ANNUAL CYA MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN SUCCESSFUL

Conducting one of the most successful membership campaigns in Columbus Youth Association history, some 400 men and women workers amassed a total of 4,460 memberships for 178 percent of quota in October 1950.

The campaign in which persons of all creeds joined was directed by Daniel E. Macken as general chairman with Arthur J. Bamann as special citizens committee chairman.

At the drive's close, the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, Catholic Charities director, voiced appreciation to the leaders and workers. William T. Nolan, Catholic Charities executive secretary, was campaign manager for the 19th successive year.

The Columbus Youth Association is a Community Chest participating agency.
