. They pulled a "Johnny McGraw" to snap out of their slump and win their sixth straight game by downing East wood Shoes."

Bob Fland's Pure Quill outfit, a team of prima donnas and substitutes but never a balanced club, managed to defeat Rooney's Horseradishes two out of three games.

Taking up the slack Scholand's Bootery revamped club took three more games on the chin from Ed Morphy's Statts Tile and Marble five.

Rolling out double century scores this week were the following. Ed Morphy 224, Cy Ferretti 203, Jack Kinney 213, Bill Reilich 213, Gus Nolan 210 and Gene Austing 213.

With the return of Brother Pat to the line-up, Camelio Brothers took three games from Jim Marcille's Beaucaire Five to move within percentage points of Woerner and Son in the Knights' Division. Pat hit a nice 541 while the old reliable Frank rolled a nice 561 with 216 in his second effort. Bob Ward hit 495 for Beaucaires aided by brother Chuck who hit an even 200 in his last game.

Richter Body and Fender moved into undisputed possession of 4th place with three wins over "Mahon and Schroeder." Parson was high for Richters while Manco was the big gun for the losers.

Owens Service Station five knocked off the league leaders for two games with Ed Neid hitting them hard for the winners. Hasenauer was the big gun for the losers hitting a good 536.

Gerhardt Optical took three games by forfeit from Wards Hardware who failed to place three men on the slides.

Notre Dame's Summer School to Reopen

Notre Dame, Ind. — After being suspended for the last three years because of the war, the Summer School at the University of Notre Dame will reopen this June with both graduate and undergraduate courses for members of various religious communities, it was announced here yesterday by the Rev. Howard Kenna, C.S.C., Director of Studies at Notre Dame.

Registration for the 1947 Notre Dame Summer School will be held on June 17 and 18, with classes to start on June 19. The eight weeks' sessions conclude August 15.
