Bishop to Conduct Holy Week Services

Solemn liturgical services commemorating the Passion and Death of Christ will be conducted in all the churches of the Diocese of Rochester next week. His Excellency, Bishop Edward E. Kearney will officiate at the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral on Holy Thursday and Good Friday.

On Holy Thursday, March 25, the Bishop will celebrate the Pontifical Mass and perform the Mandatum Blessing of the Holy Oils beginning at 10:30 a. m. The Mass will be followed by a procession in which the Blessed Sacrament will be carried to the altar-repository.

The Holy Oils blessed by the Bishop at the Annual Holy Thursday ceremony are used throughout the diocese for the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation, for the anointing of the sick and the ordination of priests, for the consecration of churches and the blessing of altars, chalices and bells.

STUDENTS OF St. Bernard's Seminary will chant the Tenebrae at 7:30 p. m. on Holy Thursday evening at the Pro-Cathedral. The Tenebrae is the public chanting of Matins and Lauds of the Divine Office of the last three days of Holy Week. The singing is unique for the beautiful and mournful melodies used to sustain the psalms and lamentations appropriate to the sorrows of the Passion.

The evening hour for the Tenebrae was selected to give more people an opportunity to attend this solemn service and hear the St. Bernard's Choir.

Later in the evening of Holy Thursday, Bishop Kearney will conduct a solemn Holy Hour for members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society of the diocese from 10 to 11 p. m. at St. Patrick's Church on Plymouth Ave. North. This holy hour for the 700 men, who on the last Saturday night of each month throughout the year spend the whole night in relays of adoration before the Blessed Sacrament, is an annual custom that attracts the whole membership of the Rochester society to St. Patrick's on Holy Thursday night.

THE THREE HOUR Service of Good Friday will begin with the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified celebrated by Bishop Kearney at 12 noon in the Pro-Cathedral. Following the Mass the Meditations on the "Seven Last Words" will be given by the Rev. Daniel O'Keefe of the Diocesan Mission Band of New York City.

On Holy Saturday the Mass will be preceded by the Blessing of the New Fire and of the Paschal Candle, by the reading of the Prophecies and the Blessing of Baptismal Water and Easter Water. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns will officiate at the Pro-Cathedral beginning the ceremonies at 7 a. m.

Throughout the diocese there will be only one Mass in each parish church on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Holy Saturday. The Lenten Fast will be ended at noon on Holy Saturday but strict observance of rules of fast and abstinence is required of all persons on Holy Saturday morning.

On Easter Sunday morning Bishop Kearney will celebrate Solemn Pontifical Mass and preach the Easter sermon at the Pro-Cathedral at 11 a. m.

Tarby 689; Loyola 2784 Set Bowling Loop Record

Auburn — Steve Tarby's determination to keep Loyola in first place in the St. Aloysius' Holy Name League was shown Sunday as Steve was in perfect form bending his wide-swinging hook for his pins for games of 264, 210 and 235 for a record-breaking new high total of 689.

Steve was shooting for 700 in the last frame of the last game when someone bumped up against him as he was all set to deliver the ball and it rolled above of that coveted total. Steve's 264 game is second high game of the season. With Tarby showing the way, Loyola stepped out to better their own three high game total by rolling 2784 and this without any handicap.

Bill Costello was hot with 202, 212 and 174 for a 588 total. Bill came very close to the 600 mark. Joe Bodnar was next with 548 and Captain Bill Bishop was the fourth Loyola man above 500 with 508.

Loyola had an easy time taking four points from Villanova with such explosive power. This victory helped the leaders to gain a point on hard-pressing Santa Clara, who are a little worried seeing the power Loyola displayed.

Vernon Pinckney was a one man team for Villanova, bagging set 566, 201 and 189 for 599. Vern had had a tough time getting 600; a chopped pin in the last frame of the third game stopped him one pin short. Pinckney had 595 and 591 in the last month; both matches could have been 600, with a little break.

Harold "Champ" Jones with 196, 211 and 216 for a 626 total led the Santa Clara team to a three to one victory over Gonzaga. Jones is now in his 600 form — that form which earned him the title of "Champ." Harold is putting everything he has into the fight for first place and if Santa Clara loses that fight it won't be because of Jones. Bill Dunn got going on his favorite alleys and knocked out a 542 total. Francis Stapleton with 527 was just one pin short of last week's total. Eddie Russell had to come in strong in his last game to stay for the 500 class by getting 512.

