Rome Election Seen Setback For Red Regime

Rome—(Radio, NC)—The result of Rome's municipal elections, generally considered to be a valid barometer of Italy's political climate, was hailed in press comments as an "important and significant victory" for the Christian Democratic party and a set-back for the communist-dominated People's Bloc. The Christian Democrats have almost doubled their vote compared to last year's election.

"There can be no question," writes the independent daily Il Messaggero, "That one-half, perhaps more, of the ballots were cast by independent voters who wish first of all, and above all, to vote against communism.

"IT IS OF no use trying to be subtle; the people are afraid of communism and more or less moderate speeches are not sufficient to dissipate fear."

According to latest returns, the Christian Democrats and the People's Bloc are about even in strength, each winning 27 of the 80 seats in the municipal council, the remaining 26 seats to be divided among smaller parties ranging from the moderate left to the extreme right. In last year's municipal election the Christian Democrats were third in strength after the People's Bloc and the rightist Common Man front.

In almost doubling their vote the Christian Democrats have picked up thousands of votes from splinter parties. Their gains are interpreted by Il Messaggero as an example of faith on the part of the voters in the "equilibrium, moderation and equanimity" of Prime Minister Alcide de Gasperi, whom they wish to rise above his own party.

IL MESSAGGERO points out that despite the Christian Democratic gains, the leftist People's Bloc has maintained its position intact. The paper terms this aspect of the result as an "evil" one for the country, since the existence of two opposing left and right blocs must lead to an intensification of the political struggle.

"Despite the grand victory of the Christian Democrats, the deepest wishes of the people have remained unfulfilled: the downfall of communism and, at the same time, the rise of a strong government party which is able to combine the heritage of the old Liberal party, the unifying tradition of the Risorgimento, respect for religion and the church and the needs for social justice, and which is also able to work loyally with Christian Democracy," the newspaper writes.

Bishop at Rites For J. J. Hassett

Joseph's Hospital staff and representatives of the Sisters of St. Mary of Lockport and the Sisters of Mercy of Elmira.

Bearers were Norman J. Learned, Ivan T. Brady, Francis N. Mullen, Dr Daniel F O'Neill, A. Marshall Lowman, Leo E. Considine, William C. Emerson and William P McCarthy.

Widely mourned, Mr Hassett was honored in death by tributes from high church dignitaries and business associates.

Condolences were sent the family by Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit and former Bishop of Rochester, and by His Excellency Bishop Kearney.

On learning of his death Bishop Kearney said "No cause for a good purpose was too small to attract his attention or too large to challenge his generosity. God only knows the extent of his good deeds and at this time, God's knowledge of them is the best consolation for us who mourn his going. May his soul rest in peace."

BORN IN ELMIRA Sept 14, 1873, Mr. Hassett attended Elmira schools and was graduated from Cornell University with a law degree in 1894.

He had a genius for business and his extensive activities in real estate in Elmira are evidence of his ability in that field. The Mark Twain Hotel, Keeney Theater, Langwell Hotel were among his many holdings.

A lay retreatant and member of the Nocturnal Adoration Society, he was an ardent practitioner of his faith.

In 1932, with the late Michael DelPapa he was made a Knight Commander of the Holy Sepulchre by the late Pope Pius XI. His investiture with nine other Rochester Diocese laymen took place at a private ceremony in Bishop John Francis O'Hern's episcopal residence in Rochester.

One of the 61 charter members, he was a founder of Elmira Council, Knights of Columbus, and its first recording secretary.

Mr Hassett was long a friend of St Joseph's Hospital and was one of the group of Elmirans who aided in opening the hospital. He was a member of the hospital's board of directors.

His wife was the former E. Beasie Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs Florence Sullivan of Elmira.

The Hassetts became the parents of 12 children, eight of whom survive. Three died in childhood and the other, Attorney Austin Hassett, died at the age of 27 in Rochester Mrs. Hassett died March 14, 1928.

He is survived by these eight children. Dr. Florence S. Hassett, J. John Hassett, Mrs. Donald A. Lovinger, Mrs. Donald H. Miller and Mrs. Wilfrid E. Rhodes, all of Elmira, Sister Miriam of the Sisters of St. Mary DeNamur at Lockport; Mrs. William M. Brady of Newton, Mass., and Mrs. Hugh V. Murray, Jr. of Centralia, Ill. There are 16 grandchildren and four nephews. Mr. Hassett also left a brother, Dr. Thomas F. Hassett, of Elmira, and a sister, Mrs. Robert Dunlavey of Kenmore, N. Y.

