Opportunity Given All To Contribute In Holy Childhood School Fund Campaign

To give workers time to contact all prospects and all persons an opportunity to donate, the final report meeting in the School of the Holy Childhood fund-raising campaign will be held next Tuesday, at 8 p.m. at the school.

M. MOLL

Making it convenient for any persons who have not contributed but who desire to aid this school for slow-learning children operated under the direction of its foundress, Sister St. Mark of the Sisters of St. Joseph, a pledge card is printed with this article.

THE CAMPAIGN is for $10,000 to supply funds for the self-supporting school which is not assisted by any outside groups.

At the first report meeting a week ago, a total of $3,009 was reported by the campaigners. Since then work has been curtailed by the severe snowstorm which hit Rochester on Monday.

Paul D. Moonan is campaign chairman, assisted by John F. Skivington head the men's division and Mrs. Donald E. McConville, women's division.

Directing the campaign is Martin Q. Moll as campaign manager.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles J. Mahoney, superintendent Catholic Schools, Diocese of Rochester and Children's Court Judge Thomas J. Meagher, president of the school's advisory council are lending their efforts to make the campaign a success.

THE PROJECT has the approval of His Excellency Bishop Kearney who has said that "providing these boys and girls with the special instruction they need under the benign influence of the Sisters with all the consolations of our holy faith is a work that must appeal to the generosity of all of us."

Since 1946 when the school was established by Sister St. Mark at Immaculate Conception School and later transferred to the former Our Lady of Victory School, there have been 50 graduates.

Because of the special program of the school, facilities are urgently needed which the campaign funds can provide, Chairman Moonan said today.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery where the final blessing was given by the Rev. S. B. Krolak.

Bank Elects Malone Assistant Secretary

Election of Edward H. Malone as an Assistant Secretary of Lincoln Rochester Trust Company by the Board of Directors was announced today by John W. Remington, president.

Malone, who is an Investment Analyst in the Investment Department of the bank, is a graduate of Columbia University and received his Master's Degree from New York University.

Before joining Lincoln Rochester, Malone served as a Credit and Investment Analyst and Bank Examiner for the Federal Reserve Bank. He is active in the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Community Chest. In World War II he served in the Air Transport Command. He and his wife reside at 26 Continental Drive.

Fifth Nocturnal Center To Open At St. Jerome's

Another Nocturnal Adoration Center to comprise three parishes adjoining the city of Rochester will be organized Sunday, April 4 when men of St. Joseph's Church, East Rochester; St. Joseph's, Penfield and Assumption of the BVM, Fairport, gather at the East Rochester church at 3 p.m.

The new assembling place for men to make an hour of nocturnal adoration before the Blessed Sacrament exposed will be known as the St. Jerome Nocturnal Center.

Pastors of the other two churches participating are: the Rev. James T. Wood, Assumption Church, Fairport, and the Rev. Jacob R. Rauber, St. Joseph's, Penfield.

A SPECIAL ceremony to be conducted by the Rev. Lionel Vashon, SSS., from the Blessed Sacrament Fathers headquarters in New York of the Nocturnal Adoration Society will take place in St. Jerome's at 3 p.m. Father Vashon will speak at all the Masses in the East Rochester Church, Sunday morning.

Members of the Society will keep their first vigil on Holy Thursday night, according to plans and the last Saturday in April will see the beginning of the monthly vigils.

The Society which is 25 years old in the Diocese of Rochester and operates in four centers, Cathedral, St. Andrew's, Blessed Sacrament and St. Monica's in Rochester besides other places in the diocese, calls Catholic men to adoration for one hour periods from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. during the appointed night.

PURPOSE OF the Society is to satisfy the obligation to adore God, to offer reparation for man's failure to recognize the Real Presence and for coldness and indifference to Divine truth, also reparation for contempt, insult and sacrilege toward the Blessed Sacrament and especially for sins committed during the night.

Men in charge of registering for the new Center are: Gordon Vogt, St. Jerome's Parish; Eugene Mueller, St. Joseph's, Penfield, and William Rich, Assumption Church, Fairport.

Men desiring to join should call these men before Sunday, Father Morphy said.
