'Gift Cart' Use On Rise At Mercy Hospital

Auburn—One of the newest services offered the patients of Mercy Hospital is a Gift Cart which daily makes the rounds of the rooms and wards, stocked with a variety of articles designed for the patient's comfort and convenience.

Under the direction of Sister M. Consilia, OS.F. of the hospital staff, the Cart services have grown in scope so that a corps of volunteers has been formed to aid the Franciscans Sisters in staffing and servicing the Gift Cart.

MRS. DAVID H. NANGLE is in charge of the recruitment of volunteers for the Gift Cart. Assisting Mrs. Nangle and acting as volunteer captains for individual weeks are Mrs. John T. Geherin, Mrs. Frederick Atkinson, Jr., Mrs. James Ryan, Mrs. Arthur Ryan, Mrs. Thomas R. Herbert, Mrs. Louis McCarthy;

Also Mrs. Donald Crawford, Mrs. Robert Herron, Mrs. Paul Ringwood, and Miss Joan O'Brien.

Since its inception merchandise on the cart has grown, by patients' request, from sundries, notions, cigarettes and candies to include a list of articles such as religious goods, gifts for new babies, Christening outfits, gifts for small children, costume jewelry and many other items.

Because of the interest in the cart and the recruitment of volunteer workers it is expected that during the fall an organization will be formed to maintain the Gift Cart and the eventual Gift Shop which the rapid growth of the cart's inventory indicates is part of the future service Mercy Hospital will offer its patients and its friends.

Davy Crockett Night At Stock Car Races

Promoter Ed Otto will attempt to whip up a blend of Davy Crockett and stock car racing Friday night at Monroe County Fairgrounds.

With racing forcing the cancellation of last week's 50-lap mid-season championship bout, Otto has rescheduled the title test for this week. In addition, every youngster in attendance will receive one of old Davy's coonskin lid covers. For the speedboys, the 50-lapper will represent their longest chase of the year with the exception of the annual Labor Day 100.

In addition to the Crockett gifts and the 50-lap test a full program of sportman division racing is also listed. Besides of the length of the card, the first race will begin at 8 o'clock instead of the customary 8:15.

Villa Restaurant Owner Coins Slogan

Jim Chatel, President of the Villa Restaurant at 3700 East Avenue opposite St. John Fisher College has coined a new slogan, "Dine for $1.69." This unusual price for the Villa's Dinners was prompted by his own experience as a father of five children.

Chatel said that he was interested in giving a large family of seven the opportunity of having an evening away from the kitchen at home and still not put too great a dent in the family budget. Under the "Dine for 1.69" plan this can be done for less than $10.00. "If mother and dad care for an added treat with their dinner a delicious shrimp cocktail can be had for the almost unbelievable price of just 16c," Chatel said.

James A. Chatel and his family are members of St. Francis of Assisi Parish.
