Mission Closing Set At St. Anthony's

Solemn closing of the Italian speaking Mission now being held in St. Anthony's Church, Elmira, will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. Michael Ristori, O.F.M.Cap., is conducting the Mission.

Marianites Send Courier To Servicemen Of Parish

The Marianites of Holy Family Church, Rochester have made plans to send the Catholic Courier Journal to every serviceman of the parish.

This has been done, leaders said, to increase the news coverage of the diocese as well as the parish.

In addition, the Marianites also publish a monthly parish paper which is sent to each serviceman. The paper is called, "The Marianiter." It contains parish news and happenings around the city as well as a sports page.

The paper was begun in March 1951 and has become popular with the servicemen. Benefit parish projects which the Marianites sponsor provide funds to run the paper.

Staff of "The Marianiter" is composed of Wilnda Spahh, editor assisted by Catherine Metzger, Edna Friday, Dorothy Uhl, Paul Kress, Don Carone, Anne Braun, Shirley Schaefer, Della Costello, and Joseph O'Neil. The spiritual advisor and moderator is the Rev. E. Charles Bauer, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church.

Duke Soph General Choice At St. Bona's

Jim Tucker, Duquesne University sophomore, was the only unanimous selection to the All-Opponent team announced today by St. Bonaventure University's varsity basketball squad.

Tucker was paired at the forwards with St. John's Bob "Zeke" Zawalok by the Bonnie squad. Big Don Meineke of Dayton won the center berth, while Nick Kladis of Loyola (Chicago) and Sonny Allen of Sampson Air Base gained the guard berths on the first team.

Second team choices were Dick Ricketts of Duquesne at center, Garrett Beshear of Murray State and Jim Holstein of Cincinnati at forwards, and St. John's Jack McMahon and Gene Rhodes of Western Kentucky at the guards.

St. Bonaventure teammates of forward Bill Kenville voted the 6-2 Long Island junior the Bonnies' "most valuable player." Kenville led the squad in rebounds with 309 and was second in scoring with 316 points.

Lack Of Loyalty In High Places Said By Priest Due "Vision of Man Without God"

Auburn—"The Vision of Man Without God" was the subject of a talk given by the Rev. Kieran J. Hickey, O.Carm., at the April meeting of the Catholic Action League of St. Alphonsus Church. The meeting, held in the school hall, was well attended by members and guests of the society.

Mrs. Louise W. Merna, president, conducted a short business meeting at which plans were made for various group projects. Mrs. Harold Hopper and Mrs. Thomas P. Tierney were designated as chairman and co-chairman of a bake sale to be held for the benefit of the new school.

Mrs. Tierney was in charge of the April meeting and was assisted by the following: the Misses Pauline and Ottilia Mantel, Marie Meehan, Mary Monahan, Katherine Murphy, Helen Muldoon and Agnes Nolan and the Mesdames William Maroney, Archie Morris and Robert Nelson.

MODERATOR OF the group, the Rev. Robert Meng, spoke briefly and led the group in the closing prayer.

Father Hickey said in part:

"The fundamental problem of our times," he said, "is the conflict between historic American liberty which is founded on belief in a personal, living God and a modern pseudo - liberalism which is striving to impose a state-religion of atheism upon American institutions."

"Atheistic liberalism," he continued, "teaches that God as a personal Supreme Reality does not exist. There is no enduring morality of fixed, objective principles. Morals are purely social and are determined by majority rule. Because therefore, the majority is always right, the majority itself is God and majority rule the sole religion.

"THIS VISION of man without God, Whittaker Chambers points out, is the essence of Communism. It is also, I may add, the commonly accepted philosophy taught in our secular colleges and universities for the past 40 years. And when once this is realized we have the explanation of many of the 'strange phenomena' in contemporary American life which bewilder the average American.

"Why, for example, for the first time in our history is the loyalty of high government officials, professors, editorial writers and certain clergymen a national problem?

"Precisely because these are the 'educated' classes whose 'education' has been confined to the 'New Learning'—The Vision of Man without God. This philosophy of life, which is all they have ever been taught, is identical with that of the Communist Manifesto. The historic values of America and Christianity are, for them, outmoded and reactionary. It is these values therefore, which they are currently engaged in destroying. They are not, perhaps, card-carrying Communists, but they share the atheistic vision of Communism. They are, as Chambers says, part of the secret strength of Communism.

AND NOW YOU understand why the whole motley crew that lined up our country behind the atheistic tyranny of Soviet Communism is canonized into martyrs and heroes by certain editorial writers while honest converts from Marx to God, serving their country by exposing the Soviets working to destroy it, are hated and ridiculed as 'informers.'

"'There is more joy in heaven,' said Our Lord, 'upon one sinner doing penance.' To the atheistic liberal this, of course, means nothing. For him, God is nothing but a neat abstraction. There are no such things as 'conversion,' 'heaven' and 'The Ten Commandments.' And so, he displays the emptiness of his own soul by crying 'informer.'

"We believe that a person who associates with crooks, racketeers, drunkards or gamblers is unfit to teach our children. Why then should Americans who believe in God and America be required to hand over our children to atheistic Communist teachers in our schools?"

Ousted By Reds

Among the group of 50 Catholic missionaries ousted from Red China within a ten-day period were these priests of the Paris Foreign Mission Society, pictured in Hong Kong. Seated (with cane) is Rev. Francis Gore, who spent 45 years in the Tibetan mission fields. Ousted by the Reds, he walked for six days to the nearest train station, followed by 100 of his parishioners.

Walter J. Rogers Final Rites Held

Funeral services for Walter J. Rogers, brother of the Rev. Harold F. Rogers, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church, Corning, were held at the Boyce Funeral Home, 853 Culver Road, and at St. Ambrose Church, Wednesday, April 2.

Mr. Rogers, of 172 Harwick Road, died March 29, 1952.

Solemn Mass of Requiem in St. Ambrose Church was celebrated by his brother, Father Rogers, formerly of St. Monica's Church, Rochester, assisted by the Rev. John A. Reddington, deacon, and the Rev. Roy F. Hagerty, subdeacon.

In the Sanctuary also were the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, and the Reverend Fathers Frank W. Mason, Francis M. Feeney, John Tressy, James C. Lane, John E. McCafferty, James D. Cuffney, Michael Tydings, Louis Hohman, Leo McMannus, Roy B. Morphy, Francis E. Hester, John J. Burke, Patrick J. Grace, and Michael P. O'Brien.

At the interment in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Father Rogers imparted the final blessing, assisted by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, P.A., V.G.

Bearers were Emmett Doyle, James Erickson, Lawrence Miller, Thomas Street, Edward Meier and Stephen Ennis.

Mr. Rogers is survived by his wife, Maribel I. Rogers; a son, W. John Rogers, Jr.; his brother, Father Rogers; several aunts, uncles and nieces.

Edwards Chosen For WVET Baseball Talks

Ervin F. Lyke, President and General Manager of Radio Station WVET, has announced that the new play-by-play sportscaster for the Rochester Red Wing baseball games will be Ed Edwards, WVET Sports Director.

Edwards was chosen by Bing Devine, manager of the Red Wings, top Cardinal chain officials and the Rochester Brewing Co.

Edwards is 28 years old and a native of Rochester, although he has spent a number of years away from that city since graduation from school. Before joining WVET he did sports broadcasts for stations and networks in Connecticut and Pennsylvania.
