Two Catholic Day Camps Keep City's Children Busy

By MARY M. CAREY

Happy summer days for many Rochester youngsters are being provided through well-supervised day camp programs offered by two Community Chest agencies, under Catholic auspices.

Groups of more than 200 children are spending their vacation days in the care of workers of Charles Settlement House and Genesee Settlement House, divisions of Rochester Catholic Charities.

THE FUN AND WORK projects of these two camps go over so big with the youngsters that many more have to be turned away because o lack of facilities, according to the settlement workers. Popularity of the camps is evident in the fact that most of the young participants are on hand and raring to go as early as an hour before the day's program begins.

About 100 boys and girls, aged 7 to 14, take part in the summer program of the Charles House, located at the corner of Saxton and Jay streets. They pay a sum of one dollar a week for the five-week period. This nominal fee is their only expense for a program which keeps them pleasantly occupied six hours a day, five days a week. Transportation is provided by the Charles House, which also foots the bill for the milk consumed by the youngsters with the lunches they bring.

A TYPICAL DAY begins at 9:30. After a jaunt to one of the parks, a visit to the zoo or a trip to the lake, the youngsters return to the Charles House and spend the afternoon learning craft work, coloring and drawing.

A half hour's religious instruction also is given to this group, the majority of whom is Catholic.

On Mondays and Wednesdays the boys go to Columbus Civic Centre for swimming lessons. The girls have their opportunity to learn to swim on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Stan Murray, physical director of the Columbus Youth Association, is in charge of this part of the program.

With the possible addition of a movie to top the fun, a day at the Charles House ends at 4:30.

TO CLIMAX this summer's activities, the children will attend Mass at St. Francis Assisi Church at 8 a. m. Friday, Aug. 6, and receive Holy Communion. A breakfast will be served at Charles House. After a play performed by the youngsters, and a final journey to the lake, the summer schedule is completed.

The hard-working people who make vacations fun for so many children at the Charles House are Edward Steinkirchner, Frank Kelly, Norbert Nolan, all St. Bernard's seminarians; staffers Ruth Ehmann, Eileen McCarthy and Mary Jean Licata, and Jean Stephany, a Nazareth College student.

THE GENESEE Settlement House, located at 10 Dake Street, which operates a similar program, has a daily average attendance of 125 youngsters, from July 6 through August 13. Children from 6 to 13 years old flock to Genesee from all over the city each day from 9 to 4:30. It costs 8 dollars for the first child in each family, 7 dollars for the second and 6 dollars for the third.

The house also caters to a group of pre-school children ranging from 4 to 6 years old. They come for only a half day, from 9 to 12, and the fee is five dollars. The tots' schedule includes a blend of recreation and instruction and a mid-morning snack of crackers and milk.

AN INNOVATION at the Genesee camp is the addition of outside showers to its facilities. These hot summer days the youngsters gather about the showers in bathing suits to cool off.

The big staff of workers includes: the Misses Mary Hannick, Caroline Ciziletti, Jane Whiteman, Catherine Aiello, Ann Stehle, Josephine Agnello and Sylvia Calabry; John O'Brien, William Trott and Bob Stevenson.

On Tuesday, Aug. 10, the Genesee Settlement House will open its doors to the parents, who will be afforded the opportunity to see the craft and art work of the children. Presentation of awards for the work, and a prize for the outstanding camper of the season will be made.

DANCE FOR 'PILGRIM VIRGIN'

Pueblo Indians performed a ceremonial dance in honor of the visit of the Pilgrim Virgin statue, Our Lady of Fatima, at Isleta Pueblo, New Mexico. The statue, now touring the United States, was carried in procession through the streets of Laguna Pueblo, New Mexico, with more than 500 Indians taking part in the ceremony, adding their prayers for the conversion of Russia and for world peace. More than 75,000 persons attended the various services during the three day-visit of the famous statue in the Archdiocese of Santa Fe.

Auxiliary To Mark Jubilee

Two days of celebration will mark the Golden Jubilee of Ladies Auxiliary No. 45, Knights of St. John, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish.

Opening the schedule will be a Memorial Mass at 8 a. m. Saturday, Aug. 7, in OLPH Church. Highlighting the evening program will be a supper at 6 p. m. in the parish hall, followed by a reception and dance. A Solemn High Mass will be offered at 8:30 a. m. Sunday, Aug 8.

Mrs. Katherine Harter is honorary chairman of the celebration. Mrs. Bernadine Bossert is general chairman, with Mrs. Julia Bossert as co-chairman.

St. Anthony's HNS Outing Set Sunday

Members of the Holy Name Society of St. Anthony's Church and their families will hold their annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 8, at Elser's Grove, Buffalo Road.

Salvator Matroniano, chairman, and Gordon Moore, co-chairman, announced that a chartered bus will leave from the church, Lyell Avenue and Plymouth Avenue North, at 11 a. m.

St. Patrick's CWV Picnic Slated Sunday

Memorial Post 1266, Catholic War Veterans of St. Patrick's Church, will hold its second annual picnic Sunday, Aug. 8, at Churchville County Park. Members, their families and friends will leave the church parking station at 1:30 p.m.

Joseph B. Infantolino is general chairman. Committee chairmen include Arthur Zona, food; William J. Schmitt, refreshments; Sebastian Viscardi and Frank Zucco, sports; Sam Travaglini, prizes; Anthony Giuliano, games, and Carl A. Nanni, transportation. The Rev. Nicholas P. Alletto is Post Chaplain.
