First Saturday Club Formed By Women's Uuit

A First Saturday Luncheon Club for Catholic women has been launched in Rochester under the patronage of the National Council of Catholic Women.

First meeting of the club will be held Saturday, May 1, at 12 noon in the Powers Hotel. All Catholic women are invited.

Patterned after the men's First Friday Club, the new group has been organized to further the First Saturday devotion in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

Only requirement for membership is the reception of Communion on the First Saturday of the month for the intention of world peace and the conversion of the Communist countries. This is the devotion urged by the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima, Portugal.

Each month, a prominent speaker will address the women. Rev. Albert J. Shamon, moderator of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, is scheduled to speak at the May 1 session.

The women will attend Mass and receive Communion in their own churches before gathering for the luncheon at the Powers.

LCBA Senate Lists Meeting On Monday

Rochester Advisory Senate, Ladies' Catholic Benevolent Association, will meet Monday, Apr. 26, at 8 p. m. in Parlor A, Columbus Civic Centre, according to Mrs. Anna I. Ryan, president. Business session will be followed by cards. Refreshments will be served. Chairman is Mrs. Georgianna Nientimp.

Meet at Holy Rosary

Holy Rosary Auxiliary 262, Knights of St. John, will hold a meeting Monday evening, April 26, at 8:15 o'clock in the school hall.

NAZARETH SRO PLAY STAFF

Back of the scenes when "The Plight of Priscilla," an original musical comedy, is presented at Nazareth College Friday and Saturday, Apr. 23 and 24, will be the above staff members. They are (from left) Marian Garry, assistant stage designer; Mary Betty Keegan, stage designer and Frances Kuch, stage crew member.

Original Musical Comedy Set for Nazareth SRO Cast

"The Plight of Priscilla," an original musical comedy, will be presented at Nazareth College as the annual all-student SRO production on Friday and Saturday evenings, Apr. 23 and 24 at 8:30 o'clock, and again on Sunday afternoon, April 25, at 3 o'clock.

Written and directed by Miss Noreen Carey, senior at Nazareth, the comedy has two acts and presents an unhistorical approach to a historical era. Assisting Miss Carey is Miss Norma DePrez, sophomore.

The original musical score was composed by Miss Patricia Taylert, senior, with the assistance of Miss Virginia Dwyer, senior from Utica, N. Y., and sophomores Joanne Wilson and Barbara Taylert.

The title role of Priscilla is played by a freshman, Miss Mary Ann Donovan of Buffalo. Other principles include Howard Shufelt, Don Morgan, Betty Jane Gardner, Frances Colletta, Margaret Mary Dutcher, Tom Speiss, Bill Seccombe, Bob Dugan, Jack Huber, and Maureen Spearman.

Others in the cast are Thomas McMahn, Tom O'Malley, Virginia Reichert, Bill Spillane, Doris Kennedy, Elizabeth Murphy, Elizabeth White, Jack Breslin, Art Kirn, Jule Nalbach, Jack Bridle, Frank Buttaccio, Irene Cullen, Elaine Kolesnik, Anne McLaughlin, Mary Kay O'Sullivan, Barbara Taylert, Cecilia Chang, Josephine Agnello, Helen D'Arcy, Georgia Connor and Frank Zimmerman.

Directing the singing chorus, made up of 25 mixed voices, is Doris Kennedy, senior. Wilma Widman of the Val Mates School of the Dance is in charge of staging the dances.

The costume committee, headed by Miss Peggy Ely, is designing and sewing costumes, replicas of those worn by early Americans. Miss Ely has done much research to insure authenticity for the costumes. Her assistants are Mary Burns, Norma Jean Cloos, Jane Hasselwander and Alice O'Dea. Stage settings were designed and set up by Miss Mary Betty Keegan, senior art major from Buffalo, with the assistance of Miss Miriam Garry of Albany. Directing the stage crew is Stage Manager Ruth Kennedy, assisted by Joan Carney. The business manager is Miss Jean Sweeney and her assistant is Miss Katherine Fleck. Publicity chairman is Miss Jean Ann Gray.

In conjunction with the production the upperclassmen on the staff are training the underclassmen on the techniques of play production to prepare for future SRO productions.

Breakfast Arranged At St. Augustine's

St Augustine's parish will hold their annual Communion breakfast Sunday, May 2, in the school hall.

Guest speakers at the breakfast will be the Rev. John M. Duffy, pastor of St. Augustine's, and the Rev. John T. Callahan, chaplain of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Mrs. James Malley, president, has named the following committee: Chairman, Mrs. John J. Hanlon; co-chairman, Mrs. Ralph Kelley; decorations, Mesdames John Haag, Peter Flanagan and Niles Stutsbury; reservations, Mesdames Frank Dunning, John Reilly, George McCorry, Marcian Scheg, James Morrow and Miss Jean Kelley; finances, Mrs. Harold Taylor.

Tekakawitha Club To Hold Dance Apr. 30

A dance for young adults has been scheduled by the Tekakwitha Club of Holy Family Church Friday evening, Apr. 30, from 9 to 12 in the school auditorium.

Sponsoring of the dance by the Tekakwitha Club is being considered as a regular entertainment feature for the young people out of high school. Tickets will be $1.50 per couple with no single tickets to be sold.
