Mass, Reception To Mark ND Nun's Golden Jubilee

Sister M. Georgiana of the School Sisters of Notre Dame who has taught in four Rochester schools will celebrate her Golden Jubilee in the community at High Mass in the Sisters' private Chapel with the Sisters of St. Boniface Convent on Saturday, May 9.

The altar will be adorned with 50 golden roses, a gift from her sister.

DURING THE afternoon and evening, her friends and former pupils may call at St. Boniface Convent, 314 Gregory St to extend felicitations to the Jubilarian.

Sister Georgiana is a Rochester native and is the daughter of the late George and Anna Noeth and sister of the late George Noeth, prominent civic and Knights of St. John leader. She has one sister, Mrs. Anna Haus residing at 267 Oxford St. All were life-long members of St. Joseph's Church, Rochester.

In 1888, Sister received her bonnet at St. Joseph's Convent Chapel and then went to Baltimore, Md., for her beginning in the School Sisters of Notre Dame order.

SHE TAUGHT successfully many years in New York City and Buffalo. In Rochester, as superior, she also taught at St. Peter and Paul's School, Holy Family School and Holy Redeemer School and now is teaching at St. Boniface School.

Friends, relatives and former pupils will extend their felicitations either in person or in spirit on May 9, a spokesman for them said.

J. P. MacSweeney Rites Conducted At St. Monica's

Funeral services for Joseph P. MacSweeney, outstanding in his Catholic lay activity as well as in civic and business affairs, were held from the home 88 Melrose St. and at St. Monica's Church on Wednesday, May 6.

Mr. MacSweeney, retired Rochester Gas and Electric Corporation executive, died at the age of 83 on May 2, 1953 after a brief illness.

Solemn Mass of Requiem in St. Monica's Church was offered by the Very Rev. Msgr. Gerald C. Lambert, pastor assisted by the Rev. John J. Tressy, Deacon and the Rev. Michael P. O'Brien, Subdeacon. Also in the Sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas F. Connors, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Duffy, the Rev. George V. Predmore, the Rev. Louis J. Hohman and also the Rev. Bernard A. Drew of Rapids City, S. D.

A member of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus for many years, Mr. MacSweeney had also been active in the Order of the Alhambra and in Musa Caravan's beginning directed the raising of $85,000 for degree paraphernalia. He later rose to be Vice Supreme Commander of the order.

Ever alert to any issue inimical to the church, Mr. MacSweeney kept the Catholic press informed and was always available for consultation.

BORN ON Feb. 25, 1870 in Deptford, England, he attended a parochial school there and came to Rochester at the age of 19. Starting as a meter painter in 1889 with the Rochester Electric Light Company he, by his extraordinary ability, advanced to advertising manager and public relations consultant.

In civic affairs he was a zealous exponent of the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County which he helped to found 30 years before his elevation as its president in 1941.

The Legal Aid Society of which he had served as president since 1931 received a great amount of his counsel and guidance.

He is survived by two sons, Donald J. and Edgar J. MacSweeney; two daughters, Mrs. James L. McGovern and Mrs. John G. Goetz; a sister, Mrs. Mary Thompson; a brother, Leo A. MacSweeney and three grandchildren.

PARTY TO BENEFIT CAMP

COMMITTEE MEMBERS arranging for Benefit Card Party for Camp Stella Maris, Wednesday, May 13 at 8:15 p.m. in Columbus Civic Center auditorium are: standing, Mrs. John A. Brasley of card committee; seated, Patricia Parshall, and Dorothy Lambert, Camp secretary, handling tickets.

Camp Stella Maris Card Party To Aid In Building

Annual Benefit Card Party for Camp Stella Maris will be held on Wednesday evening, May 13, at 6:15 p.m. in the auditorium of Columbus Civic Center. Mrs. Ronald McDonald is general chairman.

This year, proceeds from the card party will aid in the construction of a building to house showers and washing facilities at the Camp. Mrs. McDonald also reports that these Parties in past years have enabled Camp Officials to build three new cabins as well as to make other improvements.

