Kirley; vice-president, Miss L. Gaffney; treasurer, Miss J. Cox; secretary, Miss A. M. Hanna.

St. Agnes Day—one especially dear to Christian girlhood—was fittingly observed at Nazareth Academy Wednesday. The celebration had an added interest from the fact that it was also the patronal feast of Rev. Mother Agnes, the esteemed and beloved head of the institution. An interesting programme was rendered by the young ladies, assisted by the pupils of the preparatory department. It consisted of songs, instrumental music, etc. Special mention is due the instrumental duet by Misses M. Byrnes and K. L. Caring; dumb bell exercises by the little girls; flower song with ring movements, accompanists, Misses M. Kirk, E. McLeavy and M. Byrnes; German class recitation, "Der Reichste Fuerst," address to Rev. Mother, Miss L. J. Hafner. A drama, "The Dream of Ages," was presented in exceptionally good style; the first scene presented Scripture types of womanhood; the second scene Pagan types and the third Christian types.

At the meeting held in St. Mary's hall Monday evening, a literary and musical club was formed, embracing the features of a truth society and reading circle, whose object shall be to promote the reading of Catholic works, the refutation of aspersions upon and correction of ignorant mistakes concerning our Holy Church, the study of history from a Catholic standpoint and the betterment, generally, of its members. The name of the club will be decided at a subsequent meeting. W. A. Marakle, who presided as temporary chairman, read a letter from Katherine E. Conway, our distinguished townsman and associate editor of the Boston Pilot, who organized and is still president of the first Reading Circle in the "Hub," giving the method of procedure in her circle, and also quoted from Conde B. Palen's recent publication "The Young Man in Catholic Life," to show the desirability of acquainting ourselves with Catholic literature and doctrines. Officers were then chosen as follows: President, Willard A. Marakle; vice-president, Dr. L. J. Somers; secretary, Miss Nellie Lucas; treasurer, Miss Libbie Moore; librarian, Miss L. Daly; board of directors, Mr. Smyth, T. F. Foley, Dr. Fennessey, T. H. Donovan, Dan. C. Sullivan, Mary Cunningham, Nellie O'Callaghan, Eugenie Cunningham, Annie Carey, Maggie Marion. About forty persons joined the club. Each member was given a question, the answer to which must be brought in writing to the next meeting and read by the person answering. The board of directors met at the residence of Miss Daly, 113 South Union street, Wednesday evening and arranged a programme for the next meeting which will be held Monday evening, February 2nd, in the rooms of the C. B. L., Durand building, West Main street, which have been secured as the club's headquarters.

February 14th will be the fiftieth anniversary of Mother Hieronymo as a Sister of Charity. It is proposed to celebrate the event in a becoming manner. Mrs. R. K. SOCIETIES MEET NEXT WEEK.

Monday, Jan. 26, Branch 81. Tuesday, " 27, " 139-12. Wednesday, 28, " 34. Friday, 31, " 121.

We condense our society news this week in order to make room for the address delivered by Grand Deputy E. J. Ernst at the installation of Branch 12. It should be read by every member of the association, and the advice given followed by all.

Monday evening the annual inspection and dress parade of St. Leopold's Union, Roman Catholic Uniformed Union, took place at Wagner's hall. The inspection was conducted by Col. H. N. Schlick and staff, and afterward a literary entertainment was given, at which an excellent programme was rendered.

Among the Supreme Deputies appointed by the Supreme President are: John Fitzgerald, New York City, for New York and New Jersey; L. J. McParlin, Lockport, N. Y., for Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wyoming, Montana, Utah, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Washington; P. J. Kelley, Salamanca, N. Y., for Kentucky; Martin Carey, Buffalo, N. Y., for Massachusetts.