Paul Friedel led the Gonzaga team to their one point total by rolling 219, 179 and 192 for 590. Despite Paul's superb bowling he lost ground to Steve Tarby whose 689 put him in the Number One slot of the individual bowlers. Captains Jim Kennedy had three consistent games for 518 and John Bodnar hit 514. Ordinarily the total that Gonzaga obtained—2546—would be enough to take four points but they were opposed by that consistently hard-hitting Santa Clara team.

ALEX LOBER came into his own Sunday as he banged out 216, 164 and 232 for a 587 total to lead Holy Cross to a three to one victory over Canisius. Lober showed some of the form which he used to show on the horse-racing courts, that doubling-up form. You might have sur-[illegible] Canisius with an 587 total [illegible] this writer [illegible] that Joe [illegible] well if he would [illegible] like he does in pitch[illegible]. Tony Malfa had his last hook bending in old-time form to bowl three consistent games for 567. Captain Paul J. Graney kept up his average with 517.

Captain Sonny Geno was best for Canisius with 524. The one point that Canisius obtained was due to the bowling of Ed. Lober, John Bacon and Sonny Geno in the second game.

John Terry was surprised to find that his 578 total did not make the Big Five but was eighth on the list even though it helped Notre Dame to an even split with the hard-fighting Georgetown team. John's comment was "I always knew that Holy Name Communion Sunday had the highest scores of the month but this is the best ever." Terry is going to wear a green suit next Sunday in honor of St. Patrick. This ought to bring John a 700 total.

Jack Friedel was close to his favorite uncle with three most consistent games of 193, 190 and 191 for 574. Jack is sure pouring it on in these last weeks.

Bud Wilson retained his title to the spark-plug of the Georgetown team by rolling a strong 588 total. Bud is consistently near the 600 mark right along. Johnny Madden bowled a strong 230 in the first game to bring his total to 539. This is Johnny's first trip up in the 500 bracket and it is most likely he will stay there, now that he is shooting at least one 200 game out of three. Andy Paddock was another consistent bowler, hitting all three games in the 170 class for 524. With this type of bowling Georgetown was able to break even with the "Fighting Irish."

Father Doyle's Body Returned

The body of the Rev. Neil J. Doyle, First Lieutenant, Corps of Chaplains, U. S. A., and only alumnus of St. Bernard's Seminary to make the supreme sacrifice, has been re-interred with full military honors in the United States National Cemetery, Farmingdale, L. I., N. Y.

Connecticut's hero priest, who was mortally wounded on New Georgia Island in July, 1943, had been buried in the U. S. Military Cemetery, Guadalcanal, prior to his recent repatriation.

A large delegation of priests of the Hartford Diocese, most of them former chaplains, attended the committal service. The group included the Rev. John E. Culliton of Newtown, also a graduate of St. Bernard's Seminary and who was with Father Doyle at the time of his death.

The military service was conducted by the Rev. Patrick Fay, Colonel, Corps of Chaplains, U. S. A., after which the grave was blessed and special prayers were recited by the Connecticut priests led by Father Landry.

Father Doyle was ordained May 30, 1935, after making his studies at St. Bernard's here. Among his Rochester classmates who also served as wartime chaplains, were: the Rev. Fathers James C. Lane, William F. Gaynor, Thomas Manley, William J. O'Brien and Paul J. Cuddy.

Sister Seraphine Rites Conducted

Funeral services for Sister M. Seraphine Glavin of the Sisters of Saint Joseph, who died Monday, March 15, 1948, were conducted in Holy Family Chapel, Nazareth Convent, Pittsford, on Wednesday morning, March 17.

Solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John F. Glavin of Rensselaer, a cousin of Sister Seraphine. He was assisted by the Rev. George S. Wood, Deacon, the Rev. Donald J. Mulcahy, Sub-deacon, the Rev. T. Paul Murley and the Rev. Joseph L. Hogan, acolytes. The Rev. Leo V. Smith was Master of Ceremonies.

In the sanctuary were also the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph S. Cameron, the Rev. Joseph H. Gefell and the Rev. Louis Edelman. The last blessing at the grave was given by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John F. Glavin, assisted by the Rev. Charles McCarthy and the Rev. John Roach.

