Secularism, Manifesto Aim, Priest Tells Verein Units

Secularism, or the absolute divorce of God from government, is the real aim of the Protestant Manifesto, the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, editor of the Courier Journal, declared Sunday afternoon at Holy Family parish hall.

Father Flynn was guest speaker at a joint meeting of the Rochester Branches, Catholic Central Verein of America, and National Catholic Women's Union.

DISCUSSING THE subject of separation of Church and State with particular reference to the recently issued Protestant Manifesto, the editor pointed out that this interpretation of the constitutional provision on religion was erroneous.

"James Madison had no such concept of government in mind when framing the First Amendment to the Constitution," said the priest. "What the statesmen of that day desired, was the prevention of any particular religion being set up by the Federal government in a favored position."

AT THE MEETING, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: Spiritual Advisor, Rev. Henry Misal, C.S.S.R., president, August M. Maier, 1st vice-president, Oliver Wachnake, 2nd vice-president, Joseph Aman, secretary, Charles Mura, treasurer, George Kaseman, marshall, Stephen V. Kuchman, executive committee, Joseph H. Gervais, William T. Roeger, Michael Cronin, Louis Ammering and Edward Micek.

The officers were installed by William Wittman, past president of the mens branch.

The legislative committee by Joseph H. Gervais, chairman, reported that the state senators and assemblymen from this county had been requested to support the bill which would make Good Friday a legal holiday and to oppose all bills which would legalize any additional grounds for divorce, and also to oppose any proposed legislation to legalize "mercy killing."

August M. Maier presided. Following the meeting refreshments were served.

Final Report for Captains Set in Guild Member Drive

Mrs. Frances Maloney, New York City; Mrs. C. Arnold Warner, Philadelphia; Mrs. George Conway, Los Angeles; Mrs. Glenn Waring, Chicago; Miss Margaret Manning, Detroit; Mrs. Delos Waddell, Cleveland.

Prizes will be awarded the drive worker who signs up the largest number of new members and to the worker on each team who obtains the greatest number of new members and to the worker on each team who obtains the greatest number of renewals as well as new members.

Mrs. C. Arnold Warner has been named general chairman of the annual dinner dance which will be held in April at the Hotel Seneca. At this time, Mrs. Warner will name her committees and plans will be made for this annual affair.

Following the business meeting, a Technicolor Travelogue entitled "The Shortest Way" will be shown.

Knights of Columbus

Ray Hasenauer, Bandmaster at Aquinas, staged a form reversal when his strategy of changing his lineup brought results in the Knights of Columbus League, Feb. 11. His Guards humiliated the league leading Indians in a three game victory. His ace pin picker, Len Kellman, came through with a beautiful 600 three game total which included a 232 single effort.

Bill Schoeffler of the same aggregation surprised the talent by throwing a 534 three game total. Paul Sullivan and George Ward also contributed their efforts to the cause by rolling well over their averages. Rocco Natalle's and Bill Eckert's efforts were to no avail for the Indians in view of the challacking administered to them.

Grand Knight Jack Kinney's all veteran club lived up to their reputation by taking the second place Woerner five into camp, winning two out of three games. Si Ferretti 551, President, Joe Rooney, 529 and Secretary Bill Staub's 514 did the trick. Grand Knight, Kinney, and Treasurer, Jack Ward also bowl on this team.

Pat and Joe Amello's 541 and 508 totals spelled defeat to the Supreme Court Five for three straight games.

Vic Love's Christophers came through with a three game victory over Ed Skelly's Admirals.

Jim Marcillo's Gulls kept up their winning ways by taking the odd game from Gene Austing's Mutineers, in spite of the latter's 551 and Cliff Sargent's 522 effort. Bob Ward shot 551 and Jack Graham 502 for the winners.

Bob Hand's Prima Donna five took a three game lacing from Marty Herbst's Ninas. Marty threw 171-173-177 for three consistent games. Bob's 210-208-151 three game effort merely added to his individual record.

VanSlyke's Knights took the odd game from the Columbians, while Ade Hanna's Orients lost three games to the Puritans.

500 scores or over were registered by:

L. Kellman 600, C. Sargent 592, R. Hand 569, S. Ferretti 551, R. Ward 551, G. Austing 551, P. Camello 541, W. Schoeffler 541, J. Rooney 529, M. Herbst 526, J. Cole 523, E. Skelly 517, W. Staub 514, W. Bode 512, J. Graham 509, J. Camello 508, Smith 508, W. Eckert 505, R. Natalle 505, S. Camello 502, C. LoFink 501.

200 scores: Hand 210-208, Kellman 232, Sargent 217, P. Camello 216, R. Ward 216, J. Graham 225, P. Camello 263.

Catholic League

Scoring a third game of 1002, H.R.A.A. No. 2 team won three games from the same organization's No. 3 team. In the first game, the No. 2 outfit also rolled 923.

St. Boniface five began strong with a 933 game, rolled a 903 and took the three matches from St. John No. 2 St. Charles No. 2 won their three games from St. George's in close contests. Corpus Christi with heavy shelling by all five, took the first two from H.R.A.A. No. 1. The Corpus Christi keglers scored a 912 game in the second.

St. Charles No. 1 won the first two from St. John No. 1 and Immaculate Conception No. 1 won the first and third games from Immaculate No. 2.
