Father-daughter booths, Mercy pups and Maryknoll visitors will highlight Mission Day, Friday, Nov. 19 at Our Lady of Mercy High School. Merchandise from New York for every member of the family will be on sale. Mercy pups and a brand new selection of fuzzy animals will occupy booths.

Sister Maria Del Rey, author of "Pacific Hopscotch," will conduct a booth showing new Maryknoll movies.

"How many patients have been cared for in the Maryknoll Sisters' Clinic in Pusan, Korea, from its opening, April 1, 1951 through November 1, 1954 (43 months)?" is the question to be used for this year's guessing contest. A round trip ticket by air for two for a weekend in New York with hotel reservations at the Waldorf-Astoria will be awarded to the winner. The runner-up will receive a chest of silver and the third prize will be an electric percolator.

Father Gibbons Listed At Forum Lecture Series

Seven powerful "helps from God" will be the light in which the Rev. Paul L. Gibbons views the Sacraments in Monday's Catholic Information Forum lecture at 8 p.m. in the Seneca Hotel. In announcing this, the Rev. Richard M. Quinn, director, also pointed out that the halfway mark in the current series will be reached with this sixth meeting.

After investigating our means of knowing God through reason and Revelation and examining the Creator's plan for us in this life and the next, Father Quinn noted that this week's lecture, delivered by the Rev. Paul Murley outlined for a large gathering our knowledge of Jesus Christ and His agent on earth the Catholic Church.

FATHER MURLEY not only described the founding of Christianity but also noted the appropriateness of our Lord's setting up an institution endowed with definite "Marks," four characteristics permitting the true Church of Christ to be found and identified by sincere searchers.

The Nov. 8 lecture will proceed from this point to describe the Redeemer's marvelous system for sanctifying His followers by seven beautiful ceremonies which not only signify by also produce torrents of Divine Grace in the souls of recipients. The perfect parallel between the stages of life and the sacramental system will also be underlined, according to the director's release.

Father Gibbons was ordained in June 1952 and after serving as assistant pastor at St. Monica Parish, Rochester, and St. Anne's, Hornell, has spent the last five years at St. Andrew Seminary as instructor of high school and college preparatory Latin.

Father Quinn reminded that each 60 minute talk is followed by a question period in which all are invited to participate.

On the third Wednesday of each month, members of this group also meet to prepare bandages for a medical mission in Africa. This activity has come about as the result of a letter to one of the members from a medical mission nun who wrote that it was necessary to use banana leaves as bandages because of the lack of suitable materials. Since then, these women gather discarded linens from their friends, make the bandages, and mail a package to Africa each month.
