Flood Relief Appeal Made By KC Deputy

An urgent call was made to all district deputies of the Knights of Columbus in New York State for council participation in flood relief to areas stricken in the northeast section of the United States.

HUGH A. DOYLE

A telegram over the signature of State Deputy Frank D. J. Flanagan, to district deputies throughout New York State said:

"I would urgently request that you contact councils in your districts seeking assistance to flood victims in New England. Especially needed are babies' and childrens' clothes, canned goods and other articles."

The state deputy urged use of all possible means to inform persons in their communities that Councils will pick up donations at some central point for forwarding to Knights of Columbus Club, 436 Orange St., New Haven, Conn., care of State Deputy Thomas Parks.

FINANCIAL contributions may be made out to New York State Council Knights of Columbus Flood Committee.

"Let us know what aid you can render," the telegram continued. "This is truly putting to practice our first principle in the fullest. Please make reports to Emergency Chairman Hugh A. Doyle, 87 Walnut St., New Rochelle, N.Y."

Emergency Chairman Doyle who is a past state deputy of New York Council was appointed to head the relief program because of past experience. After World War 2 he was Director of American Relief to Austria and Director of Displaced Persons.

Following the Korean war he was Westchester County Chairman of the Committee to Aid Korea. For this work he was honored by President Syngman Rhee.

Auburn Council was the first in the Diocese of Rochester to report activity in the program. All donations are being received at the Council home on Genesee St. in Auburn.

Rochester Council is setting up a receiving depot in Columbus Civic Center Auditorium on Lawn St.

Auditorium Set As Depot For Gifts To Flood Victims

A receiving station in Columbus Civic Center auditorium on Lawn St, between Chestnut and Broadway has been arranged by Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus for donations for flood victims according to Grand Knight Donald E. Woerner.

Responding to the appeal of State Deputy Frank D. J. Flanagan of Flushing the Rochester knights are ready for gifts of children's clothing and canned goods. A member of the council will be on hand to help with unloading of donations.

Gerald Morris was named local chairman by Grand Knight Woerner and he will work in cooperation with Clifford B. Sargent, K. of C. insurance executive. The station will be open Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

St. Salome Mothers Schedule Meeting

St. Salome School Mothers' Club will meet Wednesday, Sept. 7 at 8:30 p.m. All members are asked to be present, as the events for the season will be presented. Refreshments will be served after the business meeting.

St. Elizabeth Guild Schedules Meeting

St. Elizabeth Guild will meet Tuesday, Sept. 6 at 12:30 p.m. at the Columbus Civic Center. Mrs. J. P. Rush, president, will preside.

Our Lady Of Martyrs Pilgrimage To Be Held

A bus pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Martyrs at Auriesville will be conducted on Sunday, Sept. 11 by Everett P. Haynes, 529 Broadway, GReenfield 2858.

Statue of St. Isaac Jogues at Our Lady of Martyrs Shrine.

Buses will leave at 6 a.m. from Broad and South Ave. and there will be a bus from St. Anthony an Holy Apostles parishes. The Rochester Mass at the Shrine will be at 11 a.m. Trip will be made via the Thruway.

Those attending the pilgrimage are requested to bring a picnic lunch.

The Shrine at Auriesville, located at exit 28 of the Thruway at Fultonville, is the oldest religious shrine in the state and is on the site of the martyrdom of America's first canonized saints. Isaac Jogues, Rene Goupil and John Lalonde died here for the faith. It is also the birthplace of Kateri Tekakwitha, the Lily of the Mohawks.

Among the many points of interest at the shrine, is the long Hill of Prayer on which the first martyr, Rene Goupil was tomahawked by a hostile Indian on Sept. 29, 1642. Today along its rose-bordered path are the Stations of the Cross.

Not far from the Hill of Prayer is a small ravine where Father Jogues hid the body of Goupil to give it proper burial later. On his return next day however, the body could not be found. So certain are the authorities that Goupil's remains are here that sound tests are presently being made to discover the burial place.

At numerous points along the roads and pathways leading to the memorial structures are small markers recalling the events which occurred here during the eventful years that the martyrs were among the Mohawks.

The Slanderer's Victims

The slandered does harm to three persons at once: to him of whom he says the ill; to him to whom he says it; and, most of all, to himself in saying it.—St. Basil
