'Happy New Year From The Family'

A Happy New Year from Victor D. Palumbos' family is extended to His Excellency Bishop Kearney at the Episcopal Residence reception by small Alan Palumbos with his brother Vincent and Mrs. Susan Palumbos and their dad joining in. Mr. Palumbos is job press foreman of the Christopher Press, Courier Journal printers. The family resides at 614 Child Ave. in St. Augustine's Parish.

Largest Throng Greets Bishop For New Year

More than 1,500 Rochesterians, including many non-Catholics, called on His Excellency Bishop Kearney in the annual reception held Sunday, Dec. 31 at the Episcopal Residence, 947 East Ave. This was the largest number to call upon the Bishop in the traditional New Year's greetings exchange since inaugurated in 1938.

After greeting and being greeted by the Bishop, each person was given a Holy Card bearing on the reverse side this inscription:

"My dead Friend: I am deeply grateful for your visit on the Eve of the New Year. May God bless you and yours in 1951, and bring peace and happiness back to the nations of the world."
✠ James E. Kearney

Civic and county officials, family groups, individuals and Catholic lay organizations were in the constant stream of persons filing into the Bishop's home. Many visited the chapel on the second floor.

Heading the Monroe County Catholic War Veterans was their former County Chaplain, now Army Chaplain Raymond G. Heisel who has the rank of captain. Father Heisel was recalled to active duty on Nov. 10. He served as an Army chaplain from 1944-1946 and was stationed with the First Cavalry in Japan just prior to separation from the Army. He is now stationed at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Knights of Columbus in formal dress assisted the Bishop in welcoming the callers. Other groups calling in a body included the Knights and Ladies of Equity, the Holy Name Society, Hibernians, Knights of Ladies of St. John, Kolping Society, Central Verein, and others.

Fr. Marks To Lead Hotel Series On Catholic Faith

Open to all interested Catholics and non-Catholics, the Third Annual Catholic Information Series will open in Hotel Seneca on Monday, Jan. 22 and continue for a series of 24 classes.

This year, the Rev. Francis A. Marks and members of St. Andrew's Seminary will conduct the series. Starting at 8 p.m., the classes will consist of a 45-minute talk and an information discussion and question period following.

NO REGISTRATION is necessary, but regular attendance at the meetings held every Monday evening beginning Jan. 22 is expected.

The Catholic information course offering non-Catholic inquirers a complete series of instructions on the principles and practices of the Catholic faith was inaugurated in 1949 by the Rev Richard Tormey, then associate editor of the Courier Journal and now assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

The hotel location for the class was chosen to provide a central meeting place easily accessible by bus and to remove the embarassment and hesitation which non-Catholics have felt in a parish hall or rectory.

Thomas More Forum To Present Psychologist

Fifth lecture in the successful Thomas More Lenten Forum will be the Rev. Noel Mailloux, O.P., of Montreal, who will be heard on Tuesday evening, Jan. 9 at 8:15 p.m. in Hotel Sheraton Ballroom. The Forum is sponsored by the Catholic Courier Journal.

Individual tickets are $1.50, available at the door.

Fere Mailloux, director and founder of the Institutional Psychology and Professor of Experimental Psychology at the University of Montreal, the Forum will again present an outstanding and provocative thinker and speaker.

Dr. Mailloux's topic as announced by the Very Rev. Msgr. John S. Randall, executive director of the Forum is "Freedom, Man's Greatest Achievement." The discussion will treat of the values of psychiatry and psychology which invite heated debate, Monsignor Randall said.

MEN ARE quick to discard to discard psychiatry and psychology as "crackpot sciences." Others are in terror because of the false impressions arising out of the writings by Freud and his disciples. To this great controversy, Fere Mailloux will bring a fund of knowledge and experience from the world of psychiatry and psychology.

The lecturer will be presented by Louis A. Langie, Forum chairman.

Born in Napierville, Quebec, Fere Noel Mailloux, O.P. was ordained in Rome on June 11, 1937 after making his studies at L'Angelicum. He is a member of the council and director of the Canadian Psychological Association, the American Psychological Association, the American Association on Mental Deficiency and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He is chief editor of the "Revue de Psychologie," in Montreal and author of articles appearing constantly in Canadian and American publications of Psychiatry and Psychology.
