Second Initiation of CDA Candidates Set In Auburn

Auburn — A large number of members attended the business meeting of Court Auburn, Catholic Daughters of America at the South Street home Monday evening, Nov. 8, Mrs. George Frank, grand regent, presided.

Initiation for new members will be held at the South Street home Monday evening, Nov. 15 at 8 o'clock, members were told. Mrs. Frank advised that there would be a large number of new members entering Court Auburn. This is the second initiation of new members for 1948. A large number of new members were received at the Court in May, Mrs. Grace Partrick, district deputy, from North Rose will be in charge of the initiation. Members were notified, that one day would be set aside for all the members, who could give their time for any part of the day, to sew for the children of the war stricken areas of Europe. The day decided upon was Friday, Nov. 12. The members will meet at the South Street home. A number of women are now sewing and knitting at their homes. Special materials have been purchased and a number of items will be made and finished Friday.

The November Rummage Project will be held at the South Street Home Nov. 18 and 19. Mrs. George Frank is chairman with a large committee. Proceeds will be used for war relief programs.

The annual Memorial Mass will be said at St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Charles G. Langworthy, chaplain for Court Auburn, Friday morning at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 19.

Geneva Weddings

Chiarilli — Cardinale

Geneva — Miss Phyllis Chiarilli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oranti J. Chiarilli, 222 N. Genesee St., was united in marriage to Stephen John Cardinale, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cardinale of Carter Road R.D. 2, on Saturday at St. Francis de Sales Church. Palms, gladioli and pompons decorated the altar.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Vincent Collins. Mrs. Anita Kitcho was organist, and Miss Patricia Ianpolio soloist.

Mrs. Anthony Felice was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Connie Chiarilli, sister of the bride, and Susan Russo, Marie and Ann Cardinale, sisters of the bridegroom. Janet Cardinale, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

Richard Cardinale, brother of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Oranto P. Chiarilli, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushers were Patrick Chiarilli, brother of the bride, and James Cardinale, brother of the bridegroom and Anthony and Frederick Felice.

Breakfast was served at D's hall and dinner at Deluxe Grill. A reception was held at D's hall. Two hundred guests attended.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside at 222 N. Genesee St.

Blair - Brennan

Miss Joan Gracia Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Blair, 88 Hillcrest Ave., became the bride of Robert James Brennan, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Brennan, 40 High St., Friday, Oct. 29, at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral, Rochester.

Rev. B. L. Quirk of Rochester performed the ceremony.

Mrs. John J. Preebis of Buffalo, a cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. Her husband was best man.

Mrs. Brennan is a graduate of Geneva High School and attended William Smith college. At present she is a sophomore in the University of Buffalo school of medicine.

Mr. Brennan is a graduate of Hobart College. He is associated with the Equitable Life Assurance Society in Rochester.

Former Provincial Dies

Norwalk, Conn. — (NC) — Funeral services were held at St. Mary's Seminary near here for the Rev. Eugene Phelan, C.S.Sp., former Provincial of the Holy Ghost Fathers in the United States. He died at the age of 90 at St. Francis Hospital in Pittsburgh.

Second Youth Dance Slated By St. Hyacinth Group

Auburn — More than 400 young persons jammed the Polish Home Auditorium on State St., for the initial youth dance conducted Nov. 7 by St. Theresa's Guild of St. Hyacinth Church.

Gratified by the success the Guild is planning another dance on Wednesday, Nov. 17, with Gene Kayne and his orchestra to furnish the music.

At the opening dance the hall was decorated by members of the Young Ladies' Sodality with pumpkins and corn stalks. These made an appropriate setting for introduction of two new numbers, "The Pumpkin Polka" and "The Squash Hop."

Welcoming hostess of the evening was Miss Jane Bojcun assisted by her committee.

Admission is free to the youth dances through the courtesy of the American Federation of Musicians from the recording and transcription Fund, the committee states.

Tonzi Rolls 599 To Top St. Aloysius Bowlers

Auburn — Lou Tonzi was on the beam Sunday as he led the Villanova team of the St. Aloysius' Holy Name Bowling League to a three to one victory over Loyola, last year's Champs. Tonzi had games of 191, 199 and 209 for a 599 total the high for the day. This superb bowling of Tonzi along with help from Freddy Gilbert has set the Villanova team on the come back trail.

Steve Tarby started well for Loyola getting 221 in his first game and a 525 total to be the main reason why Loyola managed to gain one point.

Notre Dame has taken over the spot of the heaviest bowlers in the league. Sunday they hit a 2602 total to defeat St. John Fisher three points to one. John Terry once called the terrier, has hit the comeback trail, turning in a fine bowling performance of games of 170, 206 and 215 for a 599 total, the second high for the day. Jack Friedel, the other member of Notre Dame's one two punch came through with 561. With Terry once more showing his terrier's form the Fighting Irish look like the team that will come down the stretch like another Citation.

ST. JOHN FISHER was no set up for the strong Notre Dame team as was evidenced by the 2555 total they rolled which was second only to their victors. John Bishop proved to be a worthy foe as he hit 223, the high single for the day to help him gain a fine 522 total. The Cardinals have proved time after time that they are a strong team.

Frank Stapleton and Captain John Donnelly came through with high totals of 557 and 551, respectively, to lead the Santa Clara team to a four to nothing victory over LeMoyne. This victory kept Santa Clara in second place one point behind Georgetown as the first round ended. The 2545 total of the victors shows they are going to be in the race till the end.

