St. Patrick's Youth Leads Mynderse Academy Class

Seneca Falls — Dominic Scaramuzzino, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charls Guy Scaramuzzino, Bridge St., is valedictorian of the 1949 graduating class of Mynderse Academy, according to announcement made this week in the Mynderse Microphone, school paper.

Dominic has an average of 96.6 per cent. This is the second highest average ever to have been obtained by any student graduating from Mynderse, exceeded only by MissAnita Palumbo, who graduated with the class of 1934 with an average of 96.7 per cent.

Dominic is co-editor of the 1949 Myndersian, year book, belongs to the band and glee club, attended Boys' State, took part in the United Nations Radio Quiz and was a Junior Kiwanian.

In order of their standings, the next nine students complete the "Top Ten": Mary Louise Allen, Marian Landberg, Dorcas Bowman, Mary Luckern, Gloria Didio, John Oakes, Josephine Blawski, Betty Leno and Robert Freeland.

Of the group, Dominic Scaramuzzino, Mary Luckern, Gloria Didio, John Oakes and Josephine Blawski are Catholic students, and all except Gloria Didio are graduates of St. Patrick's School.

Rev. John P. O'Beirne, Pastor of St. Patrick's Church, publicly congratulated the students on their splendid showing, at the Masses last Sunday. Father O'Beirne said that results show that the Catholic education system has shown itself to be equal to that of the public schools in preparing its students for high school work.

Capuchin Urges Use of Vote To Halt Reds

Geneva—Use of the power of the vote was recommended by Rev. Seraphin Tirone, O.F.M. Cap., father superior of the Capuc . Fathers, Lochland Rd., as the m.st effective weapon in the fight against Com-

He spoke at the 14th annual Ite'' Night dinner of the Geneva Council, K. of C., at K. of C. me, Feb. 24. One hundred and fifty men attended.

Warning against the inroads of Jmu ..., Father Tirone said the percentage of Communists in Hungary is only a ut 17 percent, yet they have taken over the power there. He urged an active democracy if we are to keep the democratic way of life in America.

M. Maurice Chacchia was toastmaster. Joseph Reo expressed his thanks to the committee for the successful program.

Grand Knight Louis L. McGuigan spoke briefly on membership calling ticular attention to the fine record of the local council.

District Deputy Victor DeWeaver of Newark spoke on organization activities. Police Chief Daniel C. Murphy also spoke briefly.

OTHERS HEARD were Rev. Edward K. Ball, pastor of St. Francis de Sales parish; Rev. John Reddington, and Rev. Vincent Collins, also of St. Francis de Sales; and Rev. Robert Fennessy of St. Stephen's church; and Rev. Emilio Banchi, O.F.M. Cap., of the Capuchin Order, who spoke in Italian.

Joseph Palone was M. C. for the entertainment program which followed the dinner. Frank Alvaro was chairman of enter' ent.

Among t entertainment features were piano sol s, "Warsaw Concerto"; "Tea for Two", and "Le er", by Peter Mangone, of Auburn, and two songs, "Bella Bella Marie," and "Tree in the Meadow," by Dominick Carnovale, with Mrs. Anita Kitcho as pianist.

J ane Pelone of Auburn performed intricate dance steps and also sang, "Buttons and Bows," "Tea for Two," and "Four Leaf Clover" Frank Alvaro, Jr., w accompanist.

An orchestra including Frank Alvaro, Jr., Angelo Gigliotti and Justin DeWitt provided a variety of musical numbers.

Assisting in serving the dinner were the Misses Toni Alvaro, Mary Alvaro, Josephine Caito, Mary Venuti, Tina Saglembeni, Helen Gaglianese, Claudia LaNasa, and Sylvia Madia.

Posters Win Press Month Honors

Poster Contest Winners Named at NCCW Press Tea

Auburn — Miss Kathleen McEvoy, 15, a pupil at Holy Family High, was judged winner of the religious poster contest decided at a press tea Sunday afternoon in the home of Auburn Court 263, CDA, sponsored by the Auburn Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women. Miss Pauline Carnicelli, 13, also of Holy Family High School, took second place.

Judges of the nine entries which were submitted were Miss Helen W. Sabourin, art teacher in Central High School; John K. Hohman, representative of the Rochester Courier-Journal here, and George R. Metcalf, of the Auburn Citizen-Advertiser.

Special guests at the tea, to which all Auburn newspapermen were invited, were the Rev. Richard Tormey, associate editor, and Martin Q. Moll director of public relations of the Courier Journal.

