Three large orchestras supplied continuous, alternating music for 500 teenagers at the opening dance at the Immaculate last Friday evening. Membership cards were issued to the high school set and they will be necessary for subsequent dances.

In an effort to provide the teenagers with the usual amount of dancing time and still send them home earlier, a new time schedule has been put into effect for the weekly dances.

Intermission time has been shortened to ten minutes instead of the customary one half hour. Dances will begin at 9 p.m. and will end at 11:30 p.m. Joe Nolan will direct his fourteen piece orchestra and Miss Joyce Fasano, a student at Madison High School, will be the vocalist.

On Friday evening, Oct. 14 an evening of round and square dancing will be offered. Lex Byers and his orchestra will play.
