Eye-Bank Research Society Being Formed

Formation of the Rochester Eye-Bank and Research Society, Inc. with offices at 16 State St., Rochester, was announced today by Ross Guglielmino, temporary president. He said that a certificate of incorporation has been filed in Albany with the Secretary of State containing the names of representatives of all the Lions Clubs in the Rochester area.

The new organization will continue the eye-bank work heretofore conducted by the Lions themselves. Since April, 1952, the Lions have obtained 8,000 pledges of eyes after death.

One of the purposes of the new organization will be to raise funds for eye research into the main causes of blindness which are not corrected by the corneal transplant operation.

More than 700 blind persons are in the Rochester area. Yet only about one million dollars is available now from all contributing sources for research in blinding diseases.

Membership in the new organization will not be limited to Lions. The public will be invited to participate through a charter membership drive to be announced.

Detroit Central Meets Aquinas Sunday To Renew Traditional Football Rivalry

FACING AQUINAS line on Sunday in Aquinas Memorial Stadium will be these two tackles of Catholic Central High of Detroit. George Evankovich, (left) senior, 5 feet, 11 inches, 190 pounds; Bill White, junior, 5 feet, 190 pounds.

Catholic Central of Detroit will meet the Aquinas Institute football team Sunday in the Aquinas Memorial Stadium on Ridgeway Ave. at 2 p.m. The rivalry of the two schools has become a tradition during the past few years of competition.

Both teams will be bouncing back from defeats suffered last week. Aquinas lost to Erie Prep at Erie, Pa., last Saturday by a score of 7-0 while Catholic Central suffered a 14-0 defeat at the hands of Boys Town before a crowd of 29,000.

The V. H. Lang trophy, which was won by Catholic Central last year, will be presented to the winner of Sunday's game.

THE DETROIT team always poses a tough test for the Little Irish. Coach Stan Zagdel has been emphasizing offense in recent drills and hopes to improve over the total of four touchdowns scored in four games.

Dave Kelly, who was the sparkplug in last year's Erie game, kept his identity alive when Aquinas visited Erie last Saturday. He intercepted three Prep passes in the first half to kill off touchdown threats. He caught one on the Aquinas two yard line and ran it out to the seven.

Erie scored its lone touchdown on a 68 yard pass play midway in the third period. Aquinas backs were unable to get underway on the wet ground.

Don Holleder Receives High Praise From Coach

Don Holleder, former Aquinas football player now playing for Army at West Point, received high praise from the Army coach, Earl Blaik, in a newspaper interview which appeared in the New York Times. The article said in part:

"The Army team is better now because of one player. When Holleder became eligible all kinds of changes became possible. That was not until after the Michigan game. Army was a much improved team against the Wolverines, but Blaik thinks that it has been strengthened most since Holleder's appearance in the line-up.

"THE BIG ARMY END, kept out of the first two games as a disciplinary measure, is the best football player here. He is the hustler who sparks the team and gives it a lift—a thoroughbred competitor. A great pass catcher and fine blocker, he is also strong on defense. Had he not missed so much work he could rank with the best in the country.

"With Holleder's appearance in the line-up Army's attack became far more effective, particularly through the air. He took two touchdown passes from Vann in the Dartmouth game, one of 67 yards and the other of 44 yards.

"It was not only his personal contributions that made Holleder's presence so strongly felt. Equally important was the fact that Blaik now was able to make changes that corrected weaknesses and added strength elsewhere.

"Bill Chance, who has played in so many spots, was converted from an end into a center and that permitted Dick Stephenson, a sophomore, to move from center to left tackle."
