Bishop Kearney Honors 12 Area Lay Catechists

By MARY SCULLAY SCOTT

Ithaca - - Twelve graduates received Confraternity of Christian Doctrine diplomas from His Excellency Bishop Kearney at an impressive ceremony following the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass at Church of the Immaculate Conception, Ithaca on Sunday, June 19.

Bishop Kearney was introduced by the Rev. Robert Downs as the Official Teacher of Christian Doctrine in the Diocese and successor of the Apostles delivered the commencement sermon.

(Text of sermon in adjoining columns)

The need of trained teachers in religion was explained by the Bishop with examples. He said "such teachers must have confidence in themselves and its a great mistake to permit people to teach Christian Doctrine unless they have technical training.

"If training to be teachers of history or English or science is necessary then technical training to be a teacher of Religion is even more necessary since Christian Doctrine is the greatest of all sciences."

TEN OF THE Catechists were members of the Immaculate Conception Parish, Ithaca, and two Catechists represented the Van Etten parish of St. Pius X.

The Catechists took an extensive 60 hour course in Christian Doctrine from the priest assistants, Reverend Fathers Paul Morgan, Otto Vogt and Robert Downs and in Methods of Teaching Religion from a Mission Helper of the Sacred Heart. At the conclusion of the courses those who qualified took final written examinations in both subjects.

With the opening of the scholastic year in September these new technically trained teachers of religion will staff some of the 73 weekly release time classes in which over 800 children are enrolled in the city and rural areas under the supervision of the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart.

GRADUATE LAY Teachers of Religion who received diplomas were John Cullen, Joseph Farley, Kerman Glaser, Dr. Clinton Stimson and the Mesdames Lillian Baker, Alice Cullen, Claire Gilbert, Ann Grippin, Lucy Junker, Mabel Murtaugh, Dorothy Sheehan and Dorothy Wilson.

The Catechists will follow the graded series of religion outlines, "Confraternity School Year Religion Course" written by a committee of Sisters in the Catechetical field and published by the National Office of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Washington, D.C.

Father Vogt was Celebrant of the Mass at which His Excellency presided. Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Byrne, V.F., Pastor, Very Rev. Msgr. Donald M. Cleary, Rev. Albert H. Schnacky, Diocesan Director of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, Father Morgan and Father Downs were also present in the Sanctuary. The Sisters of St. Joseph and the Mission Helpers of the Sacred Heart attended.

In the 87 year-old history of the Rochester diocese this is the second time that such a graduation was held. On May 24, 1953, Bishop Kearney presented diplomas to twelve Ithacan Lay Catechists following Solemn High Mass. Hymns were sung during the Mass by the St. Cecelia Choir under the direction of Sister M. Margaret Josephine, S.S.J. with Miss Adrianna Rubens at the organ.

Responding to the call of Pope Pius XII for the laity to spread catechetical instruction the zealous lay apostles trained in Ithaca, learn the "Confraternity Religion Course" by using it. Each class was brought to a close by the Sister Instructor asking, "Keep the Faith?" and the lay catechists answering, "No, spread it."
