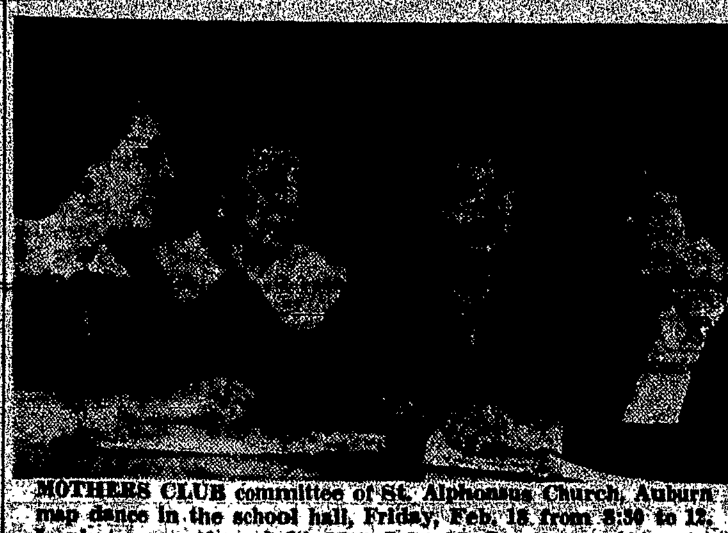
PLAN DANCE IN AUBURN



MOTHERS CLUB committee of St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn map dance in the school hall, Friday, Feb. 18 from 8:30 to 12. In photo are: (from left) Mrs. John N. Suertin, co-chairman; Mrs. William J. Coleman, co-chairman; Mrs. William A. Pascal, general chairman and Mrs. Bruce Dawn, mothers club president.

Mercy Alumnae Membership Sets Senior Enrollment Drive

The Mercy Alumnae Membership Drive to enroll the seniors is being conducted through February until March 10, according to school captain, Carol Bennett.

Homeroom lieutenants taking returns are: 102, Beverly Gargan; 104, Claire Reitz; 106, Dolores Stein; 108, Pat Welter; 113, Derena Doohan; 310, Marilyn Rombaut.

AT A CLASS meeting Barbara Moore, a member of the class of '51 who now attends Nazareth College and is president of its Undergraduate Association, addressed the seniors outlining how they could join the organization and explaining the benefits gained.

To facilitate the paying of life memberships, an installment plan will be used. After the drive is over, four special days will be set aside until Easter for installment payments on life memberships. These will be called "A.A. Days" — Alumnae Association Days.

EVERY SENIOR who joins the Alumnae Association will be a guest of honor at an Alumnae Communion breakfast in the spring and will be officially accepted into the organization then.

"Our aim is 100% membership" Miss Bennett said. The class of '52 was the first class to attain 100% membership. A bulletin board on the first floor is recording the standings of the homerooms.

'Snow White' Musical Set By Holy Family Teenagers

Rochester's Holy Family Teenagers, composed of high school students from Madison High, Nazareth, Aquinas and Edison Tech, augmented by the Holy Family Grammar school children, will present their first musical production, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" at the parish Auditorium, Sunday afternoon Feb. 20 at 2:15 p.m. and Monday evening, Feb. 21 at 8:15 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Margaret Bubel from Madison High has the lead as "Snow White" and playing opposite her as Prince Florimond is John Volkmar from Aquinas. In supporting roles are: Ann Bauer, Virginia Morabito, Frances Ruscio, Sandra Schwartz, Ann Marie Giansyola, Elizabeth Corndo, Yolanda Abascine, Mary Ann Boss, James Wegman and Frank Cody.

THE SEVEN DWARFS with Patrick (Ricky) Russell in the lead as Sleepy, are: Timothy Clar, Michael SanAngelo, Frank Morone, Gary Legler, James Weisinger and Dennis Russell.

Mrs. Helen Sypian, well known dancing teacher in the parish, is choregrapher for this production. At the piano is Joseph Snyder, who has played for many musicals produced at the Holy Family Theatre in the past.

Assisting the director with costumes, properties and coaching are Mrs. Vickie Clar and Mrs. Fanny Morone. Richard O'Niel, Aquinas graduate, is in charge of the lighting for the six scenes.

The Rev. George J. Schmitt, pastor, is producing this play by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York City.

IFCA Circle Sets Rummage Sale

Rochester Circle, International Federation of Catholic Alumnae will conduct a rummage sale beginning at 6 p.m. Friday evening, Feb. 25 and continuing on Saturday, Feb. 26 at 216 West Main St.

Profits from the sale will be used by the Circle in carrying out its program of projects pledged to serving the Church and community—particularly its scholarship and optic projects.

DEPOT STATIONS have been designated where rummage may be left prior to the sale and on Friday evening, workers will gather to sort and sell and, of course, on Saturday a large number of workers will be on hand to assist in the sale.

Those working on the sale include Mrs. John J. Mahoney, Circle Regent; Mrs. Aurel Martin, Mrs. Ruth Mason, Miss Marlene Boyle and Miss Marilyn Winfield.

Notre Dame University Band Due In Rochester, April 17

The nationally famed University of Notre Dame Band will present a concert on Sunday evening, April 17 in Rochester's Auditorium Theatre. Their appearance in Rochester is offered to the public through the combined efforts of the Men's and Women's Groups of the Rochester Alumni Club of the University of Notre Dame.

Distinctive in style the Notre Dame Band is well know for talent, color and appeal. Their program bears out their versatility as it goes from marching music to light opera to swing.

Rochester has the only member in the Notre Dame Band representing New York State in the person of John Murphy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Murphy of Rhinecliffe Drive.

Honorary committee, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Murphy have graciously conferred with and counselled chairmen Jack Nye Duffey, Charles John O'Brien, and Mrs. Peter J. Connelly, Jr., president of the Notre Dame Women's Organization, and committees are now being chosen to handle the many details relative to the production of the concert.

Proceeds of the benefit performance will go to the Notre Dame Scholarship Fund.
