Father Kraft Named To Staff At San Diego U.

The Rev. William A. Kraft, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kraft, 331 Genesee St., Rochester, has been named to the staff of the newly founded Men's College of the University of San Diego by Bishop Charles F. Buddy, of San Diego.

Father Kraft, an alumnus of St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries, will lecture in religion when the new college opens its doors for the first time in September.

The Men's College is the second unit to be completed of the University of San Diego. The Women's College is under the direction of the Religious of the Sacred Heart.

A SCHOOL OF Law has also been established at the new university. Heading the list of the new men's college is the Bishop of San Diego who will be an instructor in the Philosophy of Religion.

Father Kraft was ordained in San Diego on June 1, 1951, having studied for that diocese while at St. Bernard's Seminary. He received his bacalaureate degree from Saint Bernard's in 1946.

Father Kraft also attended Nazareth Hall Academy and Aquinas Institute. He is Director of Newman Clubs for the San Diego Diocese and teaches religion at the Newman Club of San Diego State College. Father Kraft's parents reside in Our Lady of Good Counsel parish, Rochester.

Italian Priest Visits Corning Kin

VISITING HIS AUNT, Mrs. Carl Bonomo of 293 Sly Ave., in Corning is the Rev. Anthony Bonomo of Rome, Italy, in Corning over the weekend. Father Bonomo is making his first trip to the United States. He is assigned to St. Ann's Church at 110th St., New York City.

Priest From Italy To Work Among N. Y. Immigrants

Corning — Within a few days the Rev. Anthony Bonomo of Rome, Italy, will report to his newest assignment to St. Ann's Church at 110th St., New York City, to work among Italian immigrants in that parish.

The church assignment is the first for Father Bonomo since his arrival in the United States for the first time last March. He spent last weekend in Corning with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonomo of 293 Sly Ave.

NEITHER Mr. Bonomo nor his wife, Carmella, had ever seen their nephew before. The Corningite came to the United States 47 years ago—some 10 years before Father Bonomo was born—and Mrs. Bonomo is a native of this country. This is Father Bonomo's first visit to the United States although he has spent considerable time in Central America.

His assignments in countries outside Italy have also taken him to London, England, where he worked among the 40,000 Italian immigrants there and received Italian government's Star of Italian Solidarity award.

He holds a Doctor of Sacred Theology degree and is of the order of Pallotine Fathers. He was ordained in 1939.

Head Of Benedictines To Visit Monastery

Most Reverend Bernard Kaelin, Abbot Primate of the Benedictines, from Rome, will arrive in Elmira on Monday, Sept. 6 and remain, according to present plans, through Wednesday, Sept. 8, the Very Reverend Damasus Winzen, Prior of Mount Saviour Monastery, Madigan Road off Hendy Hollow Road, near Elmira, announced today.

Abbot Kaelin is coming to make his official Visitation of the monastery which is directly under his jurisdiction. During his few weeks stay in the United States he will also visit other Benedictine monasteries and convents.

ON THE FEAST of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Sept. 8, the Primate will preside at an evening Mass at 5:45 p.m. in the monastery chapel of Our Lady, Queen of Peace. At this Mass he will receive the first vows of Brother Luke Pape of Toronto, Canada, who recently returned from the novitiate of the Abbey of St. Benoit-du-Lac in the Province of Quebec.

Due to the Primate's short visit, owing to other engagements throughout the country, Father Damasus announced that it had been necessary to give up plans for a reception in town for friends of the monastery. He invites them all to attend the evening Mass on Sept. 8 before which Abbot Kaelin will address a few words to members of the St. Scholastica League and all others present.

Races Slated Sunday At Canandaigua

Promoter Jerry Earl will attempt to get back in the stock car business Sunday afternoon at Ontario County Fairgrounds following a cancellation last week because of wet grounds.

The speedy half-mile oval, one mile north of Canandaigua is expected to be a busy place this week with a 50-lap feature event worth double points to drivers on tap. Earl expects one of the largest fields of the season Sunday, with many big-name stars from all sections of the country competing.

The 50-lap championship race will be preceded by three 8-lap heats, a pair of 10-lap semifinals and a 10-lap consolation race with the first starting flag dropping at 2:45.

Indians To Sing At Auriesville

A large group of Mohawk Indians who originally inhabited the area at the time of the Martyrs will visit the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs at Auriesville this weekend. The Rev. Michael Jacobs, S.J., a full-blooded Mohawk Indian will sing the Mass at 4 p.m. on Sunday and will preach the sermon.

A group of Indians will sing the Mass, dressed in their native Indian costumes, in their native Iroquois language. A special dispensation was given to sing the Mass in Iroquois instead of Latin.

Kateri Tekakwitha, the famous Indian girl, who was born at Ossernenon where the Auriesville Shrine is now located, died at Caughnawaga in Canada, where the present day Mohawks have their Reservation. Katari is now a Venerable of the Church, and prayers are said every day at Auriesville that she may soon be one of the canonized saints of the Church.
