2500 Members, Goal Set By Rochester Circle, IFCA

Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic alumnae will open the annual membership drive with a meeting of all captains and workers Monday evening, March 31 at 8:00 in Parlor A at Columbus Civic Center.

The drive will terminate with a tea at the home of Mrs. Frank Eaton in Winton Road South on April 27.

A large scale membership drive is being inaugurated this year because of the State Federation Convention which is being held in Rochester this fall on October 4 and 5. "The Rochester Circle is greatly honored to be able to draw delegates from all over the state and wish as many as possible of the new and old members to participate in the convention activities. The drive has as its aim the canvassing of 2,500 alumnae in this immediate area," the committee spokesman said.

PRIMARY PURPOSE of I.F.C.A is to draw together groups of Catholic women for greater spiritual as well as cultural activity but a particular aim of each local Circle is to strengthen the ties of the various alumnae with their own individual alumna groups and at the same time share their common interests.

The Rochester group is attempting to unite alumnae in this vicinity as well as those who have moved to Rochester after attending schools from more distant sections of the country.

Mrs. William Fitzpatrick is general chairman of the membership drive and she is being assisted by two divisional chairmen, Mrs. Roy Burns and Mrs. Arthur B. Weston. There are 80 members who will canvass for membership under the direction of the following captains: Mesdames Donald Coffey, Peter Culross, Frank Eaton, John Fessenden, Donald Greenfield, Raymond Gugel, Bruce Gramke, Gordon Ide, Archie Mackey, Daniel Macken, John Mahoney, David Moore, Vincent O'Brien, Frank O'Halloran, Charles Renaud, William Ryan, George R. Williams, Theodore Zak, and Misses Rita Lerch and Emily Sconfietti.

MERCY HIGH alumnae leaders who will make their final report on Sunday, April 6, at the annual Communion Breakfast at the school are; (from left) Miss Shirley Engert, treasurer; Miss Jeanne Schneider, president, and Miss Kathryn Kress, recording secretary.

Bishop To Celebrate Mass For Mercy High Alumnae

Members of Our Lady of Mercy Alumnae Association will hold their annual Communion Breakfast at the school on Blossom Road following Mass to be celebrated by His Excellency Bishop Kearney at the Mercy Motherhouse at 8:45 a. m. on Palm Sunday.

With election and installation of three new officers, the business session at the breakfast will climax this year's activities for the Mercy graduates.

THE RETIRING officers, Misses Jeanne Schneider, Katherine Kress and Shirley Engert are vacating the offices of president, recording secretary and treasurer, respectively. As her last official act, Miss Schneider will formally accept the senior class of Mercy High School, 182 students, into the Association.

Miss Terese Knapp is chairman of the program, assisted by the Misses Ann and Mary Ellen McCarthy handling special arrangements; Miss Helen Murphy, membership invitations; Miss Merilyn Winfield, publicity, and the Misses Kathleen Zimmer and Betty Rock, guests invitations.

Registration will be taken that morning by the Misses Terry O'Brien, Genevieve Madden, Mary Weis, Nancy Ford, Joan Moore, Ruth Kennedy and Mrs. Marge Murphy Sullivan.

Police Youth Group Moves To New Site

The City Youth Bureau and Police Athletic League started operating from a new headquarters at 740 University Ave. (former Third Precinct station) on April 1.

Police Captain Henry H. Jensen, his police staff and others have worked for many months to move the youth set-up from the City Hall where it started on Sept. 10, 1947.

The first floor of the new center will provide office space for the police staff. The basement, second and third floors will provide a Youth Center for the P.A.L. members of the neighborhood. The old cell block in the rear of the building has been made into a modern boxing gym.

Mothers of Small Children Join In Dialogue Mass

Members of Our Lady's Circle of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral parish participated in a dialogue Mass on Saturday morning, Mar. 29, in the chapel at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality, 402 South Ave.

The Rev. Robert H. Flood, C. S. B., librarian of St. John Fisher College, celebrated the Mass. Prior to the Sacrifice Father Flood outlined the significance of each of the vestments of the Mass as he robed for the ceremony, and gave a brief sermon on the value of the Mass itself.

OUR LADY'S CIRCLE is a group of mothers of pre-school and early-school children which meets monthly to discuss parent-child relationships.

Any other groups desiring to attend a dialogue Mass are invited to contact Mrs. Arthur P. Farren at Glenwood 521-J.
