Genevan Joins Tour Of Students To Rome

Geneva — John R. Buckley son of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy J. Buckley, 312 William St., is a member of a six week's college student pilgrimage to Rome. He was graduated recently from Niagara University.

The tour which includes about 900 students from universities and colleges throughout the nation is one of the largest student pilgrimages this year. It is being conducted by the International Catholic Travel Committee.

Students will visit Paris, Lourdes, Nice, Florence, and Rome.

Farley Opens $4,000,000 Drive For St. Bonaventure

"Give this drive the support and encouragement it so richly deserves, to help St. Bonaventure rise to take her place with the best colleges and universities in the country."

This was the message of the Hon. James A. Farley to alumni in the Southern Tier area opening the $4,000,000 campaign for St. Bonaventure College at a dinner in Mark Twain Hotel, Elmira Sunday night. Farley, is general chairman of the campaign against phase of which was opened at the dinner.

Actually, although I am not an alumnus, I have been in close contact with the progress of St. Bonaventure and have been kept in that state by our mutual friend and benefactor, Father Thomas Plassmann, former president of St. Bonaventure and now Provincial of the Holy Name Province of the Order of Friars Minor," Farley said.

The former Postmaster General and now board chairman of Coca Cola was presented by William H. Kearney of Syracuse national alumni chairman.

"I KNOW THAT this present expansion program is a vital necessity, if the college is to continue its excellent work," Mr. Farley declared.

Directing his speech to the alumni who will be doing the actual solicitation Farley said:

Let me tell you, gentlemen, that there need be no element of shame in your approach when you seek contributions to St. Bonaventure. There is hardly a college in the country that is not seeking additional funds. You are in company with the alumni of the most respected institutions in the country.

He said that the common feeling was that religious orders are rich.

"THEY ARE rich in honor and respect and devotion if they are rich in terms of wealth it has escaped my observation. Large sums of money may be handled but it must be spread out thinly to carry out the vast program of service to humanity.

My administrative job, he declared goes out to the administration and business management that have forestalled the seeking of gift money until this late date.

Among other speakers were Very Rev. Thomas Plassmann O.F.M., provincial of the Holy Name Province of Order of Friars Minor, Very Rev. Juvenal Lalor, O.F.M., St. Bonaventure College president, Very Rev. John Lambert Towan, O.F.M., rector of Christ the King Seminary, Rev. Gervase McMillan O.F.M., national alumni secretary, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph B. McIntyre, national clerical alumni secretary and Chairman Kearney.

The drive which has as its purpose the raising of $4,000,000 for an overall building project to cost $8,700,000 has already begun in several divisions. The students of the college have raised most of their goal of $42,000, which will enable them to establish a memorial in the new Student Union Building. The Seminarians now attending have contributed 100% in the drive.

The building first to be erected, aside from the completion of Christ the King Seminary, will be a Science Building followed by a new Student Union Building. Then in succession will be a Dormitory, a Business School Administration Building and a Faculty House. The campaign will continue on through the summer extending throughout the nation.

One-Man Art Show At St. Bonaventure

An interesting as well as artistic one man show is on exhibition at St. Bonaventure College.

Displayed in the foyer of Friedsam Memorial Library is a representative collection of the work of a Buffalo artist Albion Ende. Watercolor oils charcoal as well as pen and ink sketches and silouettes form the greater part of the exhibit.

Among the items on display are original and unique designs created for such special occasions as Christmas, Easter, Father's Day, Mother's Day, and Ordinations to the Priesthood.

The library is open to the public daily for the next 3 weeks until six p. m. and in the evenings by special appointment. The one-man exhibit is the first time Ende's work has been displayed in this area.

Year's Program Reviewed By Falls Brownie Troop

Seneca Falls Brownie Troop No. 12, Girl Scouts of America, held their final meeting of the school year in St. Patrick's School, Tuesday afternoon, June 13th. Miss Flora Calarco, Troop Leader presided.

At the meeting the Brownies and the leaders evaluated the years program discussing the different events and projects. They also registered for Day Camp which will be held July 10 to 14 at Cayuga Lake State Park.

Troop 12 joined the other four Brownie Troops of Seneca Falls at Cayuga Lake State Park for a rally Saturday, June 10. The rally was under the direction of Mrs. Dario Politella, Executive Secretary of the Girl Scout Council. Approximately 120 Brownies and their leaders attended.

THE TIME was spent in games, singing and nature study with luncheon at noon in the pavilion. The Council furnished potato chips, celery, carrot sticks, ice cream and milk and the Brownies brought their own sandwiches. They arrived at the Park at 10 a.m. and remained until 2 p.m. Transportation was furnished by parents and friends.

