Easter Vacation Conclaves Set By Nazareth Students

Two out-of-state conventions to be held during Easter vacation will provide opportunities for Nazareth College students interested in art and science to exchange ideas with professional persons and students from other colleges.

Twelve delegates will attend the Eastern Colleges Science Conference at Seton Hall University, South Orange, New Jersey on April 15 and 16. Joan Ewing and Carolyn Krebs, the official delegates, will give research papers. Miss Ewing will discuss the scientific method, while Miss Krebs will speak on Mitosis.

Among the activities scheduled are tours to near-by industrial, research and hospital laboratories such as Esso, Merck, Thomas Edison; talks by important scientists; conferences and panel discussions. Social activities will include a banquet to be held at Hotel Douglas in Newark and a buffet supper and dance on April 16.

STUDENTS ATTENDING will be: Marie Bonn, Margaret Frisch, Mary Lynn McGowan, Diane Smith, Priscilla Costich, Kathleen Mowson, Pat Naviry, Joanne Brown, Prudence Costich and Lucille Tomczyk.

"Art Education as a Frontier for Freedom" is the general theme of the National Eastern Arts Association Convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio from April 11 to 16. Panels, art exhibits, tours and talks stressing elementary and secondary school art education will be included in the program.

Miss Louise Connorton, instructor in art at Nazareth College will attend with four junior and senior students. The representatives are: Marcia Wood of Rochester, Michelena Frascatore and Leona Frascatore of Gloversville and Kathleen Griffin of Hornell.

Father Ball Reports $69,425

Geneva — The Rev. Edward K. Ball, V.F., pastor of St. Francis de Sales Parish, Geneva, has announced that $69,425 has been reported on the $75,000 building fund drive.

Objective of the drive, which began a month ago, is to secure funds for the building of four new classrooms and a new garage at the school. The new classrooms will be the first work done on the school building since renovation necessitated by the fire on Feb. 19, 1940.

"We are hopeful that the goal of $75,000 will be reached in the near future," Father Ball declared. He indicated that some returns are still outstanding.

Bishop Kearney Imparts Blessing For Sr. Vivina

Final blessing for Sister Mary Vivina Hauser, of the Congregation of the School Sisters of Notre Dame was imparted by His Excellency Bishop Kearney at solemn funeral services, Wednesday, April 6 in Church of the Holy Ghost, Coldwater.

Sister Vivina, a native of Rochester whose last mission was teaching at Holy Ghost School, died April 3, 1955 in St. Mary Hospital after a brief illness.

Solemn Requiem Mass was offered by the Rev. Albert J. Geiger, pastor of Holy Ghost assisted by the Rev. George J. Schmitt, deacon; and the Rev. William Lammers, subdeacon. Also in the Sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph H. Gefell and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Duffy.

Mass was sung by Notre Dame Sisters and large delegations of School Sisters of Notre Dame, St. Joseph Sisters and Sisters of Mercy were present.

Daughter of the late Xavier and Barbara Hauser who were life members of St. Joseph Church, Rochester, Sister Mary Vivina was in the School Sisters of Notre Dame congregation for 57 years.

Sister served as teacher in the following schools: Good Counsel, Baltimore; Holy Redeemer in New York City and 19 years at Holy Family School, Rochester. Prior to going to Holy Family she served 12 years in the mission field at Puerto Rico.

She is survived by her two sisters, Mrs. John Kesselring and Mrs. Nicholas Werner; two brothers, James J. Hauser of Bristol, Pa. and William J. Hauser of Rochester.

Services at the grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery were conducted by Father Geiger and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Wilfred T. Craugh, Msgr. Gefell and the Rev. Roy B. Morphy.

Also attending were the Reverend Fathers Gerald J. Whelan, C.SS.R., Francis X. Kenny, C.SS.R., Walter J. Hohl, Frederick W. Straub, Charles V. Boyle, Robert J. Fox, John L. Coonan, Leo Matuszewski, John Woloch, Joseph McCarthy, Leo V. Smith, Raymond Wahl, Roy B. Morphy, Bernard Kuchman, John J. Healey, Joseph Reinhart.

Noon-day Mass Moved Ahead At French Church

In compliance with numerous requests, the noon-day Mass schedule celebrated each day at Our Lady of Victory Church, Pleasant St. has been changed.

Henceforth the Mass will begin at 12:10, five minutes earlier than previously. The recitation of the novena prayers said each Tuesday will also begin at this new time.

Rev. Edward P. Callens, SS.CC., pastor of The little French Church, also wishes to announce that those attending this noon Mass will also be given an opportunity for confession. Confessionals will be opened each day during this special Mass.

The time change has been made at the request of the many workers in the business section who are desirous of more frequent participation in the various church services.

The time for the Tuesday novena as well as the first Friday afternoon Mass will remain the same, 5:15 p.m.