Aiding Mrs. McDonald will be the following committees:

Card Committee: Mesdames Eleanor Russer, Bertha Lingl, Orria Miller, Henry Kohlmeier, Fred Schaefer, Marian Brasley, William Mulcahy, Elwood Fischer, Jerry Moynihan, J. G. Duffy, Mark Touhey, Nan Chatterton, James Keenan, Daniel Sprissler and Frances Baker.

Mesdames Alice Carroll, Austin Eagan, Raymond Watson, Frank Hempel, Mary Switzer, John Curran, Leo Minton, Karl Ebert, Howard Meath, and the Misses Mary Coggins, Irene Kinnerney, and Emma Kraus.

Door Committee: Miss Helen Costello and William T. Nolan.

Ticket Committee: Miss Dorothy Lambert, Miss Eileen Miller, Miss Patricia Parshall.

Special Arrangements: Harold Badore; Publicity: Mrs. Beatrice Bickford.

Notre Dame Retreat House, 246 Alexander St., will be the mecca of all local Dominican Tertiaries at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 10.

The Very Rev. Albert Drexelius, O.P., of Buffalo, and Director of the local Chapter of the Third Order, will come to lead the prayers directed to be said at meetings, explain the Rule, lead the Rosary and give a sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

TERTIARIES certainly should have food for meditation to make their prayer fruitful," Fr. Wendell said in the Torch for May. "Among the books that reveal not only Mary's glories but give practical examples for our imitation we should certainly call attention to the excellent work of our Saintly priest-Tertiary, St. Louis Marie de Montfort: True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary; this is also summarized in the smaller work: The Secret of Mary, by the same author.

"Besides these a wealth of material is compiled in The Mary Book. Lay people always appreciate Caryll Houselander's popular little book The Reed of God. Of course the Rosary with its Mysteries always is rich in thoughts for meditation for us, and is perhaps better than any book, if prayed thoughtfully."

State KC Meeting To Hear 95,000 Members Report

The 69th annual New York State convention of the Knights of Columbus wil be held in Syracuse on Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23, with delegations from all parts of the Empire State jurisdiction in attendance. Thomas I. Fitzgerald of New York, State Deputy, will preside.

At last year's State Meeting in Saratoga Springs 94,611 members were reported in the area. To date, according to unofficial figures, there are more than 95,000 on the rolls of the various subordinate councils.

ALTHOUGH NO formal membership campaign has been in operation, local membership chairmen have sought this year to "Beat Quebec" in new additions, reinstatements and renewals under the leadership of State Membership Chairman Frank X. Smith. With a reported 10,000 memberships this year, New York State is less than 1,000 behind the Canadian jurisdiction at this time.

Convention details are in charge of Lyle C. Schopfer, grand knight of Syracuse Council No. 191, and Francis J. Maloney, general convention chairman.

A. Arthur Acerno of 83-02 Cornish Ave., Elmhurst, L. I., reports that special trains will leave Grand Central Station in New York at 4 p.m. daylight time on May 21, arriving at the convention city at 9:19 p.m.

The convention hotel in Syracuse will be the Hotel Syracuse.

Mass To Open Chest Campaign

he was a consultant of the University of Ottawa Guidance Center and made post graduate studies in Clinical Psychology at Ottawa Institute of Psychology.

The Community Chest Mass comes "appropriately on Mother's Day," Father Ratigan said. "The Chest sponsors agencies to strengthen family life and ease the worries and cares of mothers of families as well as helps build a strong youth and watches over the aged."

Chest officials will be headed by Richard P. Miller, campaign manager, General Campaign chairman George L. Todd and his aides were invited.

The Chest campaign this year is seeking the largest goal since 1918. Local and national agencies will participate in the proceeds including the USO and the Cancer Society.

Catholic agencies to be aided by the success of the campaign are: Catholic Family Center, St. Ann's Home for the Aged, St. Elizabeth's Guild Hoise, St. Joseph's Villa Charles Settlement House, Columbus Youth Association in Rochester and in East Rochester and Genesee Settlement House.
