Opening Of Camp Madonna Set Monday For 50 Girls

Camp Madonna, a long-established camp for girls, maintained under the supervision of the Catholic Women's Club and occupying 7½ acres of land with 700 feet of waterfront on Canandaigua Lake's west shore, will open Sunday, July 5.

Campers will be housed in a large, comfortable home, surrounded by a wide expanse of ground and trees. Play space is laid out for tennis, baseball, croquet, volley ball and other popular land sports. Runways enclose the swimming area divided for the teaching of beginners and intermediate students.

A float in deeper water is used for instructing the advanced swimmers and for learning to dive. Boating safety and proper use of a row boat or canoe are also part of the waterfront program. Handcraft, sketching, music and dramatics, hiking, campfires and outdoor cooking are offered besides land and water sports.

IN ADDITION to the formal program, those in charge believe that the most vaulable asset of a camping experience is the opportunity to know and live in harmony with other children and the enjoyment of making new friends.

Each year of the camp's existence has seen the addition of new programs, equipment, and the continued improvement of the camp buildings have been painted.

The Rev. John J. Leary, is Camp Madonna chaplain. Each Sunday, Mass is celebrated in an outdoor setting for both campers and lake visitors.

With Miss Josephine Chase of Boston, Sargent School graduate, again as director, a carefully selected staff of counselors of training and experience will be in charge.

HEAD COUNCELORS will be Miss Ellen Patricia Herron of Auburn, graduate of Trinity College and graduate student of Catholic University of America at Washington.

Others in charge of various camp activities will be: Jane Donnelly, West High School; Kay Griffin, Nazareth College; Sheila Hogan, University of Toronto; Rose Marie Kehm, Cornell University; Mary Catherine O'Donnell, Mercyhurst; Mary Elizabeth Statt, Trinity College graduate; Betty Ann Warrent, Barret College; Margaret Thornton, graduate of Nazareth College in Nursing, in charge of health; Mrs. Bertha Masterman in charge of camp food.

FIFTY GIRLS from 8 to 14 years of age occupy the camp for three two-week periods, making camp experience available to 150 children.

First period campers from July 5 to 19 include: Bethesda, Md. — Joan Grimberg and Betty Milano; Batavia — Mary Ann and Susan Donahue, Judith Henderson, Harriet Kidder and Ann Weiss; Buffalo — Judith Hopkins and Mary Schank; Bergenville — Catherine Doherty; Elmira — Katherine and Susan Miller; Honeoye Falls — Louise Munson; Kenmore — Mary Burns, Patricia Flynn and Sally Schweigler; Sayville — Ann Pota.

REV. JOHN J. LEARY

Msgr. Sullivan Home From Rome

is it of interest in the Rochester diocese.

Taking a leading role in preparations for the event which will bring His Eminence Cardinal Mooney, fourth Bishop of Rochester, to Rome is the Very Rev. Msgr. Richard K. Burns, vice rector of the College and a priest of the Diocese of Rochester.

So pressed is Monsignor Burns with his duties that he has had to forego a return home this summer. The new building is the first to be built by the North American College and its dedication will be of such moment that Monsignor Burns will be called upon for some time to devote his energies to the preparations.

Monsignor Sullivan said to tell friends of the following studying in Rome that they are well: the Rev. George Cocuzzi, who is taking post-graduate work at Gregorian University; and students David Murphy of Auburn, Joseph J. Brennan of Sacred Heart Cathedral parish and William Cosgrove of Hornell, all at the North American College. The Rev. Eugene Malley, C.S.B. a native of Rochester is studying at the Canadian College in Rome.

WITH ERECTION of the new building, the old one will be used as a residence for priests doing post graduate study. In the past these priests, such as Father Cocuzzi have had to get residence wherever it was available.

Father Sullivan was raised to the dignity of a Papal Chamberlain with the title of Very Reverend Monsignor by His Holiness Pope Pius XII in January, of this year.

After calls on Bishop Kearney and Auxiliary Bishop Casey who is rector of the church with which he was formerly affiliated, Monsignor Sullivan will go to the NCWC News Service headquarters in Washington to make a report.

Form Bamann Insurance Firm

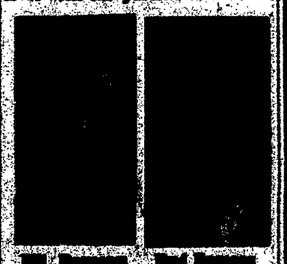
Art Bamann, well-known insurance man in Rochester for the past twenty-eight years, has taken his two sons, Arthur J. Jr. "Bud" and William F. "Bill" into business with him, forming a new corporation to be known as Art Bamann & Sons, Inc., effective July 1.

Art Bamann is president and treasurer of the new organization; Bud is vice president; and Bill is secretary. Both sons are graduates of Aetna Casualty and Surety School at Hartford, Conn.

Art Bamann

Bud and Bill Bamann are former Aquinas students, attended Assumption College at Windor, Onario, and both are active in the Assumption Club of Rochester, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and St. Margaret Mary's Men's Club.

Bud, who served in the U.S. Navy, is married and with his wife and three children lives at 98 Calalpa Road. Bill, who served for two years in the U.S. Army, lives with his parents at 2647 St. Paul Blvd. He is also a member of St. Paul Volunteer Firemen's Association.



Bill Bamann Bud Bamann

The Bamann Agency, with offices at 1230 Sibley Tower Bldg., is equipped to handle everything in the insurance line, including Automobile, Fire, Compensation, Accident & Health, and Life. They are members of the Underwriters Board of Rochester and the New York State Association of Insurance Agents.