FATHER TORMEY SPOKE to the large assemblage of women concerning the progress of the diocesan weekly and the necessity of the Catholic press. Mr. Moll outlined the effort and expense entailed in publishing the Courier Journal. They brought with them a comprehensive exhibit arranged by the staff of the Courier-Journal. A number of other Catholic newspapers were displayed.

Responsible for setting up the exhibit were Mrs. L. Harvey Clark, librarian at St. Alphonsus parish library, and Miss Agnes Nolan, deanery chairman of shrines in home committee.

Mrs. Joseph P. Cuddy, deanery president, welcomed the guests. Miss Isabel T. Goss, Mercy Hospital Guild president and Mrs. George Evans, regent of Auburn Court CDA, supervised tea tables. They were assisted by a large committee representing various Auburn parishes.

Backing Parish Is NCCW Aim Says Deanery Head

Auburn — "Support your parish activities and you are carrying out the aims and purposes of National Council of Catholic Women" was the central thought of the talk given Thursday evening, Feb. 24, by Mrs. Joseph P. Cuddy, Auburn Deanery president, at a dinner meeting of the Sacred Heart League of Holy Family Church at the Pioneer Restaurant.

Pointing out that the N.C.C.W. is a federation of parish organizations, Mrs. Cuddy urged her hearers to be "faithful doers of small things so great good may accomplished."

THE REV. ALFRED G. Horr, moderator of the society, spoke informally to the women concerning the aims of the group. Mrs. Joseph E. Hester, president of the League, presided at the meeting and conducted the business session.

Lourdes Unit To Hear Fr. Kelly

The regular monthly meeting of the Rosary Altar Society of Our Lady of Lourdes Parish, Elmira, will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the church hall.

The Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, pastor of St. James parish, Trumansburg, will give an illustrated lecture on his recent visit to Fatima.

A voluntary offering will be taken up to aid Father Kelly in his church rebuilding program. The church was completely destroyed by a recent fire.

A cordial invitation has been extended to the public to attend this interesting program.

New Correspondence Course Bringing Faith to Hindus

Patna, India—(NC)—No one seemed to realize the great opportunity for the Church among the high caste, educated Hindus, despite its difficulties. The Rev. Peter J. Sontag, S.J., made a special attempt among that class.

Twenty five years of casual experience with government officials, doctors, shopkeepers and teachers convinced him that many in this class conformed to the externals of Hinduism because of custom, but that education had robbed them of conviction. In fact, they were on the high road to agnosticism.

So Father Sontag devised a correspondence course in the teachings of the Catholic Faith for them under the name of Institute of Home Study, consisting of 20 lessons, with a quiz sheet on each lesson. This was to be answered by the student and returned to the institute for corrections.

PERSONAL CONTACT with the students was out of the question, since any visit to them by a priest would have jeopardized their social standing. To safeguard them from embarrassment, the institute used a post office box as its address.

Father Sontag got a thousand names from Bishops, priests and Sisters. Within a year, 800 persons are returning the quiz sheets, with praise for the course.

A professor wrote: "At last I have found a religion that gives me peace." The vice chancellor of a state university wrote "Cost what it may, I must become a Catholic, for this is the only true religion." Some students are sending in names of other non Christians.

Father Sontag believes that the ripple that has been started by the correspondence course may spread through Hindu society, and that thousands will at length take his course, entitled, "The Way of Life."

Irish Abstinence Group Sets Jubilee

Dublin —(RNS)— The Pioneer Total Abstinence Association of Ireland, which has a membership of 370,000, will celebrate its golden jubilee here on Sunday, June 26.

Plans for the celebration include a monster open-air meeting, a procession through the center of the city, and a Benediction service on the grounds of historic Dublin Castle.

China Clerical Students Move To Philippines

Shanghai — (NC) — Fifty Chinese seminarians, all members of the Jesuit order have left here en route to Manila where they will resume studies for the priesthood.

Special provision was made by the Cabinet of the Philippine government to admit the group under an emergency quota, according to word received here. His Eminence Francis Spellman, Archbishop of New York, is said to have wired to President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines, recommending the Chinese students to his consideration in view of the situation in China.

It is clear here that seminaries will not be able to continue normal courses in the event of Communist occupation.

The seminarians, who began their studies at Zikawei, near Shanghai, will stop at Macao, Portugese island near Canton, until arrangements to accomodate them in the Philippines are completed. It is expected that they will settle at Novaliches, northwest of Manila.

Among faculty members accompanying them is the Rev. Ralph H. Brown, S.J., of San Francisco.