During the spring the girls made Easter baskets and cotton Bunnies and worked on two waste paper baskets for the troop meeting place. Mrs. John C. Fraser, who is choir director at St. Patrick's Church and is also a member of the Troop committee directed several singing sessions.

For Mother's Day the Brownies made aprons. This was a three week project and at the beginning the outcome looked a bit doubtful as the needles had a way of making too large stitches and the scissors would just not go where directed. However the Brownies surprised all with fine careful finished products.

AN INVESTITURE Service was held during the year when six new members were received into the Troop. These members were Mary Amidon, Marguerite Lambert, Arlene Simone, Lucille Matro, Sandra Morehouse and Judy Vergamini.

This was an impressive ceremony in which, the Brownies formed a circle, gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and sang Brownie Songs. Each new member held a lighted candle; made her Brownie Scout Promise and was welcomed into the Girl Scout Organization by her leader, who presented each with her Brownie Scout Pin.

After the ceremony the Brownies were surprised with a cake made by assistant leader Mrs. Kenneth Faiola.

In May a hike was planned. The girls took off from the school after the afternoon sessions but the venture ended with a dash for home when a sudden thunderstorm broke. But all had fun anyway.

In addition to the new members listed above the Brownie Troop includes Dolores Brancforte, Mary Catherine Calarco, Collette Carnavale, Betty Ann Cologgi, Elaine Dombrowski, Faith Dorson, Irene Dowen, Alice Dunhaam, Sylvia Ferrara, Bonnie Fiorelli, Margaret Fraser, Paula Gravina, Joyce Kelley, Patricia Lockwood, Joan Mansman, Eda Ann Morganti, Betty O'Hora, Patricia Povero, Denise Reardon, Patricia Simolo and Constance Timmons.

Assistants to Miss Calarco, leader, are Mrs. Pat Giansante and Mrs. Kenneth Faiola. The Troop Committee, who also act as assistants when needed, are Mrs. Gus Cologgi, Mrs. John C. Fraser and Mrs. William Reardon.

Nine members of Troop 12, who have reached the age of ten years, will complete tenderfoot requirements and will fly up to Intermediate Scouting with the opening of the Fall sessions.

O'Neil To Head Legion Magazine

Manchester, N.H. — (NC) — James F. O'Neil, prominent Catholic layman, and past National Commander of the American Legion, has announced his resignation as chief of the Manchester police department to become operating head of the American Legion Magazine, with headquarters in New York City.

Mr. O'Neill, who has been an outspoken foe of communism, will serve as publisher of the Legion's monthly magazine, which, with a circulation of more than 3,000,000, is America's seventh largest periodical.

Mr. O'Neill has been prominent in the Legion for many years and served as national commander in 1948.

13th Anniversary Noted by Geneva Society At Mass

Geneva — More than 180 members of St. Anthony Society of St. Francis de Sales parish attended the Solemn High Mass in the church on Tuesday in honor of the 13th anniversary of the society.

Rev. John Reddington was celebrant of the Mass, Rev. Vincent Collins deacon and Rev. Gabriel Italia, sub-deacon.

The church altar was banked with white lilies and lighted with candles. A shrine of St. Anthony, patron saint of the organization, was erected in the sanctuary and decorated with lilies, palms and lighted tapers.

Mrs. Anita Kitcho was organist. Girls' choir under the direction of Sister George Vincent sang the mass. Patricia Innopollo sang a solo in honor of St. Anthony.

A BANQUET WAS served in the school dining room, where decorations were in brown and gold, the colors predominating in St. Anthony's robe. A shrine graced one of the windows. Flowers and lighted tapers were used on the tables.

Guest speaker was Rev. Father Italia, O.F.M. Cap of the Capuchin Seminary on Lochland Rd. He reviewed the life of St. Anthony.

Mrs. Dominick Pane president welcomed the guests.

Mrs. Laura Dicampli was toastmistress. Dinner music was provided by Rocco Iannopollo and Sam Palermo. Patricia Iannopollo sang the opening hymn in honor of St. Anthony.

Several selections were sung by Mrs. Lucy Prete, Mrs. Bertha Pittler and Mrs. Lena Passalacqua.

Charles Channave of Canandaigua played accordian selections and Don DeCampli entertained with Yo-Yo stunts.

Father Reddington and Father Collins complimented the society on its record.

A brief history of the society was presented by Miss Edith Chacchia. She also introduced the founders, Mrs. Adeline Borsa and Mrs. Angelo Marie Perry. A scrap book of past events, news clippings and pictures was exhibited.

Mrs. Mary Colella was general chairman. Decorating committee was Mrs. Alice Venuti, Mrs. Helena Crupi and Mrs. Carol Castellizzo. Dinner was served under supervision of Mrs. Lena Passalacqua.

Entertainment committee was Mrs. Ruth Iannopollo and Mrs. Angelina Constable.
