Immaculate Parish Opens 'Day Camp' Registration

Because of the scarcity of playgrounds and supervised play areas in the Immaculate parish, efforts are being made to give the children a wholesome vacation. The Church this season is inaugurating the "Immaculate Day Camp." This special activity will be for girls and boys ranging in age from seven years to twelve years inclusive.

Headquarters will be the Immaculate school hall, and the City and its surrounding areas will be the camping grounds.

The Camp will be for a six weeks period, starting on Monday, July 6, and will continue until Friday, August 14. Each week will contain a five-day program from Monday through Friday, starting at 9:30 in the morning and continuing until 4 in the afternoon.

A STAFF OF experienced and qualified personnel has been engaged for this new program. They have all had at least three years of experience in the Day Camp program.

The Day Camp will be in charge of John F. Wood, a graduate of Brockport State Teachers College, and the University School of the U. of R. At the present time he is on the staff of the Britton Road School, teaching the Sixth grade. Mrs. Mary Palmer, a mother of two children, will be the assistant director. Several other young men and women will complete the staff.

On the camping days the children will assemble in the Immaculate school and then they will depart for various activities, such as swimming, sports, hiking, tours of industrial plants and places of interest, treasure hunts, cook outs.

On long journeys the children will travel by bus. All children take part in craft work and hobby activity. On rainy days, the children will carry on their program in the school auditorium.

SINCE THE DAY CAMP will not be subsidized by any agency or commission, it will be necessary to have a weekly rate of five dollars a child, and also a registration fee of four dollars. These fees will take care of the special shirt that each child will wear, identifying him with the Immaculate Day Camp, also the bus transportation, daily supply of milk, all craft materials and equipment, a duffle bag and the necessary insurance covering each child.

The days for registering have been set as Monday, May 4, and Tuesday, May 5, from 8 to 9:30 p.m. in the Immaculate School hall. A parent or guardian must accompany the child on the evening of registration. Any parent interested in registering a child may contact the Camp Director —GEnesee 8356-M.

Dances Slated For Avon Youth

Avon—Newly organized by the Rev. Edward A. Shamon, assistant pastor, the St. Agnes Youth Club will hold a "Disc Dance" on Saturday, May 1 and a program of round and square dancing on Friday, May 8 in the parish hall.

Affairs sponsored by the Youth club have been highly successful and are all under the direct supervision of Father Shamon, club moderator. The club is made up of all highschoolers in the parish.

Newly elected as president is Miss Polly Collins, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Collins.

The club stages dances and social events for teenagers of Avon in an effort to make the school auditorium a social center for young people.

The "Disc Dance" on Saturday from 9 to 12 will cost $.25 per person. The hall has been especially decorated.

Jerry LeVeque and his orchestra will come from Rochester for the Friday, May 8 dance from 8:30 to 12:00.

St. Elizabeth Guild Meets

Members of St. Elizabeth Guild will meet Tuesday, May 5 in Columbus Civic Center at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Roy Leary, president will preside.

Nurses Fete Mothers And Daughters

Geneva Nurses Hear Fr. Anable At First Banquet

Geneva—"Love of Mary for us is as real as God's love for us," the Rev. Raymond J. Anable, S.J., director of Christ the King Retreat House, Syracuse, told the Geneva unit Catholic Nurses.

"Christ dying on the Cross asked Mary to be our Mother," he said.

Father Anable was guest speaker at the first annual mothers and daughters banquet of the unit Thursday in Legion Home. Eighty members and guests attended.

"The concern of Mary Immaculate today is a crusade of prayer, and especially in our every-day life, he continued. God gave us Mary as our Mother at Calvary, and Mary asks us as her children to carry on a living crusade of prayer and preparation, Father Anable advised.

"Every Rosary said from the heart by Mary's sons and daughters can save the world today," he declared. "Lift your eyes. Keep your eyes on Mary Immaculate. Behold your mother."

MISS ALICE WARREN, president of the unit, greeted the members and guests. She read a letter from His Excellency Bishop Kearney, expressing regret at his inability to attend because of a previous committment.

A telegram of greeting from Robert Johnson, Geneva General Hospital administrator, was also read.

Mrs. Edmund Linehan was toastmistress. Three special guests were recognized during the program and were presented corsages. They were Mrs. Thomas Quigley, who was described as the "foster mother" of the Geneva unit. It was at a tea in her home in 1943 that the group was organized.

Second guest was Mrs. Frank Johnson, R.N., mother of two daughters, who are nurses. They are Mrs. Thomas Tolan and Miss Mary Johnson.

Third guest to be introduced was Mrs. John Meiser, Rochester, mother of two daughters who are nurses, Mrs. Edmund Linehan and Mrs. Robert Linehan.

Miss Elizabeth Kane, grand regent of Court Geneva, Catholic Daughters of America, was a guest as was Miss Nora McInerney, a senior student nurse at Keuka College.

Miss Mary Ann Handlan was featured soloist. She sang, "The Chicken Song" and "Donegal".

The Very Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales parish, expressed his congratulations to the Catholic nurses and their mothers. The Rev. John V. Loughlin, new moderator, also extended greetings.

Miss Marion S. Whelan, supervisor of the Geneva Visiting Nursing Service, was chairman of arrangements.

Buffalo Degree To Honor 10 Area Knights Of Equity

Several members of Rochester Court 10 of the Knights of Equity have been honored by an invitation to join the third degree Hall of Kincora. These candidates, selected after rigid requirements are met, are invited to Buffalo where the third degree will be exemplified.

The Rochester delegation will unite with Buffalo in this event, the first class in 40 years. Heretofore, it has been a secret initiation given in private, and membership was secret so that very few knew who else was in the Third Degree.

Rochester's former Supreme Sir Knight Michael T. Ryan successfully fought to open up the third degree to greater membership, and eliminated some of the secrecy of this degree, thus making possible a class to participate in degree rites, one of the most beautiful of any order of Catholic men of Irish extraction, leaders said.

THE LOCAL court 10 members invited to attend are: William Scahill, lecturer; Joseph McMahan, past Sir Knight of Court 10; Flere O'Connell, trustee and a past Sir Knight; Denis O'Rielly, past treasurer; Art Hart, trustee; William Marrissey, treasurer; John Cleary, Lawrence Reilly, Ed Mulrony, long active members.

The ceremonies will be held in Buffalo, Sunday May 3, at 1:00. Prior to this the candidates will meet to receive communion. In the evening a dinner will be held at the Elks Club to which the wives of the candidates are invited.

Holy Rosary CWV Units Breakfast Set

Plans have been completed for the 4th Annual Mass and Communion Breakfast of Holy Rosary Memorial Post No. 842—Catholic War Veterans—and Ladies Auxiliary—to be held on Sunday May 3, 1953.

Members and friends of the Post and Auxiliary will attend the 8 a.m. Mass at Holy Rosary Church and receive Holy Communion in a body.

A breakfast will follow in the school hall served by Marlowe & Shafer.
