Geneva KC Auxiliary Slates Breakfast, Aid For Austria

Geneva—Knights of Columbus Auxiliary will hold a Communion breakfast Sunday, May 30. Plans for the event were discussed at a meeting of the Auxiliary following a tureen supper in the K. of C. Home.

Mrs. Eugene Marshall, president, presided at the meeting. Mrs. Charles Hamill and Mrs. Frank Caravita were co-chairmen.

Mrs. Frank Kelly represented the Auxiliary at a recent meeting in Geneva General Hospital on the subject of the Hospital Day program. She made a detailed report after which it was voted to cooperate in the special program.

VOLUNTEERS FOR the project are: Mrs. Dorothy Sarrett, Mrs. Mary Dailor, Mrs. Joan McGuigan, Mrs. Hilda Taney, Mrs. Doris Cowan, Mrs. Catherine Hamill, Mrs. James Nallos, Mrs. Eugene Marshall and Mrs. Richard Welch.

Volunteers in the current Chest x-ray program are Miss Mary Gallagher, Miss Marie Kelly and Miss Eleanor McGuigan.

Annual Communion breakfast of the Auxiliary will be held Sunday, May 30. Members will attend the Mass at 7 a.m., in St. Stephen's Church. Breakfast will be served in Hotel Seneca.

The breakfast committee includes Mrs. Sue Malone, chairman; and Mrs. Russell LaRocca, tickets; Miss Mary Gallagher, toastmistress; and Miss Catherine Hawkins, decorations.

Plans are being made to send packaged food to Austria. Members will bring their contributions to the next meeting May 17, in K. of C. Home.

The food packages will be sent first to St. Boniface Society in New York. From there they will be shipped out to priests in needy areas of Austria.

Mr. Russell LaRocca and Kenneth Matthews are chairmen of this project.

College Editors To Attend Meet

Lee Kesselring and John Pietropaoli, juniors, St. John Fisher College, will officially represent the college at the annual meeting of the Empire State Intercollegiate Publications Association, on April 30 and May 1 in Potsdam.

Staff members of student newspapers and yearbooks from colleges throughout New York State will participate. The Pi Delta Epsilon chapter at Clarkson College of Technology will be host.

Principal speaker at the conference will be Paul Miller, executive vice president of Gannett Co., Inc. and president of the New York State Publishers Association.

Miller will speak at the banquet on Saturday night, May 1. Guests at the banquet will include educators and editors from both sides of the North Country border who will be attending an international open house sponsored by Clarkson Tech.

Kesselring is editor-in-chief of the Pioneer, student newspaper at St. John Fisher College. John Pietropaoli is editor-in-chief of the first college yearbook which will be published in spring of 1955.
