Sausage Roast Set At Veterans Meeting

Monthly meeting of the Monroe County Chapter of the Catholic War Veterans will be held at St. Augustine's Post on August 5. It will be preceded by a sausage roast which will begin at 7 p.m. and will be staged on the parish grounds on Chili Ave.

All posts are invited to send delegates to this meeting as initial plans for the forthcoming county convention will be discussed.

105 Boys Enjoy Camp Life at Conesus Lake

One hundred and five campers were on hand this week to open the second half of the boys' season at Camp Stella Maris on Conesus Lake.

The craft lodge felt the crush of heavy business in the first three days of rainy weather. The boys wove boondoggles, made model airplanes and boats, braided leather belts and even fashioned pot-holders for unsuspecting mothers at home. Classes in lifesaving, nature and firstaid were held indoors. At night the boys sang around a big fire in the main house and howled at old silent movies of the 20's when the desperadoes were all brave and mushy love interest was unknown.

Win at Owasco.

When the weather broke the camp ball team traveled to Camp Columbus on Owasco Lake and defeated the Auburnians 12 to 7. Bill Tirpaeck and Walter Hayes led the hitting for Stella Maris while Jerry Corcoran took the pitching honors.

Friday evening the campers watched a Red Cross waterfront demonstration in water safety and canoeing. Edwin McMillan, assistant director of the Rochester Chapter, American Red Cross, gave a water show that astounded the boys and impressed them with the value of safety rules for their water-fun.

The sideshow of the carnival staged by the campers on Saturday was the main attraction of the evening with Dave Kelly starring as "the wild man" and Jim De Nagel thrilling all with daring feats of sword swallowing. Denny Brown, John McKenzie and Jim McDonald were almost professional as barkers for the shows.

Dave Doyle, Dave Proud, Tony Sellito, Edward Mockavicius, Bill Hawken and Allan Ellis were selected as captains of the teams in the Softball League.

Father Randall To Speak on German Relief

Rev. John S. Randall, managing editor of the Courier-Journal will speak for the War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference at the Welfare Day for German Relief, Sunday, Aug. 10 at Schuetzen Park.

The Welfare Day starting at 2:30 p. m., is sponsored by German-American Societies of Rochester for the Benefit of German-Austrian Relief.

General chairman is William H. Wittmann, president of German-American Societies of Rochester and past president of Rochester Branch, Catholic Central Verein.

Marie Juchaz, co-founder of the Labor League for Human Rights in Germany After World War II will be a speaker.

Proceeds from the Day will be distributed between the League, NCWC War Relief Services and the American Friends Relief for Germany and Austria.

50 Girls at Camp Madonna Enter Second Encampment

Camp Madonna, on Canandaigua Lake, the Catholic camp for girls sponsored by the Catholic Women's Club of Rochester, has a full enrollment of 50 girls in the second encampment of the summer.

An active schedule of events planned for this week at camp included a speedboat ride around the lake for all the campers on Monday and an overnight canoe trip on Thursday for older girls who have passed advanced boating tests. The campers challenged the Counsellors to baseball and volleyball games on Wednesday. A play day is planned for Friday when Madonna will be hostess to their neighboring campers at Onanda.

Rev. Dr. Charles J. Mahoney, Camp Chaplain, says Mass for the campers and staff, each Sunday of the season at 8.30 a. m. Miss Kathryn Gaffney is again Camp director.

The Camp's six week season will close on August 10.

One Triplet Survives At St. Mary's Hospital

Deaths of two of the triplets born last Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. William Gmelin, 27 Park View Ter., closely followed one another this week.

Margaret Mary succumbed Friday and the boy, David Joseph, died Sunday at St. Mary's Hospital.

Mr. Gmelin reported the condition of the third triplet, Anne Marie, was "fair."

The triplets weighed an average of three pounds apiece at birth. They had been placed in incubators after delivery.

Mrs. Gmelin is also the mother of four boys and a girl.

Appeal for German Youth Comes to Kolping Society

An urgent appeal from a brother society in Germany has reached the Rochester Catholic Kolping Society in the form of a letter from the Rev. Arthur Kolodziez, head of the C.K.S. of Osnabrueck-North.

Father Kolodziej states:

"As head of the diocese of the C. K. S. of Osnabrueck-North, I am appealing to you with an ardent request: Within my range of activities are the three coastal cities of Hamburg, Bremen, and Luebeck, the industrial cities of Kiel and Neumuenster, also the territory that is mostly overrun with D. P.'s.

"The need in the cities as well as in the country among the D. P.'s, especially among the youth, is catastrophic. They are forced to "requisition" the necessary food in any fashion, for otherwise they would starve to death. A young man indeed needs a strong faith, lest he doubt Christ and God.

"Everywhere he sees nothing but injustice and dishonesty. Many of them have no shoes, have to walk around in worn and torn clothing. How, under such circumstances, can the soul remain healthy and pure?

"Therefore, I am appealing to all of you who have been baptized in the Name of Christ, and who, in Holy Communion, have become Carriers of Christ. Please help us to clothe the poor and to feed the hungry. Thousands and thousands are not only starving; they are starving to death! Therefore, in the Name of Christ, I am knocking at your door; in the Name of Christ, I am begging; I am appealing to you in the Name of Christ, who has said: 'Whatever you have done to the least of my brethren, that you have done to Me.' When more persons would at times send a package, much need could be eased up; above all, the faith in Christ and in His Holy Church and in the love of neighbor would then receive an immense strengthening.

"In advance, I am extending my heartiest thanks!"

The local society and its Ladies' Auxiliary are collecting waste paper, rags, and old clothing for the needy abroad. Approximately 1,600 pounds of clothing and food have been shipped.

Any interested person may contact the following chairmen: William Wittmann, 81 Illinois St., Cul. 0661-W; Edward Micek, 79 Westfield St., Gen. 5746-J; Mrs. Ernest Bruening, 19 Nielson St., Glen. 2524-W.
