Bishop McManus Sails For Puerto Rico See

[illegible] (NC) — The Most [illegible] McManus, C.S.R., [illegible] Bishop of Ponce, Puerto Rico, sailed from [illegible] aboard the [illegible] for the See city, where he will be installed solemnly on Aug. 15 — the Feast of the Assumption. A large delegation of Redemptorists accompanied Bishop McManus to attend the installation ceremonies.

Bishop McManus was consecrated at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in the Brooklyn Diocese on July 1, to succeed Bishop Aloysius J. Willinger, C.S.R., who now is Coadjutor of the Monterey-Fresno Diocese.

Diamond Jubilee Set For 2 Nuns, (Sisters)

A unique anniversary will be celebrated on August 27, when Sister M. Athanasia Reinhart and Sister M. Antonia Reinhart, sisters by birth, will observe the diamond jubilee of their reception into the Rochester Sisters of St. Joseph.

Sister Athanasia is now at Blessed Sacrament Convent, Rochester and Sister Antonia at the Villa Maria, Maryland.

It was sixty years ago, on August 27, 1887, that Sister M. Athanasia and Sister M. Antonia, who were from the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Greece, solemnly dedicated their lives to the service of God. Dressed in the garb of brides of this world, they walked up the aisle of the Mother House chapel on Jay Street, and accepted from Bishop McQuaid the veil and habit of brides of Christ.

Since then the two jubilarians have spent their lives as teachers in many of the parish schools of the Diocese of Rochester.

Sister M. Athanasia taught at St. Monica's, Rochester, for fifteen years, at Holy Apostles, Rochester, for six years, and at the Old Cathedral School for ten years. She was principal at Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Rochester, for six years, at St. Francis Xavier, Rochester, for six years, and at Our Lady of Victory, Rochester, for six years.

Sister M. Antonia served as principal of St. Agnes', Avon, for nine years; of St. Francis Xavier, Rochester, for six years; of St. Theodore, Gates, six years; of St. Mary's, Danville; St. Patrick's, Mount Morris, and St. Joseph's, Wayland.

On August 27, 1937, Sisters Athanasia and Antonia, both then located at St. Francis Xavier in Rochester, observed their fiftieth anniversary. Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, pastor of Holy Rosary Church, was celebrant of the jubilee Mass in the Convent chapel.

The fact that both Sister M. Athanasia and Sister M. Antonia are unwell at present will prevent their having any formal celebration on the occasion of the diamond jubilee. Their many friends and former pupils will be remembering them in their prayers, as they round out sixty years of devoted service.

Arabian Prince Tours ND

Notre Dame — (NC) — Educational facilities and methods at the University of Notre Dame were studied by a leading Moslem ruler, Prince Saif Al Islam Abdullah of Yemen, ancient Arabian kingdom on the Red Sea, during a visit to Notre Dame. Prince Abdullah was received by the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, C.S.C., President of Notre Dame.

University officials subsequently escorted the Prince on a tour of the university during which he showed particular interest in Notre Dame's research in atomic energy, chemistry, metallurgy, mineralogy, germ-free techniques, and other subjects.

Corning Weddings

Griffin - Bickford

Corning — The marriage of Miss Josephine M. Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Griffin, 247 Sly Ave., and Fred A. Bickford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace R. Bickford of Waltham, Mass., took place Saturday, Aug. 16, in St. Vincent de Paul's rectory. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Edward McKay, assistant pastor.

Attending the couple were Miss Florence A. Griffin, sister of the bride and Dr. Edward J. Nolan of Scotch Plains, N. J.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Stanton Hotel for 25 guests. Later a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for 100 guests, after which the couple left by motor for the New England States and Canada.

The bride, a graduate of Northside High School and Geneseo State Teachers College, has been teaching for the past three years at North Rose and Elmira Heeig.

Mr. Bickford attended Worcester Polytechnic Institute and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is employed as a chemist at Corning Glass Works.

Hails Catechism Study

London — (NC) — American methods of catechetical instruction were highly praised by Bishop Henry V Marshall of Salford, who attributed to them the impressive depth of religious knowledge shown by American Catholic servicemen stationed in Britain during the war.
