THE SEA

I have a profound respect for the sea, as a moral teacher. No man can be touched about upon it without feeling his impotence and insignificance.—Charles B. Fitzhenry.

Basketball For Youngsters Sponsored By Glen Friends

By ROSEMARY MARCELLINO

Watkins Glen — The Small Fry basketball of St. Mary's of the Lake has been made possible by many friends of the youngsters and of the parish. Under the direction of Frank Chiacchierini, the boys have played on an even basis so far this season.

Practice sessions and games are played in the gym at St. John's Atonement Seminary. Transportation for games and practice is provided by parishioners.

The boys really make a snappy appearance in the new jackets that were given to them by the local business men.

Latest projects for the probationary Sodality of Our Lady includes visiting the shut ins every two weeks, collecting cancelled stamps to aid Missionaries and attendance at Mass and reception of Holy Communion on the First Friday, First Saturday and First Sunday of each month.

GIs Honored Mary Chaplain Recalls For Corning Unit

Corning — The Rev. Ralph Neagle, a Catholic chaplain at Bath Veterans Administration Hospital, was guest speaker at the first anniversary of the "First Saturday" luncheon at the Baron Steuben Hotel.

Describing his experiences as a chaplain during World War II, Father Neagle said that one of the most notable facts he observed was the devotion of the Catholic soldiers to the Blessed Mother. He said that this devotion was not limited only to the Catholic boys but was shared by those of other faiths. Father Neagle served at Fort Jackson S. C. and on Guadacanal and Okinawa.

FATHER NEAGLE, who was introduced by the Rev. Daniel Hogan, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, moderator of the Corning Deanery, asked the group to continue their invocations to Mary, Mother of God, for world peace.

Seated also at the speaker's table were Mrs. Edith Griffin president of the Deanery, Mrs. James Ward, grand regent of Court St Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, Mrs. Stanley Manning, president of the Painted Post Catholic Women's Club; Mrs. Norman C. Murray, deanery secretary and Mrs. John R. F. Osborne, luncheon chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Osborne with arrangements were Mrs. Murray of St Patricks Parish, Mrs. John Brady, St. Mary's Parish, Mrs. Ward, St. Vincent de Paul's Parish, and Miss Mary Hart general ticket chairman. Mrs. Madeline Lincoln was accompanist in group singing.

Need Of Patience Told To Club By Father Malley

Hornell — The need for Christian patience in the world today was discussed by the Rev. John D. Malley at a First Saturday luncheon in the Hotel Sherwood.

Father Malley, pastor of St. Mary's Church in Rexville and of St. Joachim's Church in Canisteo, was guest speaker at the luncheon sponsored by the Hornell District Diocesan Council of Catholic Women.

More than 80 women attended the luncheon, which was the fourth in this year's series held in honor of Our Lady of Fatima.

Speaking on the fourth mystery of the Rosary, the Presentation, Father Malley described the scene in the temple in Jerusalem.

MARY BROUGHT Christ to the temple 40 days after His birth, in compliance to Mosaic Law, the priest said. She and Joseph presented the Child to God in the presence of Simeon, an aged priest.

Simeon had, according to the revelation that he should not see death until he had seen the Redeemer, the priest continued. When he saw the [illegible] he uttered:

"Now thou dost dismiss thy servant, O Lord, according to thy word, in peace, because my eyes have seen thy salvation which thou hast prepared before the face of all peoples, a light to the revelation of the Gentiles and the glory of thy people Israel."

Charity Is A Lady -- How About You?

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

The question is directed to you, my dear Catholic Women, young and old and your answer means even more to you than it does to us. Yours is the decision, which will contribute much to your personal sanctification and might even determine the destiny of your immortal soul.

St. Vincent de Paul and his ardent co-worker, St. Louise de Marillac, who was one of the first Ladies of Charity are inviting you to consider a membership in the Ladies of Charity. This oldest lay organization in the world with a county-wide membership has a program, which includes every spiritual and temporal work of mercy.

THERE IS ROOM for you. In fact a special corner reserved for you and your talents but the doors are closed to the Joiners. Several evils made frightening progress during 1951 but none were more deadly in their effects upon Societies and Organizations than was the insidious, matter-of-fact way of Joining.