A native Rochesterian, Sister Seraphine entered the Sisters of Saint Joseph in 1882. Her years in religion were spent as a teacher of Music in various schools in the diocese. In 1883 she was one of the pioneers to open St. Michael's School in Penn Yan. For 29 years, the Immaculate Conception School in Rochester was the scene of her labors, which place she left in 1947. Other assignments included St. Mary's, Auburn; St. Patrick's, Seneca Falls; and Nativity School, Brockport.

Surviving Sister Seraphine are a brother, William Glavin, of Rochester, several nieces and nephews.

St. Benedict Oblate Meeting Set Sunday

A meeting of the Oblates of St. Benedict will be held Sunday, Mar. 21, at 7:30 p. m. at St. Andrew's Seminary, North Plymouth Ave.

A special program has been planned to coincide with the feast day of St. Benedict.

The Oblates observe the rule of St. Benedict, central idea of which is the glorification of God in all things.

Squires Have Own 'McNamara's Band'

"McNamara's Band" as they rehearse for the St. Alphonsus Minstrels, which will be presented April 18, 19 and 20 in Emerson Auditorium, Auburn, by the Columbian Squires and the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Alphonsus Church for the benefit of Camp Columbus. In front is Jocco O'Connor; rear, from left, Don Fennessey, Ed Walsh, Paul O'Connor and Bob Ineich.

Minstrel Show To Benefit Camp Set

Auburn—Rehearsals have been under way for the past few weeks in preparation for the annual Minstrel Show sponsored by the Columbia Squires and Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Alphonsus Church for the benefit of Camp Columbus. The show will be presented April 18, 19 and 20 in Emerson Auditorium, East High School.

The cast for the two-part show entitled "An Irish Dream" with Minstrels includes 90 members of the above organizations. Jerry McAuliffe, Deputy Chief Squire, will act as Interlocutor, and the End Men will include Martin Farrell, Karl Jahn, John Maywalt, Emanuel Fefarra, George Peretta, and Edward Davis. Chief Squire David O'Brien is in charge of advertising and ushers.

Miss Bridget Welch, Kin of Nun, Dies

Seneca Falls — The death of Miss Bridget Welch, of Scipio Center, sister of Sister M. Jamesiena, S.S.J., of St. Patrick's Convent, Seneca Falls, occured at her home early Monday evening, March 15, 1948. Miss Welch was a lifelong resident of that village and was a frequent visitor in Seneca Falls. Besides Sr. Jamesiena, Miss Welch leaves another sister, Mrs. Francis Rafferty of Moravia.

Funeral services were conducted from the Doran Funeral Home, W. Bayard St., at 9:30, Thursday. Requiem Mass was offered in St. Patrick's Church at 10 a. m., Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor, as celebrant. Burial was in St. Columbkille's Cemetery.

pastor at St. Hyacinth's was the master of ceremonies and seated in the sanctuary was Rev. John B. Crowley, pastor of St. Aloysius Church, and chaplain of the Auburn Catholic War Veterans.

The committal services at the grave were in charge of Father Jerome Holubowicz, who was assisted by the other priests.

The bearers for T/3 Dziurzynski were Stanley Ciesla, Ludwik Wolczyk, John Fleszar, Joseph Walawender, Joseph Dec, and Edmond Walczyk.

The bearers for T/5 Lucas were Thomas Sliwka, Alex Deverenko, John Brannick, Walter Silensky, Joseph Collins and Donald Berry.

Army Nurse Hurt In N. Y. Fall

Waterloo—Mrs. M. L. Flynn, 304 W. Main St., has received word that her daughter First Lt. Florence Flynn, 30, an Army Nurse, has suffered a fractured skull in an accident.

According to the information, Lieutenant Flynn was hurt Friday night in a fall from a moving taxi in Brooklyn. Hospital attendants at Fort Hamilton Hospital in Brooklyn where the nurse was taken told her mother that the young woman had been taken ill in the cab and opened the car door after an unsuccessful attempt to get the driver to open a window.

She had just reported off duty at the Fort Hamilton Hospital and was taking the taxi to a nearby subway when the accident occurred.

Lieutenant Flynn is a graduate of Waterloo High School where she was valedictorian of her class; Nazareth College, Rochester, and of Johns Hopkins Hospital School of Nursing in Baltimore. She served on the staff of Johns Hopkins Hospital for a time following her graduation and later was on the staff of Waterloo Memorial Hospital before entering the Army Nurses Corps on Jan. 1, 1945.