Ralph Casbarro, the captain of LeMoyne, has come back to his old time form by rolling 522.

GEORGETOWN FINISHED the first round with a four to nothing victory over Gonzaga, thus assuring them the lead as they enter the second round. Possession is nine tenths of the law goes the saying and Georgetown hopes to keep that prize possession of first place. Captain John Miskell had 524 to lead the Georgetown team, he was followed by Johnny Madden with 508 and Bud Wilson with 500.

Gonzaga had a rough afternoon with their two aces off-form.

Paul J. Graney decided that if Father Haffey could hit 500 on alleys 1 and 2 so could he, so he proceeded to roll 519 to lead Holy Cross to an even break with Canisius. Paul seemed to be the only member of either team that could figure out these two alleys last Sunday.

Book Exhibit, Tea, Set Sunday by Auburn NCCW

Auburn — Auburn Deanery Council, National Council of Catholic Women, will observe the opening of National Book Week with a tea and exhibit of books on next Sunday, Nov. 14 from three until five o'clock in the Catholic Daughters of America Home on South Street.

Mrs. L. Harvey Clark, chairman of the deanery's Library and Literature Committee and librarian of St. Alphonsus Parish Library, emphasizes that all women of the Auburn Deanery are invited.

Mrs. Joseph Cuddy, a member of the Auburn Speakers Bureau, and Mrs. Edward T. Boyle, wife of Auburn's mayor, will pour. The arrangement of the tea table will be under the supervision of Miss Helen I. Sabourin, art teacher at Central High School.

Mrs. Clark's deanery committee is composed of representatives from the following parishes: St. Mary's, Miss Mary Dunne; St. Alphonsus, Miss Louise C. Simon; Holy Family, Mrs. Eugene F. Carpenter; St. Aloysius, Mrs. Clarence Hayden.

A COMPREHENSIVE exhibit of books suitable for Catholic reading will be on display. These books will be all available at the St. Alphonsus Library whose policy, through the generosity of the Rev. Frederick W. Straub, pastor, is to lend books to any person in the Auburn Deanery. By not restricting the use of the books to the parish, the library staff hopes to extend the services of the library.

On hand to answer questions about the exhibit and the library will be the following members of the library staff: Miss Mary Forshee, Mis Agnes Nolan, Mrs. Louise W. Merna, and Miss Catherine Ryan.

Acting as hostesses at the tea will be Mrs. John C. O'Toole, past president of the Auburn Deanery Council, Mrs. Eugene F. Carpenter, a member of the diocesan Board of Directors and Mrs. George M. Frank, Mrs. Olive Garbinsky, Miss Mary Lesch, Mrs. Fred Armstrong, Mrs. Edward H. LaMotte, Mrs. Robert T. Crowe, Mrs. Rocco Malvasso, Mrs. Paul Dougherty, Scipio Center, Mrs. Charles A. Cusick, Weedsport, and Miss Catherine Burns of Moravia.

Ordinariate Has New Office Site

New York — (NC) — The Military Ordinariate and several archdiocesan agencies will be housed in the Whitelaw Reid mansion, just acquired by the Archdiocese of New York, it was announced here. The residence was occupied by Whitelaw Reid, former editor and publisher of the old New York Tribune, until his death in 1912. During the war it was used as a clubhouse for U. S. servicewomen.

The old, red Cathedral College building, which used to house the Military Ordinariate, has been sold.

Designed in Italian Renaissance style, the Reid mansion is directly opposite the residence of His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, on Madison Avenue and Fiftieth Street. It was sold to the Archdiocese by Mrs. Helen Rogers Reid, president of the New York Herald Tribune and her sons Whitelaw Reid, editor of the paper, as executors of the estate of Ogden Mills Reid and Lady Ward of London.

Dinner Speakers Hail Retreatants

ducted by the United Nations?

FRANKE E. WOLFE, Retreat League president, introduced Charles A. Tucker, a past president, as toastmaster. Wolfe noted that the League began retreats seven years ago in Our Lady of the Lake Retreat House, Geneva, with 160 men, and that this year's total of retreatants will reach 1,000. He particularly commended Father Aylward, Retreat House rector, for his "untiring work in behalf of the retreat movement."

Tucker described early days of the movement when the men made weekend retreats at St. Bernard's Seminary. Among those introduced at the speakers table were:

THE RIGHT REV. MSGR. William Hart, P.A., V.G.; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Cowen of Auburn, first League moderator; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, former moderator, the Rt. Rev. Monsignors Thomas F. Connors and George V. Burns, whose parishes long have supported the League, the Rev. John E. Maney, secretary to the Bishop; the Reverends Edmund J. Bowen, C.S.S.R., and Thomas J. Sanderson, C.S.S.R., assistant directors of the Retreat House; B. Edward Shlesinger, League treasurer, and George P. Schmidt secretary.

Applause greeted announcement of the delegations of retreatants present from all of the diocese. Auburn and Elmira were very well represented. Among the Auburn delegation was Mayor Edward T. Boyle.

An instrumental trio from the Eastman School of Music provided dinner music, and Louise R. Schiano and Arthur Steffen, accompanied at the piano by Frank Skultety, drew applause for several solos and duets.
