St. Joseph Villa 'A' Grid Team With 'Majorettes'

FIRST TEAM of St. Joseph Villa football squad ready for next opponent, St. Augustine school eleven to be met at the Villa, Saturday. To cheer them on will be the "majorettes" shown, in photo to right. The team is under the direction of the Rev. Austin B. Hanna, chaplain and coach J. O'Brien.

Aquinas To Meet Toledo Eleven

Stan Zajdel, coach of Aquinas Institute's football team, said he will now devoted 16 hours a day instead of his regular 15 to the team in order to get back on the winning road.

DAVE BOLAND
(Aquinas end, 6 feet, 180 pounds who caught T.D. pass, Sunday)

On last Sunday Aquinas completely outplayed Catholic Central but still came out on the short end of the score. This was due partly to the fact that star halfback Hank Angelone was not able to carry the ball very much because of an injured hip. The "Irish" were inside the Detroit 15 yard line 5 times during the game but fumbles, pass interceptions and a rugged Detroit defense stopped them every time but once.

THIS SUNDAY Aquinas will play Central Catholic of Toledo. In 1950 when Aquinas was undefeated, they beat Toledo by a score of 39-25. Toledo has a great fullback Miller who recently carried 8 times in a row for 55 yards. They shift from the single wing to the "T", and have two fine halfbacks in Phelps and Archambeam. Under their new coach Fred George they have a season's record of 3-3.

Aquinas player has had to give up Aquinas player has had to give up football because of head injuries. Last Sunday guard Bruce Lowenguth suffered a concussion and was hospitalized.

It is expected that Angelone's hip will be up to par again on Sunday and this coupled with the improved running of Dave Kelly should give Aquinas the spark they need.

Fatima Statue Arrives In Uruguay

Montevideo, Uruguay—(NC)—Extraordinary manifestations of devotion marked the arrival here from Italy of a statue of the Virgin Mary which will be enshrined in a projected National Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima.

The statue was carved from a description of the Blessed Mother given by Sister Lucia, a Carmelite nun, who was one of the three children to whom the Virgin appeared at Fatima several times in 1917. Sister Lucia is now in a convent at Coimbra, near Fatima.

When the statue was taken off the Italian ship on which it was transported, great numbers of the faithful joined in a procession escorting it to the cathedral. It was later taken to the city of Florida, and afterwards to Salto, the site selected for the national shrine. The shrine is being built under the sponsorship of the Bishops of Uruguay.

Cardinal Dedicates 104-Bed Hospital

Port Huron, Mich. — (NC) — The new 104-bed Mercy hospital here was solemnly dedicated by His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit.

The hospital's completion climaxes four years' of active planning by the citizens of the Blue Water city and the Religious Sisters of Mercy. It was opened last summer. On its dedication day most of its 85 patients were visited by the Cardinal and his assistant priests.

The Sisters contributed $350,000 toward the cost of construction; the Federal government granted $667,000. Finally more than 500 workers pooled their efforts in a local campaign, bringing in $1,200,000. Of this final figure $400,000 went to an addition for the Port Huron general hospital and the remaining $800,000 to Mercy.

Boston 'Red Sox' Aid Missions

Manila — (NC) — The Bilaans, a mountain tribe in Koronadal, Cotabato, on the island of Mindanao, have no interest in major league baseball. They have never heard of Fenway Park. But they will soon be trotting around their little mountain homes clad in the Boston Red Sox uniforms.

Joe Cronin, vice president of the Red Sox, recently shipped many used uniforms of the major league team as part of the relief aid to the Bila-ans. The goods were sent to Brother Regis Xavier, of Notre Dame high school in Marbel, Cotabato.

Other consignments of clothes and medicine have been received recently from benefactors in the U. S. for distribution among the Bila-ans.

Mexico Converts Convent To Museum

Mexico City — (RNS) — The government has ordered a deactivated convent in the state of Michoacan to be converted into a national museum.

The convent, which formerly housed nuns of the Order of St. Catherine, has been in disuse since the Calles regime (1924-28), which promoted an anti-Church policy.

According to officials here, the Michoacan convent building is one of three rare plateresque (Spanish Renaissance) constructions in the world. Reconditioning of the edifice already has begun.

Conversion of the convent into a museum was described as part of a governmental program to aid states in raising the cultural level of the people.
