Students to Mark Church Unity Octave at Nazareth

Sponsored by the Francis Mission Unit, the Church Unity Octave will be observed by students of Nazareth College. Special prayers will be said each morning after Mass beginning Sunday, Jan. 18, the Feast of St. Peter; Chains and continuing through Jan. 25, the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

These prayers will be said both after the Resident Students' Mass at 7:15 in the Motherhouse Chapel and after the Day Students' Mass at 8 in the College Oratory.

To give those students who are unable to attend daily Mass the opportunity of joining in the Church Unity Octave, the prayers will also be publicly recited in the Oratory daily during the lunch period.

Arrangements are in progress for a special closing ceremony on the 25th.

Nazareth College freshmen recently elected their officers for the year. These officers are as follows: President, Kathleen O'Hare; Vice President, Patricia Connell; Secretary, Mary Ann Donovan; Treasurer, Mary Beth Percival; Student Council Representative, Kathleen Schuler; and Parliamentarian, Joan Warthling.

Miss Jean McNally of Syracuse and Miss Elizabeth Gosling of Utica, seniors majoring in Secretary, represented Nazareth College as First Day Donors on the opening day of the Rochester Red Cross Regional Blood Program. Pictures of Miss McNally and Miss Gosling giving their blood will be in the March of Time soon.

Delegates from Nazareth College attended a Lake Erie Region Congressional Meeting of the National Federation of Catholic College students at D'Youville College in Buffalo, Jan. 2. The main topic for discussion was "Today's Youth Faces Its Challenge."

The delegates from Nazareth were Noreen Carey, senior, Margaret Mary Donogan, junior, and Marjorie Eschedd, senior and treasurer of the Lake Erie Region. Moderator of N.F.C.C.S., Sister Marie Augustina accompanied by Sister Dorothy Agnes also attended.

Noreen Carey, senior delegate, addressed the assembly with a talk entitled, "Lights, Camera, Action!" She told of the history of Catholic Action, the method it employs and how it applies to students in their homes, in school and in the outside world.

The Nazareth delegates reported to the gathering on the activities of Nazareth's International Relation's Club and also on the progress of the Catholic Action study groups that have been organized under the direction of Father Lintz, chaplain.

Brother of Nun Dies in Penn Yan

Penn Yan—Funeral of John P. Gulder, 70, brother of Sister M. Loyola of the Sisters of St. Joseph, Nazareth Convent, Rochester, was held Wednesday, Jan. 7, 1948, in St. Michael's Church.

Solemn Requiem Mass was offered by the Rev. Hubert Maky assisted by the Rev. John P. O'Beirne, deacon, and the Rev. Raymond F. Moore, subdeacon.

Mr. Gulder, who resided at 106 Lawrence St., died shortly before noon Friday, Jan. 2, in Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hospital after a prolonged illness.

Born in the Town of Jerusalem, Yates County, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gulder. He was an employe of the Pennsylvania railroad for several years and was gate tender at the E. Elm St. crossing for 24 years.

A member of the Railroad Brotherhood, he retired last spring because of his health.

Surviving, besides Sister Loyola, are his wife, Katherine Burns Gulder; two other sisters, Miss Margaret Gulder and Mrs. Sarah G. McGee, both of Penn Yan; a brother, Thomas, of Deadwood, S. D.; and several nieces and nephews.

Women's Club Party Has Unique Program

Corning — Mrs. George Mitchell and Mrs. James Rader, co-chairmen, provided a unique and entertaining program for members and guests of the Painted Post Catholic Women's Club at the New Year's party held recently in the Town Hall.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. Ray Carey and Mrs. Arthur Fermer for the most ridiculous hat creations.

Readings were given by Mrs. Nell McNulty, a member of the faculty of Painted Post High School and Miss Ellen Regan gave an oratory. Miss Regan, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Regan of Hamilton Circle, recently won first prize in the Junior Chamber of Commerce oratorical contest.

Assisting Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Rader were Mesdames William Weiner, Kenneth Shattuck, Jack Holland, Mary Leibing, William Cumiskey, Alex Wylie and A. Cronin.

The meeting, scheduled for Feb. 2, will be in the form of a Valentine card party and will be in the charge of Mrs. Hugh Murphy and Mrs. Harry Cassidy.

Former Wac Plans To Teach Indians

New Orleans — (NC) — Miss Isabel Ledet, former WAC, hopes to go back teaching little Indians in Louisiana, as she did before the war, when she completed her studies at Ursuline College, here.

Miss Ledet taught members of the Houma tribe in St. Isaac Jogues parochial Indian school at her native, Point au Chien, three years before she joined the WACs. This school is now out of existence, but she hopes, when she has finished college to again teach little Indians, preferably in a Catholic school.
