First of its kind in the history of the school, the exercises were eagerly awaited by the class, as an important event in their lives. Sister M. Ambrose of the Sisters of Mercy, teacher of the graduating class and principal of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School said today.

priest, who today is thanking God for his fifty years as a priest. This is only an earthly celebration, but we know he has coming from the Lord the spiritual blessing of 'Well done thou good and faithful servant.'"

Jubilarian Replies

In a brief response, the 76-year-old pastor said:

"I wish to express my heartfelt gratitude to Bishop Kearney, the priests and my people and also to Almighty God for permitting me to live so long in the priesthood. I am grateful for your prayers and manifestations and thank you all from the bottom of my heart.

"I want you to know that today while I said Mass I felt exactly as I did that first time I said Mass after my ordination June 12, 1897, and I felt just as young as I did then. And I am going to stay just as young with your help. May God bless you and be with you here and in the hereafter."

The church was filled to capacity with parishioners, visiting clergy and guests and local citizens.

A processional of officers of the Mass, visiting priests, members of the Knights of Columbus, Father Wall and Bishop Kearney was formed before the Mass. Music was by Mrs. Eloise Long Dawson, organist, and the St. Cecilia Choir.

Officers of the Mass were: Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, Very Rev. Fathers John A. Conway and Edward M. Lyons, and the Rev. Fathers Raymond Nolan, Edward Ball, John Maney, John Widman and Dennis Hickey.

A dinner for officials of the church from both the Rochester and Buffalo diocese and visiting priests and guests was held early in the afternoon.

At a public reception in the church hall, Father Wall was greeted by hundreds of parishioners, guests and friends. He was assisted by his present assistants, the Rev. Wallace Van Deusen and Rev. John Klientjes.
