Rosary and Prayerbook

Munich (NC) Armed with nothing but his prayer book and a rosary, a Catholic refugee from Slovakia has arrived here after crossing the Czech border into Bavaria. Only his faith, he said, had helped him to escape from the tyranny now ruling in his homeland.

Clothing Exchange In Operation

Volunteer workers and customers are shown above at the opening of the clothing exchange center Wednesday, Mar. 22, in the basement of St. Francis de Sales school. The project, unique in parish history, is open to the public and features good used clothing for children from infant sizes to age 14. No money is involved. Contributed clothing is evaluated, put into a pool and may be used as exchange for other clothing in needed sizes. Purpose is to enable young mothers to secure good used clothing which would otherwise be discarded because some family has no further need for it. Mrs. John Hastings is chairman and Mrs. Francis Larsen, co-chairman of the project. The center is open every Wednesday from 8 to 9:30 p.m.

Patrons Listed For Fete To Benefit Cenacle Nuns

A giant fund raising affair will be held on Wednesday, April 12, at 8 o'clock, in Columbus Civic Center. The project in the form of a card party will be the first of the "once-a-year" functions for the benefit of the Cenacle Convent on East Avenue.

Proceeds will be used to reduce the debt incurred by the Religious of the Cenacle in converting the former Todd home for retreat purposes.

The general chairman, Mrs. Edward L. Zimmer and her co-chairman, Mrs. Stanley J. Lane, announce the following benefactors, patrons, and patronesses, for the card party:

CWV Ladies Set Welfare Program

The year's welfare program was launched by the Catholic War Veterans Ladies Auxiliary, Monroe County Chapter, at the regular meeting in Holy Redeemer hall, when definite plans were made.

Kenneth Stone, Supervisor of Recreation at Canandaigua Veterans Facility, and Mr. Albanese, Director of Volunteers, outlined various recreational and rehabilitation activities of the facility. They stressed the urgent need for volunteer workers who supply the personal touch.

ON EASTER Sunday, members of the Catholic War Veterans County Welfare Committee will visit the veterans at the Canandaigua Institution. Chocolate Easter eggs, contributed by the Auxiliary and various other organizations will be distributed.

The Auxiliary is sponsoring Bill deMarse's popular stage show "Studio Frolics of 1950" on Thursday, May 18 at Aquinas Institute auditorium. Proceeds will be used to purchase a television set for the Canandaigua veterans.

Plans are also being made for the state convention. County chairman Mrs. Frank McKenna and delegates from each unit will represent the county.