We in the Ladies of Charity are been blessed in the quality of our members. With few exceptions, the solemn promises of the Affiliation have been seriously made and conscientiously followed by those who received the little Silver Crucifix.

During the next few weeks a Membership Committee may approach you in regard to affiliating with this Organization. Of this [illegible] be certain your name [illegible] have been proposed [illegible] will have been approved by an Executive Committee before [illegible] on the opportunity to accept an invitation to affiliate.

MEMBERSHIP IN the Ladies of Charity does entail serious obligations and some hours of service. We could go into details in regard to the various projects but we prefer at this time to tell you a little about the spirit of the Association.

St. Vincent de Paul contrasted the true spirit of the Ladies of Charity in the first part of the rule governing the Confraternity. In the words of the Gospel he said "Come, ye blessed of My Father, possess ye the kingdom [illegible] prepared for you; for I was hungry and ye gave me to eat. I was thirsty and I was sick and ye visited me. As long as you did it to one of these my least brethren, you did it to me."

The characteristics of a follower of St. Vincent de Paul were clearly outlined by him. Faith is referred to as the impelling force of the work in behalf of the sick and poor. Faith enables the Lady of Charity to see in her neighbor a soul redeemed by Jesus Christ. It sanctifies and makes divine each external action toward one of those who are poor in spirit or in the material things of earth.

CHARITY WHICH is a child of faith, is in its fullness supernatural, disinterested, persevering and zealous. Charity, a virtue which is so much a part of a Lady, dedicated to that virtue that it controls her thoughts and words as well as her deeds.

Then this great social Worker and Saint asks of you Humility and Simplicity. Seeking God alone as the witness of her prayers and labors, she accepts disappointments and rebuffs. Her name Simplicity is evident in Our Lady of Charity, in her manner of dress, her respect for the one she serves and her unfailing goal to do her every act for the honor and glory of God.

Further perfecting His Divine maiden of Charity, St. Vincent points out the rare virtues of zeal, gentleness and patience. Under his loving guidance, the practice of them does not frighten the prospective Lady of Charity, but rather convinces her of the possibilities of attaining personal sanctification through them.

Prayer [illegible] by our Leader as a means of grace without which [illegible] is never within reach. [illegible] states [illegible] abandon [illegible]

Without Me [illegible] nothing.

IN ALL THIS dear Daughter, One you have in part the spirit of a Women's organization which has grown [illegible] in numbers and [illegible] ments. Elmira Catholic Highlights

By ALICE BANNON

The New Year is off with a bang. Elmira Catholic High students are back with the same old faces but with snappy new outfits. Looks like good old Saint Nick spent quite a busy evening in Elmira last Dec. 24.

Practice has been resumed for the senior play "Big Hearted Herbert." The cast is much in earnest, practicing every week night. We all hope the play, scheduled for next month, will be a huge success.

JANUARY WOULD be a perfect month if it weren't for exams. It seems these hungry men are scheduled to pop their ugly heads above surface much too soon in fact. The next week will be witness to many cramming sessions. Regents exams will also prove a headache for an unlucky few.

Rumor has it that a certain group of senior girls are busy constructing dresses. These busy beavers are to do a special number between the acts of the senior play. At last report good progress had been made.

The seniors are anxiously awaiting the arrival of their class rings which should have been in their Christmas stockings. Oh well, cheer up, they might be here for Easter.

The Catholic High "Cavaliers" played host to the Maroons of Cortland at St. Peter and Paul's gym Sunday, Jan. 6. Both J.V.'s and Varsity were on top, the J.V.'s 34-24 and Varsity 48-38. Their next game will be against St. Paul's of Binghamton.

Williamsport KC Meet Elmira Bowlers

Elmira Knights of Columbus bowlers will journey to Williamsport, Pa. on Sunday, Jan. 27 to engage their fellow Knights there in a return match to conclude this season's home and home series.

About 25 keglers will make the trip in a chartered bus, headed by Grand Knight Joseph H. Berrigan and Francis E. O'Brien, chairman of Inter Council activities.

Elmira has a lead of over 200 pins on their Billtown rivals and are favored to wind up victorious for the season.