Oxford Movement Warning Given

Basel—(NC)—A word of caution was conveyed to Catholics by Bishop Francis Charriere of Lausanne, Geneva and Fribourg with regard to the "Moral Rearmament" movement (which called itself "Oxford Group" before the war) now maintaining a continental headquarters in Caux, near Montreaux, Switzerland.

In a statement published by the official diocesan organ, La Semaine Catholique, Bishop Charriere said that the meeting of so many people from so many countries who endeavor to cooperate in a Christian spirit must be welcomed indeed, but he cautioned that there is the danger of a mistaken interpretation of these experiences.' Dr. Frank Buchman is founder and leader of the movement, which has world-wide ramifications.

Catholics appreciate the necessity and even urgency of gathering all men of good will, the bishop explained, but they are afraid that such essential questions as the belief in the central mystery of the Holy Trinity, the divinity of Christ, the Church established by Christ, or the Sacraments might become subordinated to other ideals.

Have Pity!

"Have pity on me, at least you my friends!" Twenty dollars will enroll forever a loved one deceased in our Perpetual Society of Masses. Or you might have the Gregorian Masses offered for thirty days. For your own Remembrance, write for our free leaflet and information on our memorial card.

WILL IT BE?

Christmas will be a happy holiday for our little orphans of the Near East, if we can stretch our fund for "ORPHAN'S BREAD." Won't you help us? Twelve little orphans under the care of the Dominican Sisters at Ramadieh, Syria, are in a particularly sad plight.

FATHER DLUSSKY

This Russian pastor of the Russian Catholics in Berlin, Germany, has sent a pitiful appeal for food packages. Can you furnish one for ten dollars? He is a loyal apostle for Christ.

SHOPPING TOO SOON?

Have you thought of sending our beautiful GIFT CARD to friends at Christmas? Write for our free circular.

YOUR OWN SON

"Asfaha Biru" is the name the young Ethiopian now at the Seminary of Christ. He is twenty-one, with four years to go in the other. His remaining expenses will be four hundred dollars. Can you call him your adopted son in Christ?

ST. JUDE

To this great Saint of the Impossible we pray that someone may give a Thousand dollars to build a little mission chapel in Mary, in his honor, for his feast, October 28. Perhaps it will be you.

CLOTHED IN MAJESTY

Father Calik, pastor of the Chapel of Our Lady at Bekerza in Bulgaria, earnestly asks for one hundred and eighty dollars to furnish him with a complete set of Mass vestments. His own are worn out. Can you help him and be secured of remembrance in his every Mass?

FIFTY YEARS GONE

St. Therese, the Little Flower, is gone from the earth fifty years, but now she spends her heaven doing good on earth. To all who hold a place in our mind for the Shrine Chapel of the Little Flower, which we intend to build in Lebanon, north of the Holy Land, we send her medal.

SPECIAL CHALICE

Father Abraha, who made his studies for the priesthood in Rome, is now the youthful pastor of Gulla in Ethiopia, where there are 100 Schismatic Catholics. Can you give fifty dollars for a special chalice to be used by Father in his Mass?

THREE YEARS OLD

In just a month, the BASILIANS, our School Club, will have their third birthday. And we must have more members. Can you give a dollar monthly to help our poor Near East schools? We would be overjoyed with joy, if we could receive $750 for a modest little school. There are twenty appeals on our desk, and we cannot answer them.

GRINDING JAWS

"I am the wheat of Christ, and I must be ground in the jaws of wild beasts, that I may be a pure bread," said a martyr. Bishop Dalton of the Holy Land asks for linen corporals, on which the Host and Chalice rest during Mass. Ten dollars will supply one.

FRAIL TEMPLE

Do you know that the Ladies of Nazareth are Sisters, even with the diploma of trained nurses. They go about Palestine healing our sick poor. Can you give fifty dollars for a medical kit? They reach souls through the frail temple of the body.

WHITE CHRISTMAS!

Of necessity it will be for the whitened lepers, and we know you will not forget their DAMIEN LEPER FUND.
