LCBA Head Gets Papal Medal

High tribute to Miss Bertha C. McKinley, supreme president of the Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association was paid at ceremonies marking her reception of the Papal Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice Medal in St. Peter's Cathedral, Erie. Mrs. Anna J. Ryan of Rochester reported to members in this diocese this week.

Mrs. Ryan, a supreme trustee, attended the ceremonies in which eleven priests and seven lay persons of the Diocese of Erie honored by His Holiness Pope Pius XII received their papal awards from Bishop John Mark Gannon of Erie.

Speaking of those honored, Bishop Gannon said: "It is on account of their ideals that they have been recognized. They have reduced to action the pure old Christian philosophy that has come down through the years."

Book Club Selections

Chicago — (NC) — October selections of the Thomas More Book Club include "A Catholic Reader," an anthology compiled by critic Charles A. Brady; "Philosophy Without Tears," by the Irish Jesuit Arthur Little, and the biography "Mother Seton: An American Woman," by the Rev. Leo Ward and Feeney, S.J.

Nuncio to Egypt Accepts Post

Cairo —(NC)— Archbishop Gerald Hughes, 49-year-old Lazarist White Father, recently appointed Holy Vatican diplomat assigned to a Moslem State, will be Papal Nuncio in Egypt. He has gone to Rome to receive his credentials before assuming his post.

The perfect diplomat in appearance, with silver-white hair, a short pointed beard and a dapper manner, Archbishop Hughes is also an irrepressible humorist and inclined to practical jokes, as his friend said here. His great popularity among all classes and, particularly for an Englishman, he attributed arises from his gentleness of heart, a disarming modesty and a friendly manner.

Up-to-Date X-Ray in Mercy Hospital

Mercy Hospital, one Red Feather Agency of Auburn's Community Chest has recently installed new equipment. Here in the X-ray department and cystoscopy room, Sister M. Elaine is shown about to use some of the new equipment. Mercy Hospital recorded 15,106 patient days from Jan. 1, 1947, to Sept. 1, 1947.

Loyola's 2563 Surprises In St. Aloysius H.N. League

Auburn — Lovly Loyola of the St. Aloysius' Holy Name Bowling League surprised everyone by rolling the high three game total of the season, 2563, and the high single 940. Joe Sofinski proved an able lead-off man in attaining the high three game total. His good bowling was an inspiration to Bill Costello and Captain Bud Bishop. Loyola took three points from a hard-fighting Georgetown team who were sparked by the great bowling of Paul J. Graney, who rolled 461—the high for the day—and Captain Bud Wilson's 536.

Notre Dame smothered the once league-leading Villanova team by some 532 pins, to take a clean sweep of four points and go into a tie for first place with Gonzaga. John Terry was the sparkplug of the Fighting Irish with 526, followed closely by Captain Frank Geno, who best both of his sons, with 521. Bob Holmes had his ball under control to register a 502 total. Vernon Pinckney was best for the losers.

Captain Jim Russell of Villanova was negotiating with Captain Bill Bishop of the Loyola to exchange anchor-men and almost succeeded, but Bill saw the 120 game that the Villanova anchor-man had and called off the deal.

Captain Jim Kennedy has his Gonzaga team in mid-season shape. Sunday, they took three points from Canisius to go into a tie for first place. Many think that Gonzaga has the best team in the league, with John Bodnar who hit 561 to tie P. J. Graney for high 3 of the day and Paul Friedel, the top bowler of the league, who hit 549, not to say anything of the old-time form displayed by Captain Kennedy, who hit 554 last week and 500 this week.

SANTA CLARA, with three 500 bowlers, out-fought Holy Cross in the best match of the day. Harold Jones led the victors with 541, followed by Frank Stapleton with 534 and Joe Keogan with 507. Len Graney led the Crusaders with 522 and was followed by Ed Geno's 511. Eddie's 224 was high single of the day and helped greatly to win the one point his team received.

Something to note — one-third of the bowlers hit 500 or better. Paul Friedel kept his lead over Bud Wilson to win the two tickets for reserved seats at the Hobart-Sampson game.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., Virginia and Maryland.

Catholic Civics Clubs Active in 500 Schools

Washington — (NC) — More than 500 units of the Catholic Civics Clubs of America were in operation in U. S. schools last year, Msgr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, director of the Commission on American Citizenship of the Catholic University of America, stated in a letter to Catholic educators.

The monsignor's letter recommended that every school in the country organize one of these groups during the coming school term. The Catholic Civics Clubs of America, conducted to train boys and girls to be alert and active Christian citizens, are sponsored jointly by the Commission on American Citizenship and the Young Catholic Messenger, published at Dayton, O.

Anti-Nickname Campaign Urged By College Dean

Boston - (RNS) — Catholic schools throughout the United States were urged to launch an "anti-nickname" campaign by the Rev. John B. Delaunay, C.S.C., dean of Portland, Ore., University, in an address here before the 38th annual Parochial Schoolteachers' Institute. Father Delaunay claimed such names give children an inferiority complex.

"Discourage the giving of nicknames to children," he advised the educators. "They only serve to brand a child and undermine his or her confidence, especially nicknames that reflect a physical or mental weakness, such as Fatso, Snozzle, Red, etc."

"Some children never recover from the emotional upset caused by an unwelcome nickname. Not infrequently derisive nicknames prove an almost overwhelming obstacle to a sucessful business or professional career," Father Delaunay declared.

Music Teachers to Meet

Detroit (NC) — The third national convention of the National Catholic Music Educators Association will be held here next April 16-18.

Nuns to Mark Golden Jubilee At St. Theresa's

Golden Jubilee of the founding of the Franciscan Sisters of St. Joseph will be celebrated with a High Mass presided over by His Excellency Bishop Kearney on Saturday, Oct. 4, at 10:30 a. m. at St. Theresa's Church, 14 Mark St.

A community of Franciscan Sisters of St. Joseph has been established in St. Theresa's Parish since 1930.

The order was founded in Trenton, N. J., in 1897 by the Very Reverend Hyacinth Fudzinski, O.F.M., Conv., and Mother M. Colette Hilbert.

In 1898 the little band of Franciscan Sisters was received into the Buffalo Diocese by His Excellency Bishop James E. Quigley, a native of Rochester. Here, with Father Fudzinski's assistance, they opened their first motherhouse and novitiate.

A NEW THREE-story brick convent was erected in 1907 at Corpus Christi parish. This served as the motherhouse until 1928 when the growth of the community necessitated the building of a better structure. A site near the village of Hamburg was selected and a new motherhouse with a novitiate and an academy was built.

At present the community numbers 486 professed members, eight novices and four postulants.

The community engages in the activities of teaching, care of the aged and care of the sick. The sisters conduct 28 parochial elementary schools and two high schools. They also operate St. Anthony's Home for the Aged in Hamburg. They minister to the sick at St. Mary's Hospital, Brooklyn, and at Ozanam Home for convalescents in Milwaukee.

His Holiness Pope Pius XI in an audience granted on April 12, 1936, to the Sacred Congregation of Religious deigned to approve and confirm definitely the institute and its constitutions.

Catholic Charities Aids 200,000 Needy

Vienna (RNS) — Polish "Caritas," Catholic welfare organization, is supplying money, food and clothing to 200,000 needy persons in the western provinces, acquired by Poland officials here stated.

Since the end of 1946, the organization has established in 128 soup kitchens, 157 kindergartens and 72 orphanages in these areas, as well as 34 hospitals, and 184 homes for the aged. Caritas also conducts 22 colleges and 54 schools where tuition is free.
