Midnight Mass Broadcasts Planned By Local Churches

Four Midnight Masses will be broadcast from Rochester churches on Christmas Eve on stations WHAM, WHEC, WVET and WSAY with a complete coverage of the music, prayers and sermon of the traditional parochial celebrations.

The Pontifical Midnight Mass of His Excellency Bishop Kearney and the Bishop's Christmas sermon will be aired from Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral to all diocesan listeners by WHAM from midnight to 1 a.m.

WHEC WILL broadcast the Mass from Old St. Mary's where the Very Rev. James C. McAniff, Chancellor of the diocese will be the celebrant and preacher. WVET will carry the Mass ceremonies and a special carol program from Holy Family Church. WSAY microphones will pick up the Mass from Holy Rosary Church.

In the Auburn area, listeners will hear the midnight Mass from St. Mary's Church, Auburn, over WMBO.

THE PAROCHIAL schools' "Quizdown," a bi-monthly feature of WHEC, comes from Holy Apostles school this Saturday morning at 10 a.m. as Holy Apostles scholars meet a team of quiz experts from St. Peter and Paul's school.

THE LITTLEST ANGEL, one of the most charming of modern Christmas stories, is Loretta Young's choice for narration with music on "Family Theater" next Wednesday evening, Dec. 21, at 9:30 p.m. on WVET, WMBO, WGVA and WNDR, Syracuse. It is an enchanting story of a baby angel who offered his most treasured possession to the newborn Christ-Child and so pleased Almighty God that the gift was transformed into the shining star of Bethlehem.

THE NATIVITY Story, dramatized by the Graymoor Friars of the Atonement on their weekly "Ave Maria Program" will be presented next week by transcription on 400 stations in the U. S. Canada, Alaska and the Philippines. WGVA, Geneva carries it each Sunday at 12:30 p.m.

Vatican Issues New Stamps

Vatican City —(NC)— Special series stamps and a special substation of the postoffice will be incidental features of the Holy Year, it has been learned here.

The commemorative stamps are printed in eight values and are bearing designs depicting four different subjects related to the Holy Year. One represents the Great Pardon with a picture of the Papal Keys; the second, which depicts the conferring of the primacy on Peter, is a reproduction of the famous Perugino painting on that subject; the third commemorates the Jubilee visit with tiny pictures of the four Patriarchal Basilicas; while the fourth carries a picture of the Pope striking the Holy Door with the golden hammer.

Msgr. Sheen To Open Radio Series, Jan. 1

Washington — (NC) — Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, of the Catholic University of America, will begin his 20th series of annual radio addresses on the Catholic Hour program starting January 1, it has been announced by the National Council of Catholic Men, producer of the program. The Catholic Hour is carried each Sunday at 6 p. m., EST. by the National Broadcasting Company. (WBEN, Buffalo, is the only up-state N. Y. station carrying the program.)

Monsignor Sheen will speak each Sunday until Easter, April 9. His general subject will be: "The Rock Plunged Into Eternity."

CHRISTMAS ROSARY ON AIR

The annual Christmas Rosary program, "The Joyful Hour," will be heard over the Mutual Broadcasting System network and also by the Armed Forces Radio Service, on Sunday, December 18. Pictured discussing plans for the program are the Rev. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., founder and director of the worldwide Family Rosary Crusade, and Bing Crosby, who will be one of the soloists on the program from Hollywood.

Joyful Hour Lists 17 Stars For Sunday Rosary Program

Hollywood — (NC) — Two stars of the Metropolitan Opera Company, Licia Albanese and Giuseppe Di Stefano, will be heard singing Christmas music from New York during the broadcast of "The Joyful Hour" over the Mutual Broadcasting System at 8:30 p.m., December 18, it has been announced by the Rev. Patrick Peyton, C.S.C., founder and director of the Family Rosary Crusade, program producer.

In addition to the opera stars, Father Peyton said that Bing Crosby and Ann Jamison will be heard as soloists from Hollywood.

Listeners in the Rochester Diocese may hear this program from WVET, Rochester, WMBO in Auburn, WGVA in Geneva, or WNDR of Syracuse, at 8:30 p.m. this Sunday.

This year, Father Peyton has announced, the five Joyful mysteries of the Rosary will be enacted, with Ann Blyth [illegible] the Blessed Mother and Macdonald Carey as St. Joseph.

Other top flight stars who will recite the Rosary during the broadcast are: Jeanne Crain, Pedro De Cordoba, Bobby Driscoll, Joan Leslie, Roddy McDowell, Stephen McNally, Ricardo Montalban, Maureen O'Hara, Maureen O'Sullivan, Jane Wyatt and William Lundigan.

The Joyful Hour is one of the three Rosary programs produced annually by the Family Rosary Crusade. The others are the Triumphant Hour at Easter time and the World's Greatest Mother on Mother's Day.

Protestants Expand Movie Activities

Philadelphia — (RNS) — Co-operation of at least 12 Protestant denominations in the production of ten educational still films, with sound accompaniment, was indicated as the result of an audio-visual conference sponsored here by the International Council of Religious Education.

The films, which will require an investment of about $200,000 will deal with leadership training, religious education, youth and camping, adult and Christian family life, worship, Protestant history.

Drama of Bl. Martin, Negro Dominican, Published Here

"City of Kings," Broadway success and prize-winning play by the Rev. Urban Nagle, O.P., published this week by the Christopher Press of Rochester, is expected to spread the story of Blessed Martin de Porres [illegible]

[illegible] Father Nagle's play had a successful [illegible] performance run in the New York theater of the Blackfriars' Guild this spring. Now in published form, it is available [illegible] the Christopher Press.

BLESSED MARTIN, hero of "City of Kings," was a Negro [illegible] action of the play tells part of his life in his [illegible] of Lima, Peru, and death there in the early 1600's.

Father Nagle, founder of the Blackfriars' Guild which [illegible] has been a leading Catholic playwright and director for nearly 20 years. Author of "Barter," "Catherine the Valiant" and "Savonarola," he will be remembered by Rochesterians as the author of "Lady of Fatima," which the Diocesan Holy Name Union produced successfully at Mercy High auditorium last April.

CRITICAL ACCLAIM for "City of Kings" was generous and sincere when it opened in New York in February. Jerry Cotter wrote in "Sign": "The story of Martin is dramatized with an understanding that makes the [illegible] even brighter light."

"America," weekly Jesuit magazine, editorialized: "This is a human and gripping drama ... Martin does not solicit any pity himself. He simply builds up a personal dignity and an [illegible] of universal, compelling love that utterly [illegible] of racial supremacy."

"The Pittsburgh Courier," leading Negro newspaper, declared: "This is the finest play with an interracial theme that ever has been presented in New York." The "New York Times" called it "refreshing theater ... a [illegible] and compelling story of the tireless labors of an humble man of God."

The "New York Post" critic, Richard Watts Jr., wrote: "Father Nagle is a playwright who [illegible]"

Parliament Mass

Paris — (NC) — For the first time in many years a Solemn Mass has been celebrated for the convening of the French Parliament. The Mass was offered by Archbishop Maurice Feltin of Paris in St. Clotilde's, parish church for the district in which the Chamber of Deputies is located.