Thursday evening was the Fifth Anniversary of Branch 88, and the affair was made quite entertaining. The large hall was turned into a sort of a banquet room with the inimitable "Jim" Whalen at one end of the table, and president elect, Dr. Crowley, at the other, with the Revs. J. P. Kiernan, Dr. Hanna and Father Hartley at right and left. Quite a number of prominent men (young generation) were present, and all seemed to enjoy themselves. James Whalen acted as toastmaster, and toasts were responded to by Judge Kinney, M. O'Reilly, A. Lorzcau, the Rev. Fathers and many others. The Branch 88 quartette was present and gave several well rendered selections. James Connelly recited Barbara Fritchie in his usual good style, and Dr. Kuefer gave several comic recitations. The Banjo duet given by two members was also good. In fact the thanks of the invited guests are due to the committee for the manner in which they were treated.

INSTALLATION AT LIMA.

The officers of Branch 138, of Lima, were installed Wednesday, January 14th, by District Deputy J. J. Barrett, assisted by Brothers Breen and Cassidy of Avon. Quite a delegation was present from Branch 45. At the close of the meeting, all were invited to the dining room of the American Hotel by Brother Ashe, the proprietor, where they sat down to as fine a banquet as ever was served in Lima. After the inner man had been satisfied all returned to the session room and enjoyed some of Brother Lockington's fine havanas. Some time was spent in listening to addresses and singing, and when the Avon boys left for home they were satisfied they owed a debt of gratitude to Lima. The association can well feel proud of Branch 138. We never saw a more healthy looking lot of men in any Branch.

Dr. Guinan makes a good president. The Rochester boys who were to be present lost a fine chance to obtain a better meal and better cigars than they can get at home.

Some Avon members are laid up with gout, but are satisfied to suffer for the time they had at Lima.

A Disfigured Child. Another Case of Catarah Cured by Dr. Freeman, at His Institute, 405 Franklin St.

Few people have ever seen catarah in such a severe form as that presented in the case of the little child of Justus Knapp, Webster, N. Y. It was born with catarah, and up to three months ago its life was one of extreme torture to itself, and a source of anxiety and worry to its father and mother. There was a constant acid discharge from its ears and nose, and wherever this discharge came in contact with the skin it produced unightly running sores, which kept spreading until the nose, ears, face and scalp was one mass of raw surface, which in turn threw out a discharge, and this coming in contact with other parts produced similar sores until the whole body was covered. The poor child was in such misery it could neither sleep nor eat, as you can quite easily imagine. It was ed away in flesh to a mere shadow. Everything that promised relief to the little sufferer was given it by the fond and loving parents. But nothing did any good. On November 12th it was brought to Dr. Freeman at his institute, 105 Franklin street, as the mother's last resort. She dared scarcely hope for its complete recovery, but when four weeks later the child was restored to perfect health, without a trace of the old disease left, the mother's joy knew no bounds. She never tires of saying a good word for Dr. Freeman, who she says saved her child.

This is only one of the many thousands instances in which Dr. Freeman's treatment for catarah has proven itself invaluable. He treats all chronic diseases with equal success. Cases pronounced incurable by other physicians are his specialties.

Advertisement for FATHER KOBBE'S NERVE TONIC. Physicians Couldn't Cure Him. People can hardly believe it. JAS. H. WALLICK, Hamilton Co., N. Y. One bottle of FATHER KOBBE'S NERVE TONIC cured me entirely after physicians had used it unsuccessfully for 8 months to relieve me of my nervous debility. W. HUBBARD.

I take pleasure in letting you know that my boy is still all right, he has not had any of the spasms since about March 20th. The people can hardly believe it from the fact that he had as many as 20 a day of them. I believe he was a very nervous child all his life but did not show any signs of spasms until last December, after which they came in regular succession, and I had doctors attending who could do nothing for him, nor even tell me what was the matter. I had despair of his ever getting well, until I got Koenig's Nerve Tonic. After taking one bottle a bottle he got quite well and has not had the least sign of spasms since. Respectfully Yours, MRS. E. LITTON.

I testify to the facts as stated above to be strictly true. JAS. HARTY, Esq. Our Pamphlet for sufferers of nervous diseases will be sent free to any address, and poor patients can also obtain this medicine free of charge from us. This remedy has been prepared by the Reverend Pastor Koenig, of Fort Wayne, Ind., for the past ten years, and is now prepared under his direction by the
