Century's Sins Hit By Nocturnal Leader

Three mortal sins of the twentieth century were condemned by the Rev. George Lagere, S.S.S., of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament who addressed members of the Rochester Nocturnal Adoration Society Sunday evening at a Holy Hour in honor of Christ the King at St. Ambrose Church.

Father Lagere, who is national director of the Nocturnal Adoration Society and editor of the Sentinel of the Blessed Sacrament, official organ of the Society, denounced modern sins against Faith, Hope and Charity.

"The twentieth century has sinned against Faith," the priest declared, "by eliminating God from government, politics, recreation and even the home."

DISCUSSING the sin against Hope, Father Lagere asserted: "Men have forgotten their heavenly destiny. They have placed their dependence on material things, on mechanical gadgets, time and labor saving devices. They have become worshippers of the body beautiful."

Through the doctrine 'might makes right,' he said the twentieth century has sinned against Charity.

"Sins against Charity have brought about class struggles, a conflict between workers and employer, the persecutions of the races. Hatred is eating away the very vitals of society."

He described the Society as "a blue print of Catholic Action to fight the evils of the day," averring that the Nocturnal "might be regarded as the core or rallying force in the battle for the preservation of Christian principles and Christian culture."

FATHER LAGERE'S audience were some 300 men who attended the Holy Hour and business meeting which followed.

Rev. Leo C. Mooney, moderator of the Rochester Nocturnal Society officiated at the Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, assisted by the Rev. Roy F. Hagerty and Rev. Francis R. Davis.

Theodore J. Houck was elected president of the group at the business session. Others elected with him were: Joseph J. Attinasi, first vice president; Rudolph C. Schwenzer, second vice president; David Gales, third vice president; Joseph W. Benn, corresponding secretary; James V. Taylor, recording secretary; Sylvester Englert, treasurer; Frank A. Sexton, marshall.

In a report of the secretary's office, Mr. Benn reviewed the history of the Society which was formed in Rochester in 1929. Only four societies among a national membership of 84 affiliations are larger than the one here, he reported. He also revealed that the records indicate 2,000 more hours of adoration so far this year than during the entire year of 1946.

45 New Members Enrolled by KC 4th Degree Unit

Forty-five new members of the Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus, were welcomed into Rochester Assembly at a meeting Thursday in Columbus Civic Center by Faithful Navigator Dr. Frank J. Masiello.

Officers of the Assembly were installed by Basil J. Vaillancourt of Elmira, master of the Fifth District, with James P. O'Leary assisting. An address was given by the Rev. Albert L. Simonetti of Elmira.

The new members were inducted into the Fourth Degree at an impressive ceremonial in Dunn Memorial auditorium, Elmira, Oct. 19. Rev. Raymond G. Heisel and Norman A. O'Brien of Rochester participated in the ritual work under the direction of Master Vaillancourt.

The class of 179 members from all sections of the Fifth District comprising the Rochester diocese area was named in honor of the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William J. Brien, dean of the Elmira deanery.

Choir from the Rochester Assembly was directed by Paul A. Predmore

At a banquet attended by 500 Sir Knights and wives in Mark Twain Hotel, His Excellency Bishop Kearne ytold the capacity audience that the Knights of Columbus as an outstanding organization of Catholic layment has a mandate to heed the requests given to the children of Fatima, Portugal, 30 years ago by the Blessed Mother

He urged dedication of the First Saturday of the month to Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima, daily recitation of the Rosary, Holy Communion on the First Saturday and offering of a sacrifice daily, all for the conversion of Russia.

Lay speaker was Charles J. Considine, vice supreme master of Calvert Province who called upon the knights to do all in their power "so that we shall not lose America."

"Continued emphasis upon fraternity will by example help to lead the postwar world into a spirit that will resist hatred," the fourth degree leader declared.
